PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

“We, at the Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, are a diverse community of the poor, the disadvantaged and hungry, the well-to-do, the youth, elderly, visitors and those seeking refuge.

As a community of many cultures and races, we stand for unity in our diversity by expressing our love of God the Father through prayer and worship, through service to one another, through the ministry of welcoming, through evangelization and ecumenism. With the Bishop, we shall pursue this mission faithfully through the example of Jesus Christ, the power of the Holy Spirit and the gifts and talents of our members.” All are welcome today, especially visitors, guests and those who might be new to the community.

Future Mausoleum Crypts and Niches: Sacred Heart will be advertising our future mausoleum with local Catholic churches beginning in May and then to the general public in late June. Please contact the parish office at 304-342-8175 if you are interested or have questions regarding crypts and niches.

Our parish is looking for a Director of Religious Education. Responsibilities include, but not limited to, sacramental preparation, coordination of all faith formation programs (school age, adult, young adult) and faith formation opportunities for families. Position will coordinate programs with Rector, as well as work with Office of Safe Environment, parish volunteers and Catechists. Candidate must be an active practicing Catholic and have a minimum of a Bachelor's degree in a related field and/or extensive experience in religious education. We anticipate this position to be a full-time position with a flexible schedule. Applications and inquiries can be directed to Eric Milam at ericmilam76@gmail.com.

A FAITH FORMATION PROGRAM FOR ADULTS

Holy Days of Education

Making our way through the Easter season we will look at the mystery of Jesus' death and resurrection. We will explore how the cross brings about our salvation and how we are opened to new life. Come, join fellow Catholics in our vicariate and learn the faith through Symbolon, the catechetical program reinvigorating the faith of Catholics everywhere. You won't want to miss this one.

Third Sunday of Easter

Glory

God of our fathers, by raising Jesus from the dead, you have glorified your Son and author of life. We offer you thanks and praise for your countenance shining upon us with this great gift of love. Like the Apostles in the Upper Room, give us your peace as we stand in amazement of your glory. With hearts transformed, urge us to go forth preaching Jesus' Holy Name and bear witness to his healing love and peace. Bind up our wounds so that, bearing the marks of the cross, we may be found strong in faith, persevering in hope, and filled with the fire of your love. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sunday, April 15, 2018-Witnesses

Today's Readings: Acts 3:13–15, 17–19; Psalm 4:2, 4, 7–8, 9; 1 John 2:1–5a; Luke 24:35–48. The last line of today's Gospel states, "You are witnesses of these things." This statement is an invitation to reflect on all that Christ has revealed to us. His passion, death, and Resurrection are at the core of our witness because in Baptism, we were immersed into the Paschal Mystery of Christ.

After the Resurrection, Jesus encounters the disciples and tries to help them understand and unpack their lived experience before his death, what his death means, and the new life promised in the Resurrection. The events that unfolded in Jerusalem over the past few days have dramatically affected their lives and the lives of all believers. We, too, are witnesses to these things. Think about all the times your encounters with Christ transformed your heart. Often we don't notice these encounters at the time, but upon reflection our hearts burn with the zeal and presence of Christ. Because we have seen and heard the Good News, we cannot be silent. Our life in Christ demands that we work for justice and facilitate peace. The love of Christ compels us to reach out to the poor and marginalized to hear their stories and work to meet their needs.

The verse that precedes the Gospel, asks Jesus to "make our hearts burn" as he speaks to us in Scripture. How might you listen to the Word this week?

This Week at Home

Monday, April 16-Stephen Faces Trial

The account about Stephen's trial is similar to the trial Jesus faced when accused of blasphemy. Some falsely witnessed against him. The Spirit was with Stephen as he debated with those who were against him. The early Christians, along with their message of Jesus, were not always welcomed. Even today, Christians and other religious groups face persecution. Let us pray for those who face trial and hardship because of their faith. Today's Readings: Acts 6:8–15; Psalm 119:23–24, 26–27, 29–30; John 6:22–29.

Tuesday, April 17-Martyr

The First Reading provides an account of Stephen, the Church's first martyr. Place yourself at the scene and try to imagine what it must have been like to hear Stephen preach. Would you have received his message or covered your ears? Stephen witnessed God's abundant love in his care for the community, even though they struggled to hear the Good News. Nourished by the Bread of Life, the Church continues to go forth sharing the Gospel. Is there a modern-day martyr you could read about? Today's Readings: Acts 7:51—8:1a; Psalm 31:3cd–4, 6 and 7 and 8a, 17 and 21ab; John 6:30–35.

Wednesday, April 18-Sing with Joy

Today's Psalm captures the spirit of the Easter season. All of creation sings with joy to God for all his marvelous deeds. With the busyness of our lives, it may be hard to remain focused on Easter. If we believe that Christ has saved us from sin and death, then how can we not rejoice and raise our voices in praise? For your prayer at mealtime today, sing your favorite hymn of praise. Today's Readings: Acts 8:1b–8; Psalm 66:1–3a, 4–5, 6–7a; John 6:35–40.

Thursday, April 19-Catechesis

The account of Philip and the eunuch is a story of conversion. The eunuch is reading from Scripture, but is unaware of the meaning the story holds. Philip, moved by the Spirit, goes to him and begins to teach him about the Christ who gave his life for the life of the world. Filled with faith, the man asks for Baptism. Each of us is called to teach the faith. Today, pray for catechists, teachers, and those in the Christian initiation process. Today's Readings: Acts 8:26–40; Psalm 66:8–9, 16–17, 20; John 6:44–51.

Friday, April 20-Conversion of Paul

The story of Paul's conversion is beautiful. One striking image is that of the scales falling from his eyes. Our Lenten journey has allowed us to contemplate the sin that blinds us to faith. During Easter, are there still "scales" that need to fall from our eyes so that we might see and believe? Might we be called to assist others on their faith journey, just as Ananias assisted Paul? Paul's encounter with Christ changed him so much that he heeded the call to go to all nations proclaiming the Gospel. In prayer, close your eyes and put yourself in Paul's place and visualize his conversion. What did you learn? Today's Readings: Acts 9:1–20; Psalm 117:1bc, 2; John 6:52–59.

Saturday, April 21-Spirit and Life

In the Gospel, Jesus notes that his words are spirit and life. This may seem abstract, but consider the Liturgy of the Word at Mass. The Word proclaimed is the living Word that resonates in our hearts and stirs us from our complacency. It is the Good News of Jesus Christ that enlivens our hearts and fills us with the Spirit so that we may not only have everlasting life but also share with others the saving Word. How can you make God's Word more a part of your life? Today's Readings: Acts 9:31–42; Psalm 116:12–13, 14–15, 16–17; John 6:60–69.

 Our St. Monica's Prayer Group has a new email address for parish prayer requests. Though the group meets 1st & 3rd Thursdays, members pray for the requests upon receiving your email. Contact Diane Kimble if you are interested in knowing more. The new address is: stmonicaprayer@gmail.com

Please join the Knights of Columbus Council 12630, Boy Scouts Troop 2 and fellow parishioners in a fundraising event to help conquer childhood cancer. On Monday, April 23rd, volunteers will participate in the 3rd Annual Celebrating 25 Years event at Tops Off Barber Shop on Hale Street by having their heads shaved in solidarity with children fighting cancer. The name of the event is to honor Ryan Coyle, son of parishioner Bill Coyle and graduate of both SHGS and CHHS, who successfully beat childhood cancer. Ryan was diagnosed 9/25/90. Ryan was one of the lucky ones. Many children do not survive. Many of those that do survive suffer lifelong maladies from their treatment. That is why this fundraiser is important. All money raised goes to the St. Baldrick's Foundation which supports childhood cancer research through grants. (Locally St. Baldrick's has awarded over $300,000 in research grants to West Virginia.)

 How can you help? Donate money.....or.....be a shavee.....or sponsor someone to be a shavee. This year we already have several men (women can join us too) who have agreed to shave. To make an online donation or to sign up to be a shavee go to www.stbaldricks.org/events/mypage/12566/2018. For more information contact Bill Coyle (who will be shaving!) at 304-546-1957 or billcoyle58@gmail.com. You can also mail him your donation (make checks payable to St. Baldrick's Foundation) to Bill Coyle 1593 1/2 Lee St. E., Charleston, WV 25311

Mount Olivet Mausoleum

Mount Olivet Catholic Cemetery, Charleston, WV

Due to the lack of space in our current mausoleum, we are planning the construction of an additional mausoleum adjacent to the present site. Our future mausoleum will provide the prestige and serenity of above-ground burial with the relaxing and comfortable environment for loved ones to visit year-round. This mausoleum will hold 180 casket spaces, which includes single and tandem crypts, and 90 niche spaces and will be nestled against an earthly rock backdrop.

To purchase or learn more about arrangements for above ground entombment or inurnment, please contact the parish office 304-342-8175, Monday - Friday, 8:30am - 4:30pm and ask to speak to Sheila Kerekes or John Blake or via email at Skerekes@shccwv.us or Jblake@shccwv.us.

Why Advertise in your Parish Bulletin?

1. Your message gets out weekly in about 500 bulletins x 52 weeks a year.
2. All Ads are in your choice of color.
3. You support your parish and the parish in turn supports your business.
4. Your ad can be changed as needed because all the work is done in-house.
5. All proceeds go to assist needy parish students in our schools.

We encourage parishioners to patronize our sponsors for helping to make this bulletin possible through their generosity.
