PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

“We, at the Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, are a diverse community of the poor, the disadvantaged and hungry, the well-to-do, the youth, elderly, visitors and those seeking refuge.

As a community of many cultures and races, we stand for unity in our diversity by expressing our love of God the Father through prayer and worship, through service to one another, through the ministry of welcoming, through evangelization and ecumenism. With the Bishop, we shall pursue this mission faithfully through the example of Jesus Christ, the power of the Holy Spirit and the gifts and talents of our members.” All are welcome today, especially visitors, guests and those who might be new to the community.

Parishioners,

Jill Keeney, teacher at Sacred Heart Early Learning Center, lost her home to a fire on Monday evening. Please consider a donation to help the family recover from this devastating event. Here are ways you can help:

A Clothing Donation-If you have gently used items you would like to donate, she has an adult daughter, an adult son, and a 7-year-old grandson who live with her. Call the ELC for clothing/shoe sizes 304-414-5757.

A Monetary Donation-A "Go Fund Me" page has been set up. The link can be found on the Early Learning Center's Facebook page.

We are currently setting up a "Venmo" account that allows for cash donations that go directly into her checking account. You can call the ELC for further information if you choose this option. 304-414-5757

Gift cards and cash are also an option.

Meals-If you would like to provide the family with a meal, go to the website "Take Them A Meal" and use the password: ethan. Meals will be dropped off at the ELC.

Thank you for your generosity!

Thank you to those who participated in our Advent Wreath making and Dinner this year! We all had such a wonderful time! Your wreath rings and candle rings can be used again! Please hang on to them and bring them to our event next year, or return them for safe keeping at the Cordis Center (weekdays) or Family Life Center (on Sunday mornings only.) Questions? The Epiphany of the Lord

People of Light

O God of all nations, who beckon us to live in the light, you scattered the darkness through the birth of your Son, Jesus. Prophets of old foretold that your brilliance would cover the earth and draw all peoples into your loving care. Grant that we, who, like the Magi, seek the radiance of your glory are found worthy to proclaim your holy name. Shine brightly within our hearts and illuminate our minds as we faithfully share the Good News. May all peoples be drawn closer to you by the revelation of your Incarnate Word. Keep us ever in your care, so that, filled with joy, we may always work to build a just and peaceful world. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sunday, January 7, 2018-Revealing Light

Today's Readings: Isaiah 60:1–6; Psalm 72:1–2, 7–8, 10–11, 12–13; Ephesians 3:2–3a, 5–6; Matthew 2:1–12. The Feast of the Epiphany celebrates God's manifestation to all the nations. We are familiar with the story of the three wise men and the song "We Three Kings," but do we stop and think about what the Scriptures tell us today?

In the First Reading, the prophet demands that Jerusalem rise up; God has restored the city, bathing it in light. God's glory is revealed in this thriving city and its renewed people: all the "Nations shall come to your light" (v. 3). Jerusalem reveals the Good News of salvation so that the world can bask in God's redeeming love. In the Gospel, Magi from the East (representing different cultures/places) seek the Christ Child. They follow a star; they are in pursuit of truth. Upon seeing Jesus, they paid him homage. Jesus has come to save all people, and Christ's manifestation transforms the way we see one another. Christ is at the center of our relationships, and he uses our diverse gifts and experiences to reveal the Father. When the visitors from the East find Jesus, they are made part of the story of God's people.

In Baptism, bathed with the Light of Christ, we are delivered from our misfortune and made into the Body of Christ. We are no longer a people of darkness; we must shine out like Jerusalem. Our lives should reflect Christ's Divine Presence, proclaim justice to the poor, release to the captives, and attract all who seek to know truth.

This Week at Home

Ordinary Time

Ordinary Time is divided into two periods. The first begins with the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord and ends with Ash Wednesday (February 14). The second and longest period begins after Pentecost and concludes on the Saturday after the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of All the Universe. The word ordinary means "ordered." The season is called Ordinary because we number the weeks outside of festal time to help us mark the time. During Ordinary Time, the Lectionary narrates the works of Jesus and outlines what it means to be a disciple. This season is not mundane or unimportant but a season to reflect on what it means to be a faithful disciple of Christ and to practice the faith we profess. During these weeks of Winter Ordinary Time, relish the quiet of winter, listen attentively to the Scriptures, and notice the simplicity of the decor in your parish church. Allow these few weeks to be a time of contemplation and of sharing the Good News, especially as we ready ourselves for the celebration of Lent and Easter.

Monday, January 8-Feast of the Baptism of the Lord

Today marks the official end of the Christmas season and the beginning of Ordinary Time. Along with the wedding at Cana and the story of the Magi, this story reveals God's presence among us. Adrien Nocent, OSB, says, "The baptism of Christ, leads us even more deeply into the paschal mystery. For the baptism of Christ in the Jordan manifests the fact that salvation is now given to all: sin is destroyed" (The Liturgical Year, Liturgical Press, 2013). As Jesus comes up from the water, God reveals that Jesus is his beloved Son. Because of the waters of Baptism, we share in the life that Jesus promised. We have a share in the Kingdom and are required to work that all people have peace, justice, and love. Today's Readings: Isaiah 42:1–4, 6–7 or Isaiah 55:1–11; Psalm 29:1–2, 3–4, 3, 9–10 or Isaiah 12:2–3, 4bcd, 5–6; Acts 10:34–38 or 1 John 5:1–9; Mark 1:7–11.

Friday, February 2-Feast of the Presentation of the Lord

Though forty days after Christmas, this feast brings Christmas Time to mind. The liturgy for this day reminds us that Jesus is a light of revelation to the Gentiles (2:32). Simeon and Anna recognized the divine child, the King of Glory, who became like us in order to save us from our sins. This feast reminds us that Jesus is truly the light that banishes all darkness and purifies all peoples so they might share in God's goodness. At Mass today, many parishes will bless the candles used throughout the year and invite parishioners to bring candles from home to be blessed. The liturgy begins with the blessing and a candlelight procession to remind us that Jesus is our light in the darkness. Today's Readings: Malachi 3:1–4; Psalm 24:7, 8, 9, 10; Hebrews 2:14–18; Luke 2:22–40.

Saturday, February 10-St. Scholastica

Not much is known about Scholastica's early life: she is the twin sister of St. Benedict and the foundress of the Benedictine nuns. Hagiography tells us that Scholastica was deeply devoted to prayer and deepening her friendship with God. The readings today point out both this idea of deep love for God and the theme of service to the Lord. Though Scholastica was cloistered, her devotion to God, her brother, and her community revealed the love and mercy of God to others. Take a moment today to read her story. There's a gem that tells us of a time she outwitted Benedict. Today's Readings (from the Memorial): Song of Songs 8:6–7; Psalm 148:1bc–2, 11–13a, 13c–14; Luke 10:38–42.

Happy New Year from SHGS! January is always an exciting month at the grade school, and 2018 promises to be no different. While our students are busy discovering physics, ecosystems, and properties of matter, Sacred Heart Grade School is also looking toward the next school year. The application for the 2018-2019 school year is now available on the school website, shgs.us. Parents of prospective students should feel free to call the office at 304-346-5491 to schedule a tour or a visit day for their student. Additional registration information is also available on the website.

Important dates to keep in mind are as follows:

January 5-Returning students and sibling registration window opens

January 22-Parishioner registration window opens

January 29-Registration opens to the public

SHGS will hold an Open House for parents of prospective students, Tuesday, January 30 from 6:00-7:00 p.m. Our annual Open House will be held during Catholic Schools Week, a week to celebrate the students, teachers, pastors, and families that make the SHGS community so special! This week is filled with many fun activities that showcase our academic excellence, devotion to service, and faith development. Wednesday, January 31 of Catholic Schools Week will be the first annual SHGS Day of Giving, which coincides with the National Catholic Education Association's, Many Gifts, One Nation day of giving. This is a day set aside for parents, parishioners, and community members to make financial donations to the school. Donations will go directly to the SHGS Funding Our Future Campaign, a fund set aside for capital improvements and maintenance specific to the grade school. SHGS students, teachers, and administrators will be participating in this special day by giving their time, both inside and outside of the school, in service to others and by sharing their musical talents with the school. Donations may be mailed to Sacred Heart Grade School, 1035 Quarrier Street, Charleston, WV 25301, or may be brought to the school office. We invite you to view the SHGS 2017 Year In Review video which is available on our website, shgs.us. This video allows us to look back on our accomplishments as we look forward to our future. Whether you have donated time, talent, or treasure during the past year or are planning to do so in 2018, we thank you for your support!

CPR & USE OF AED TRAINING Cardiac arrhythmias are the main cause of cardiac deaths in adults. CPR increases the chance of survival of a cardiac event. Two experienced CPR instructors Debbie Wiley, RN, CCRN and Cindy Keely, RRT, AHA BLS instructor, will be providing instruction on Basic CPR and using an AED (automated external defibrillator) to all ushers, priests, and related parish volunteers following the 8am, 10am, and 12pm Masses on Sunday, January 21, 2018. We will be available in the Sacristy for these instructions. The instruction class is free, however if you are wanting to be certified in Heartsaver CPR, there is a $25.00 fee payable by check or cash – exact change is required.

If you would like to sign up for these classes, please email Debbie Wiley at debbiecgh72@suddenlink.net by 1/15/18. Please include which session you will be attending. You may also call 304-389-8972 for any questions.

To everyone who brought delicious treats for the parish office staff and priests over the holiday season.

Please keep in your prayers Ronald L. Riley Husband of Constance Riley of the parish who died December 14th and Jack E. Yeager father of Kimberly Eagle of the Parish who died December 20th. Our prayers and condolences for his family and friends. Eternal rest grant to him, O Lord.

Congratulations to Susan Cunningham and Allen Mock who were joined in Holy Matrimony December 30th. May God bless them with His love, His wisdom and His guidance.

Why Advertise in your Parish Bulletin?

1. Your message gets out weekly in about 500 bulletins x 52 weeks a year.
2. All Ads are in your choice of color.
3. You support your parish and the parish in turn supports your business.
4. Your ad can be changed as needed because all the work is done in-house.
5. All proceeds go to assist needy parish students in our schools.

We encourage parishioners to patronize our sponsors for helping to make this bulletin possible through their generosity.
