Celebrate the Sacred Heart!

Save the Date! Our parish will be celebrating our patronal feast day – the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart – Friday, June 8th. We will have a special Mass at 7PM with an ice cream social afterward outside on the Sacred Heart Center playground, weather permitting, or in the case of inclement weather in the Gathering Space. Everyone is invited. This is a chance for us to grow in love of our parish community and to grow in love of Jesus and his love for us symbolized in his Sacred Heart.

In order to celebrate this day with festivity, we will prepare for it by praying novena prayers after each daily Mass for the 9 days leading up to the feast, beginning on Thursday, May 31st. Please join in if you can!

If anyone would like to help with the Feast Day celebration contact Mary Collins, email: MCollins28@hotmail.com

Next weekend, June 9th/10th, will be Fr. Brian Crenwelge's last weekend and he will be presiding and preaching at all of the Masses. Following the 12:00 Noon Mass there will be a reception for Fr. Brian in the Gathering Space so parishioners can say goodbye and wish him well at his new Parish assignment. Everyone is welcome. If anyone would like to help with the reception contact Mary Collins, email MCollins28@hotmail.com

A Reminder! We are compiling a scrapbook for Fr. Brian. If you have a story, picture, etc. to share, please mark correspondence as "Fr. Brian Scrap Book" and forward to the parish office no later than Monday, June 4. You can email skerekes@shccwv.us or ahodges@shccwv.us. Our prayers for Fr. Brian as he takes on these new pastoral responsibilities Fr. Don

We are adding a new position to our parish staff: Director of Music Ministries (DMM). He/She will be responsible for all music associated with worship. Responsibilities include: selecting music for liturgies, being the organist/choir director/cantor when necessary or scheduling their replacement, preparing worship aids as well as coordinating wedding/funeral masses with principal organist and rector, and expanding our current music program. Candidates should have a BA degree or higher in a music field, or other field if musically trained, excellent organ/keyboards/choral conducting skills and vocal technique. A practicing Catholic is preferred but not required. Some other considerations are: having a knowledge of Catholic liturgy, being familiar with music notation software, and an enthusiastic spirit. Working hours are flexible and include weekends and some evenings. Please send resumes to Carla Guthrie in care of the Basilica, 1114 Virginia St. E, Charleston, WV 25301.

The Basilica would like to establish a St. Joseph's Club, we'd like a group skilled in basic carpentry to help with light projects at the Basilica. This group will set it's own schedule and pick the projects. If you are interested or would like more information contact Fr. Don at dhiggs@dwc.org.

Volunteers Needed! The Basilica could use a few volunteers to assist the parish maintenance staff with cleaning the ceramic and marble floors in the Church, Friday's from 9 to 11 AM. A little extra care has to be taken in the cleaning process but it's not physically difficult. If you are interested in helping contact the parish office 304-342-8175.

The Gospel of the Lord!

From the beginning, reading from one of the four gospels has been a high point of our Sunday assembling to give thanks and praise. For good reason, too. Christ comes to us in word as well as in deed, in the scriptures as well as in the sharing of his body and blood. And while we know that God speaks to us in all of holy scripture, at Mass we are most eager to hear the gospel, the good news of the very words and deeds of Jesus. (That is what the Old English word “gospel” means after all, “good news,” “God’s news.”) So when it is time, we jump to our feet. We acclaim the coming of the gospel with that most ancient and holy of words: Alleluia! (Unless it is Lent, our season of sorrow when we fast from our glorious word just like Israel in exile hung up its harps.) Fast to our feet, singing loud praise, we watch as the deacon (or the priest) takes up the Book of the Gospels. Accompanied by servers with candles, perhaps with fragrant clouds of incense from another server’s bowl, the Book of the Gospels makes its way through our assembly from altar to ambo. It sat on the altar from the start of Mass as a sign that Christ is present in the gospel. Now it is taken “up to the heights” to be proclaimed from the ambo, just as Jesus preached the sermon on the mount, or the apostles, drunk with the Holy Spirit, shouted joy from Jerusalem’s Pentecost rooftops. As the deacon announces that this is from Matthew or Mark, from Luke or John, we trace the sign of the cross on our foreheads (may we understand this good news!), on our lips (may we always speak and spread this good news!), and over our hearts (may we love and always live this good news!) Then we listen. We stand together and listen. We stand and listen like a servant being given orders, like an honored guest being whose deeds are recounted, like a convicted criminal before the judge’s bench, like the beloved being met in haste by the lover. And when it is spoken, when the last word for this day has sunk deep within, the deacon looks to us and says, “The gospel of the Lord!” to which we cry, “Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ!” What else could we possibly say?

Future Mausoleum Crypts and Niches:

Sacred Heart will be advertising our future mausoleum with local Catholic churches then to the general public in late June. Please contact the parish office at 304-342-8175 if you are interested or have questions regarding crypts and niches.

Mount Olivet Mausoleum

Mount Olivet Catholic Cemetery, Charleston, WV

Due to the lack of space in our current mausoleum, we are planning the construction of an additional mausoleum adjacent to the present site. Our future mausoleum will provide the prestige and serenity of above-ground burial with the relaxing and comfortable environment for loved ones to visit year-round. This mausoleum will hold 180 casket spaces, which includes single and tandem crypts, and 90 niche spaces and will be nestled against an earthy rock backdrop.

To purchase or learn more about arrangements for above ground entombment or inurnment, please contact the parish office 304-342-8175, Monday - Friday, 8:30am - 4:30pm and ask to speak to Sheila Kerekes or John Blake or via email at Skerekes@shccwv.us or Jblake@shccwv.us.
