PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

“We, at the Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, are a diverse community of the poor, the disadvantaged and hungry, the well-to-do, the youth, elderly, visitors and those seeking refuge.

As a community of many cultures and races, we stand for unity in our diversity by expressing our love of God the Father through prayer and worship, through service to one another, through the ministry of welcoming, through evangelization and ecumenism. With the Bishop, we shall pursue this mission faithfully through the example of Jesus Christ, the power of the Holy Spirit and the gifts and talents of our members.” All are welcome today, especially visitors, guests and those who might be new to the community.

- 1) Fasting is to be observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday by everyone 18 years and older, who has not yet celebrated their 59th birthday. On a fast day, one full meal is allowed. Two other meals, enough to maintain strength, may be taken, according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but consuming liquids, including milk and juices, is allowed.
- 2) Abstinence is observed by everyone 14 years of age or older. On days of abstinence, no meat is allowed. Note that when health or the ability to work is affected, the law does not oblige. Ash Wednesday, all the Fridays during Lent, and Good Friday are days of abstinence. If a person is unable to observe the above regulations due to ill health or other serious reasons, other suitable forms of self-denial are encouraged.

UPDATING THE PARISH CENSUS AND CONTACT INFORMATION

Parishioners, last weekend with the help of our volunteers we had 206 families review their parish census information and 3 new registrations. This is a great step toward getting our parish records up to date. However, we still need those who haven't done so to look at the information we have on file and make corrections as needed. Therefore, this weekend our volunteers will again be available in the Gathering Space after all the Masses.

WE ASK THAT EVERYONE TAKE A FEW EXTRA MOMENTS TO VISIT THE GATHERING SPACE AND LOOK OVER YOUR INFORMATION, PLEASE PAY SPECIAL ATTENTION TO EMAIL ADDRESSES.

THIS IS IMPORTANT TO THE PARISH FOR COMMUNICATION PURPOSES.

Congratulations!!

To our Rector, Very Rev. Donald X. Higgs, Assoc. V.F., he has been awarded the Papal Honor of the Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice Cross.

Congratulations also to Msgr. Dean G. Borgmeyer, V.F. for being named a Chaplain to His Holiness, to Very Rev. Paul J. Wharton, V.F. for also receiving the Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice Cross award and Matthew Bowles for receiving The Benemeriti Medal.

The Papal Honors Mass will be held
March 10th at 5:30 p.m., at the Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart
All are welcome.

Special Collection-March 11th Catholic Relief Services

This weekend during all of the Masses except the Sunday 5:00 PM, Rev. Mr. Bill Hampton, a volunteer for Catholic Relief Services, will be here to talk about the life-changing work being done overseas with the money collected through CRS.

CRS works with a vast network of partners worldwide to carry out their work. Their first partnership is with the Catholic Church and with local churches around the globe. They also work with a range of other organizations and institutions of all sizes. All of their partnerships sustain, guide, and direct their life-saving and life-enhancing work.

Deacon Bill will share how he has seen in places like Haiti and Serbia how CRS not only hands out aid directly, but, by investing in people and strengthening institutions, enables local groups to lead in their own development, increases the impact of joint programming, and produces sustainable solutions. A real work of mercy!

Attention high school students! Come experience the love of God in a new and more profound way. Any high school student interested in attending the 2018 Steubenville Youth Conference with the Confirmation class the weekend of June 15-17th should contact the parish office. A down payment of $40 will be required initially. For more information on the conference, please visit <https://steubenvilleconferences.com/youth/>. God has so much in store for you.

Third Sunday of Lent

Law of Love

Holy God, you established a covenant with your people Israel and gave them the law to direct their hearts. Keep us ever mindful of the law of love revealed in your Son, Jesus, who liberates us from sin and directs our hearts. Give us strength to follow Christ and wisdom to discern his presence. Have mercy on us, O Lord, and banish from us all that keeps us from you. Grant us ears to hear your life-giving words, which are like honey from the comb, so that, as temples of their Holy Spirit, we may proclaim your majesty to all nations. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sunday, March 4, 2018-Temples

Today's Readings: Exodus 20:1-17; Psalm 19:8, 9, 10, 11; 1 Corinthians 1:22-25; John 2:13-25. Today's Gospel is filled with much emotion and action. Imagine yourself either as a merchant or one of the bystanders who observe these events unfold. Jesus, using a whip, drives the merchants from his Father's house. After sitting with this experience, what insight do you gain? Who is Jesus?

The temple is a main theme this week. Jesus makes a bold claim that he will destroy the temple and raise it in three days. Of course, we know the ending of the story, but those in the moment must have been confused. Jesus' actions and words invite us to contemplate the mystery of the Incarnation. To encounter Jesus is an encounter with the living God. Jesus' radical proclamation in this passage was likely missed by those present. Through Jesus' death and Resurrection, a new covenant is created. No longer, as in the passage from Exodus, will our relationship to God be measured only by how the Commandments are kept. In Christ, the new temple, the sacrament of God's presence, our relationship is measured by how well our lives are patterned after Jesus.

In Baptism, we died with Christ and we rose to new life. In Baptism, we became temples of the Holy Spirit, which means our bodies are to be honored and others are to be respected as sacred vessels who announce God's love. What must you die to in your life in order to be raised up? As a prayer mantra this week, use today's Psalm refrain "If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts."

This Week at Home

- Monday, March 5-The Need for Healing

In the Gospel, Jesus tells us that a prophet is not accepted in his native place. As he tells of the healing of Naaman, by Elisha, Jesus shows the power of God's Word. Like the prophets of old, Jesus announces and shares the Good News. Jesus was driven out of town because of what he said. When have you heard Jesus but were unwilling to heed his instructions? Naaman eventually listened to Elisha and was healed. Spend fifteen minutes in silent prayer, listening to God. Today's Readings: 2 Kings 5:1-5ab; Psalm 42:2, 3; 43:3, 4; Luke 4:24-30.

- Tuesday, March 6-Boundless Mercy

We hear Peter again ask about forgiveness. Jesus reminds Peter that since God's mercy has no limits, we cannot put a number on the amount of times we should forgive another. Consider the Lord's Prayer. It reminds us, as does the parable, that we are to forgive as God forgives. At dinner, using the crosses you made that first week, discuss the importance of forgiveness. Today's Readings: Daniel 3:25, 34-43; Psalm 25:4-5ab, 6 and 7bc, 8-9; Matthew 18:21-35.

- Wednesday, March 7-Sts. Perpetua and Felicity

The two saints we remember today were beheaded at public games in Carthage because they refused to deny their Christian faith. The First Reading reminds us to keep the commandments. Look carefully at verse nine, which warns us to not forget the things we have seen. Like Perpetua and Felicity, we have seen the living God and we must not forget his love and mercy. We are called to give witness to the Paschal Mystery in all we do. Pray today for widows and all those unjustly imprisoned. Today's Readings: Deuteronomy 4:1, 5-9; Psalm 147:12-13, 15-16, 19-20; Matthew 5:17-19.

- Thursday, March 8-God's People

Jeremiah has a tough audience before him. The Lord has said that those who listen and follow him will be his people and prosper, but the Lord reveals to Jeremiah that the people have not listened. This refusal of the people to listen is heard many times during Lent. Time and time again, the Lord sent prophets to his people to call them back, and yet, they remained in the darkness of their hearts. Do the People of God listen today? To open your heart to God's voice, pray the refrain to the Psalm: If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts. Today's Readings: Jeremiah 7:23-28; Psalm 95:1-2, 6-7, 8-9; Luke 11:14-23.

• Friday, March 9-St. Frances of Rome

The reading from Hosea paints a picture of God’s profound love for his people. God yearns for us to turn back to him and share in his life and love our neighbor as ourselves. This is exactly what Frances of Rome did. She longed for the Lord, which led her to serve Rome’s poor. We are also called to witness God’s love. This caring for neighbor is a prophetic voice, like Hosea’s, that calls all people to share in the life God offers. Today consider how you can help the poor in your community during the next week. Perhaps you could make a dessert for the homeless shelter. Today’s Readings: Hosea 14:2–10; Psalm 81:6c–8a, 8bc–9, 10–11ab, 14 and 17; Mark 12:28–34.

• Saturday, March 10-Return to the Lord

Hosea’s words are clear that God will heal all that is weak and dead within us. When we turn to God in love, we grow in faith and holiness and God showers us with love so that we might live. What does it look like to love God? Let the coming spring be a reminder of God’s unfading love for us. Take time to pray with the images of the First Reading today. Today’s Readings: Hosea 6:1–6, Psalm 51:3–4, 18–19, 20–21ab; Luke 18:9–14.

USE OF CONTRIBUTION ENVELOPES

“Thank you” to parishioners who use their contribution envelopes and print clearly the amount of their contribution on the envelope. Thanks also to those who print clearly their parish ID number on loose checks, i.e. checks not in contribution envelopes. This is helpful in identifying active parishioners requesting Sacraments and helpful to parish office staff in posting your contributions so you will have an accurate amount for tax purposes at the end of the year.

Mount Olivet Mausoleum

Mount Olivet Catholic Cemetery, Charleston, WV

Due to the lack of space in our current mausoleum, we are planning the construction of an additional mausoleum adjacent to the present site. Our future mausoleum will provide the prestige and serenity of above-ground burial with the relaxing and comfortable environment for loved ones to visit year-round. This mausoleum will hold 180 casket spaces, which includes single and tandem crypts, and 90 niche spaces and will be nestled against an earthly rock backdrop.

To purchase or learn more about arrangements for above ground entombment or inurnment, please contact the parish office 304-342-8175, Monday - Friday, 8:30am - 4:30pm and ask to speak to Sheila Kerekes or John Blake or via email at Skerekes@shccwv.us or Jblake@shccwv.us.

Sacred Heart Basilica is sustained by the generosity of our parishioners through time, talent and treasure. We are sincerely grateful for kind remembrances in memorials, donations and wills. Donations are tax deductible. For all that you do, thank you!

It is a Holy and Wholesome Thought To Pray for the Dead.
