PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

“We, at the Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, are a diverse community of the poor, the disadvantaged and hungry, the well-to-do, the youth, elderly, visitors and those seeking refuge.

As a community of many cultures and races, we stand for unity in our diversity by expressing our love of God the Father through prayer and worship, through service to one another, through the ministry of welcoming, through evangelization and ecumenism. With the Bishop, we shall pursue this mission faithfully through the example of Jesus Christ, the power of the Holy Spirit and the gifts and talents of our members.” All are welcome today, especially visitors, guests and those who might be new to the community.

Please keep in your prayers Ruth Maloney who died April 1st, mother of Sr. Molly Maloney of the Parish. Our prayers and condolences for her family and friends. Eternal rest grant to her, O Lord.

Second Sunday of Easter / Divine Mercy Sunday

Heart and Mind

God, font of all life, through the Paschal Mystery of your Son, Jesus, you have restored your people to life. Our house gives you praise for your enduring mercy and unending love. Watch over and protect our community as we work to make known the message of salvation. Keep us one in heart and mind as we work to build up your Kingdom. Give us hearts overflowing with mercy as we minister to those most in need. Help us remain faithful to your call so that our words and actions may always proclaim Christ as Lord. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sunday, April 8, 2018-Easter Sunday

Today's Readings: Acts 4:32–35; Psalm 118:2–4, 13–15, 22–24; 1 John 5:1–6; John 20:19–31. Jesus' Resurrection establishes a new way of living. He is the new covenant and in his life, death, and Resurrection, he reveals our loving and merciful God. This new way of living is one of mercy and reconciliation, one of peace and hope, one where the chains of sin can no longer hold us captive. Christ has changed us and, as we proclaim in the refrain to the Responsorial Psalm, we "give thanks to the Lord" because "his love is everlasting." Our First Reading gives a sense of this new way of living. Acts tells us that the community was united in one heart and mind and that they held their possessions in common. The final lines describe the social outreach of this early community. Christ brought them together and continues to bring us together. We are united to him in one Body, which invites us to risk everything for him and the Kingdom.

Too often we hear of division in our communities. Being members of Christ's Body urges us to love and forgive. This mercy should not be insular but lead us into the world to advocate for justice. If Christ has truly united us in one heart and mind, then we must work to reconcile differences and let the light of Christ within us shine forth so others may know the transforming love of God. Consider how your faith in Christ leads you to build up the Body of Christ. This week, reach out to your neighbors and friends for conversation or a meal.

This Week at Home

Monday, April 9-The Annunciation of the Lord

"Do not be afraid." Imagine what it must have been like for Mary to learn God had chosen her to carry the Savior. By grace, she was able to say yes and remain faithful to God. In Baptism, we become temples of the Holy Spirit. Like Mary, we say yes and commit ourselves to a life that proclaims the Good News. When faced with trials or doubts, keep in mind what the angel said to Mary. There is no need to be afraid; God will be with us. Today, pray for all expectant mothers. Today's Readings: Isaiah 7:10–14; 8:10; Psalm 40:7–8a, 8b–9, 10, 11; Hebrews 10:4–10; Luke 1:26–38.

Tuesday, April 10-Of One Heart and Mind

Just as disagreements arise in faith communities today, the early Church had its difficulties. The picture that Acts paints of the Church as an ideal Christian community provides us something to ponder. Jesus' Paschal Mystery unites us into one community of God's mercy. Jesus showed this compassion during his earthly ministry. How does your parish imitate the community of believers? Consider volunteering to coordinate your parish outreach. Today's Readings: Acts 4:32–37; Psalm 93:1ab, 1cd–2, 5; John 3:7b–15.

Wednesday, April 11-Memorial of St. Stanislaus

God's love and justice filled the heart of St. Stanislaus, who fervently opposed injustice and violence in his native Poland. He worked against the injustice of the government of his day, which eventually led to his death. Since we are filled with the light of Christ, we are called to bring light to those in darkness and help free others from oppression. Our Easter alleluias have no meaning if they do not lead us to work for justice and reveal God's saving love. Today's Readings: Acts 5:17–26; Psalm 34:2–3, 4–5, 6–7, 8–9; John 3:16–21.

Thursday, April 12-Share the Gospel

The Apostles are being challenged again in today's First Reading. They remain fervent in their witness to God and refuse to stop sharing the Good News. Their faith in Christ moves them to glorify God's name and witness to all what God has given in Christ Jesus. If we live in Christ, the Spirit works through us to share the Gospel. Research a modern-day saint who refused to stop sharing the Gospel. Today's Readings: Acts 5:27–33; Psalm 34:2 and 9, 17–18, 19–20; John 3:31–36.

Friday, April 13-Tell the Story

No matter the obstacle, the Apostles remain passionate in teaching about Jesus. How would you respond if you found yourself in the First Reading and were flogged and told not to speak of Christ? Would you rejoice as these followers did? For thousands of years, God's Word has permeated place after place. As disciples who seek to dwell in the Lord's house, we must be found worthy to suffer for Christ our light. Today's Readings: Acts 5:34–42; Psalm 27:1, 4, 13–14; John 6:1–15.

Saturday, April 14-Ministry of the Word

The First Reading describes the beginning of what we know as the diaconate. Since the community was growing, the needs within the community also grew. Seven men were called upon to help in the ministry through the distribution of goods, freeing the Twelve to spread the Good News. The number seven shows the universal nature of the Church. Today, pray for deacons and consider finding out more about St. Stephen. Today's Readings: Acts 6:1–7; Psalm 33:1–2, 4–5, 18–19; John 6:16–21.

Ever wondered about the life of a priest? Want to be a part of growing more priestly vocations for our diocese? Come out to pray for an increase of vocations to the priesthood and hear from a priest about why he loves being a priest of Jesus Christ. On Sunday, April 15th, at 2PM at different locations throughout the diocese, there will be a holy hour and reflection on the priesthood. Come out and bring your families to pray for vocations and learn about what you can do to help increase vocations! Most of all, pray for more vocations!

Post Resurrection Eight Day Retreats in Daily Life Available

Beginning Sunday April 15, 2018 and continuing through Sunday June 24, 2018, the EIGHT DAY RETREAT IN DAILY LIFE will be available to interested parishioners. The Eight Day Retreat in Daily Life is designed to deepen, enrich and enhance an individual's, couple's or small group's prayer life over the course of eight weeks. During the eight weeks, the Eight Day Retreat in Daily Life will require a daily commitment of 20 minutes per day for focused prayer, and Scripture. In addition, there is a once a week meeting for one hour to process the prayer and Scripture readings to see how the prayer periods are being incorporated into a person's daily life. This one hour meeting is scheduled to meet the individual's busy schedule. What better way to spend the post Easter Journey from the Resurrection, through the Ascension to Pentecost than to undertake and complete the Eight Day Retreat in Daily Life? For additional information, to schedule the retreat or to meet for an orientation to the retreat contact, Bob Harrison at DRBOBWV@AOL.COM or Phone/Text 304-932-8246.

Catholic Charities Fundraiser at Big Sandy Superstores! HUGE SAVINGS-Fliers available in Vestibule Support the Western Region of Catholic Charities WV by shopping at Big Sandy, Saturday, April 14th. The region will receive a payout for items purchased that day. Staff and volunteers will be at the store to share information on the services provided by CCWVa to customers. CAMP BOSCO REGISTRATION IS OPEN

Camp Bosco is open to students in 3rd-12th grade. Cost is $325.00 per child (Scholarships are available) Registration is online at: www.campbosco.com or e-mail hbise@dwc.org or call 1-888-434-6237, ext. 311

Sacred Heart Grade School is surveying families interested in a half-day, morning preschool option for their 2 year olds at Sacred Heart Grade School for the 2018-2019 school year. If you are interested in this type of program for your 2 year old, please call the SHGS office at 304-346-5491.

Please join the Knights of Columbus Council 12630, Boy Scouts Troop 2 and fellow parishioners in a fundraising event to help conquer childhood cancer. On Monday, April 23rd, volunteers will participate in the 3rd Annual Celebrating 25 Years event at Tops Off Barber Shop on Hale Street by having their heads shaved in solidarity with children fighting cancer. The name of the event is to honor Ryan Coyle, son of parishioner Bill Coyle and graduate of both SHGS and CHHS, who successfully beat childhood cancer. Ryan was diagnosed 9/25/90. Ryan was one of the lucky ones. Many children do not survive. Many of those that do survive suffer lifelong maladies from their treatment. That is why this fundraiser is important. All money raised goes to the St. Baldrick's Foundation which supports childhood cancer research through grants. (Locally St. Baldrick's has awarded over $300,000 in research grants to West Virginia.)

How can you help? Donate money.....or.....be a shavee.....or sponsor someone to be a shavee. This year we already have several men (women can join us too) who have agreed to shave. To make an online donation or to sign up to be a shavee go to www.stbaldricks.org/events/mypage/12566/2018. For more information contact Bill Coyle (who will be shaving!) at 304-546-1957 or billcoyle58@gmail.com. You can also mail him your donation (make checks payable to St. Baldrick's Foundation) to Bill Coyle 1593 1/2 Lee St. E., Charleston, WV 25311

Mount Olivet Mausoleum

Mount Olivet Catholic Cemetery, Charleston, WV

Due to the lack of space in our current mausoleum, we are planning the construction of an additional mausoleum adjacent to the present site. Our future mausoleum will provide the prestige and serenity of above-ground burial with the relaxing and comfortable environment for loved ones to visit year-round. This mausoleum will hold 180 casket spaces, which includes single and tandem crypts, and 90 niche spaces and will be nestled against an earthly rock backdrop.

To purchase or learn more about arrangements for above ground entombment or inurnment, please contact the parish office 304-342-8175, Monday - Friday, 8:30am - 4:30pm and ask to speak to Sheila Kerekes or John Blake or via email at Skerekes@shccwv.us or Jblake@shccwv.us.

SACRED HEART GIFT SHOP

In Hospitality Room, open after weekend Masses. A new supply of hand-made precious stone rosaries and bracelets are available in the Gift Shop. Also, First Holy Communion gift items are being restocked and will be available soon. A volunteer to open the Gift Shop after 5:30 p.m. Saturday mass is still needed. If interested, please contact Antonetta Stevens at 304.415.8132 or Kathy Lamb at 304.344.2011.

USE OF CONTRIBUTION ENVELOPES

"Thank you" to parishioners who use their contribution envelopes and print clearly the amount of their contribution on the envelope. Thanks also to those who print clearly their parish ID number on loose checks, i.e. checks not in contribution envelopes. This is helpful in identifying active parishioners requesting Sacraments and helpful to parish office staff in posting your contributions so you will have an accurate amount for tax purposes at the end of the year.

The Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston is committed to the protection of its children and young people. To report an incidence of suspected child sexual abuse, please contact your local law enforcement agency, or you may confidentially contact the West Virginia Bureau for Children and Families/Child Protective Services by calling the Child Abuse Hotline at 800.352.6513. To report suspected cases of sexual abuse by personnel of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston to the Diocese, please contact one of the Bishop's designees at 888.434.6237 (toll free) or 304.233.0880: Sister Ellen Dunn, ext. 264; Mr. Bryan Minor, ext. 263; Msgr. Frederick Annie, ext. 267, or Msgr. Anthony Cincinnati, 270. For more information on the Diocese's Office of Safe Environment, please go to www.dwc.org, then click the "Diocese" tab, then click "Office of Safe

Why Advertise in your Parish Bulletin?

1. Your message gets out weekly in about 500 bulletins x 52 weeks a year.
2. All Ads are in your choice of color.
3. You support your parish and the parish in turn supports your business.
4. Your ad can be changed as needed because all the work is done in-house.
5. All proceeds go to assist needy parish students in our schools.

We encourage parishioners to patronize our sponsors for helping to make this bulletin possible through their generosity.
