PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

“We, at the Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, are a diverse community of the poor, the disadvantaged and hungry, the well-to-do, the youth, elderly, visitors and those seeking refuge.

As a community of many cultures and races, we stand for unity in our diversity by expressing our love of God the Father through prayer and worship, through service to one another, through the ministry of welcoming, through evangelization and ecumenism. With the Bishop, we shall pursue this mission faithfully through the example of Jesus Christ, the power of the Holy Spirit and the gifts and talents of our members.” All are welcome today, especially visitors, guests and those who might be new to the community.

Mass of Dedication

THANK YOU!

To everyone that helped prepare our beautiful Basilica for the Mass of Dedication and those who provided a delicious reception.

Fourth Sunday of Advent

Find Us Ready

Good and gracious God, who sent the angel Gabriel to announce the gift of your Son, your love for us has no limits and endures forever. As we prepare for the coming of Christ, eliminate within us all sin and fear, giving us pure hearts to receive him. May the Holy Spirit fill us with your grace, just as Mary was so filled, and find us ready to stand in your presence to serve you. Keep us faithful to the covenant you made with our ancestors. May your joy saturate our beings as we go forth proclaiming your salvation, so that, on that final day, we will forever sing your goodness. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sunday, December 24, 2017-Mystery Revealed

Today's Readings: 2 Samuel 7:1-5, 8b-12, 14a, 16; Psalm 89:2-3, 4-5, 27, 29; Romans 16:25-27; Luke 1:26-38. The readings proclaimed at the liturgy today invite us to ponder the mystery revealed in the birth of Christ. David wishes to build a proper house for the ark of God. The prophet Nathan reveals that God has a much bigger plan: to establish a house for him. God will build up the nation to prosper until the end of time. Because of the Incarnation, we are heirs to this promise and are members of God's household. As the psalm states, God has made a covenant with his people and we continue the song of praise and thanksgiving.

This promise cannot be fulfilled without Mary's yes. Since the time of the fall, all creation has waited for Mary. God chose her to bear his Son, the Messiah who establishes the Reign of God. Have you ever been in a situation where you had to give up everything (die to self) for another, especially for God's will? Here is a young woman whose whole life changes when she humbly says, "Here am I, the servant of the Lord; let it be with me according to your word."

Tomorrow, the Christian world celebrates the birth of Jesus. The season of Christmas, challenges us to grow deeper in faith. Jesus reveals the Father's love and mercy. At every liturgy, the Church celebrates this mystery and receives the presence of God's own Son. We are to become what we receive—the Body of Christ. Take time today to reflect on your yes and see in what ways God has revealed himself to you.

This Week at Home

Monday, December 25-Solemnity of the Nativity of the Lord

Today's psalm captures the importance of this solemnity in the life of the world. The psalmist sings a song of praise for the mighty deeds God has done. As Christians, we celebrate God's gift of the Incarnation, which has made salvation known; all creation blesses God's holy name. During dinner tonight, read and reflect on the story of Christ's birth. Today's Readings: Isaiah 52:7-10; Psalm 98:1, 2-3, 3-4, 5-6; Hebrews 1:1-6; John 1:1-18.

Tuesday, December 26-Feast of St. Stephen

Have you ever thought about what it would be like to be a martyr? In his martyrdom, Stephen teaches us to remain fervent and faithful in our commitment to Christ. Although it is not always easy to keep our baptismal promises, we must trust, as Jesus says, that the Spirit will speak through us. Practicing a regular prayer life will help us remain faithful. Take time today to pray for those who continue to be persecuted for their faith; research one modern martyr. Today's Readings: Acts of the Apostles 6:8-10; 7:54-59; Psalm 31:3cd-4, 6 and 8ab, 16bc and 17; Matthew 10:17-22.

Wednesday, December 27-St. John

The word witness is a good summary for the readings today. Because of the encounter that the disciples and Mary Magdalene had with Christ, they were compelled to share the Word of life. John is willing to give his life for Christ. In Baptism, each of us is intimately woven into the life of God and therefore, we, like the early disciples, must witness to our encounter with the Risen Christ. Everything we are and do must proclaim Christ, who is life. Like John, take time today to write your "gospel," the story of your encounter with Christ. Today's Readings: 1 John 1:1-4; Psalm 97:1-2, 5-6, 11-12; John 20:1a and 2-8.

Thursday, December 28-Feast of the Holy Innocents

Today the Church commemorates the life of those children who were executed by Herod. During this short Christmas cycle, martyrdom is highlighted, as the feasts of Sts. Stephen and John are also celebrated. In the Middle Ages, these early martyrs were known as companions of Christ. Their stories invite us to reflect on the effect of the Incarnation. Christ is the one who frees us from all bondage and saves us from death. Martyrdom is a profession of deep faith in Christ. Let your prayer today be for all who have been executed for the sake of Christ. Today's Readings: 1 John 1:5-2:2; Psalm 124:2-3, 4-5, 7cd and 8; Matthew 2:13-18.

Friday, December 29-Light

The birth of Christ revealed God's greatest gift to the universe. He truly is the Light of the World, the one who brings us out of darkness. John tells us that those who love and remain in love will have the light. Simeon, in the Gospel, tells us that Jesus is the light that will reveal God's love and mercy to the world. At Baptism, each of us received a lighted candle to remind us that Christ's light is in us, and that we are called to share that light in acts of love. Light your baptismal candle today. Today's Readings: 1 John 2:3-11; Psalm 96:1-2a, 2b-3, 5b-6; Luke 2:22-35.

Saturday, December 30-God's Will

"Do not love the world or the things in the world" is a key message in today's First Reading. John reminds us that we know God and God is within us. Yet we are often enticed by the ideals of this world, and we can easily be misdirected. We must listen to the voice of love within us. God calls us to share the Good News and live according to his will. Listening in prayer helps us remain confident in our vocation. Make a list of those times you have ignored God and then offer them in prayer. Today's Readings: 1 John 2:12-17; Psalm 96:7-8a, 8b-9, 10; Luke 2:36-40.

Awaken Your Love

Loving God, you sent your Word to dwell among us and reveal to us your glory. By sending us the Light, your only Son, you have blessed your people who once lived in darkness. On this great feast of the Incarnation, we lift our voices and give you praise for your awesome deeds. Like your servant John the Baptist, grant us confidence to testify to the gift of your Son, who is our salvation. Send us forth proclaiming the gifts of your mercy and love, which you revealed in your Incarnate Word, so that, all who hear the Good News may come to know Christ. May we, who received the Light at Baptism, persevere in faith, hope, and love as we forever sing of your saving power. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Goodnight Concert!

7:00pm on Sunday, December 31

This concert is a brass quintet and organ collaboration. The sounds of brass mingling with our beautiful Schantz organ is not to be missed.

The best part will be listening to our own musicians Jeremy Severn (choir director) on trumpet and Greg Gray (principal organist) playing our wonderful pipe organ.

This is a part of the annual GoodNight concert series. For more information about GoodNight, visit festivallcharleston.com

To everyone who helped decorate our Church for this joyous Christmas Season. We couldn't do it without your generous gift of time and talent.

Christmas 2nd Collection-Catholic Charities WV

If one suffers in poverty, we all suffer.

Throughout the mountain state, Catholic Charities West Virginia (CCWVa) provides vital assistance to the forgotten elderly, the hungry children and people struggling paycheck to paycheck. Annual contributions to the second collection on Christmas directly impact the amount of assistance and quality of service CCWVa provides in our service region of which your parish is a part.

Pre-School, Grade School, Middle School, and High School Members of the Parish.

Please join us for Christmas Carols before the 7:00 pm Mass on Christmas Eve. Meet in the Church by 6:45 pm. Songsheets will be available. Would you like to serve as a lector or usher at this Mass? Contact Fr. Brian bcenwelge@dwc.org or Kathy Rushworth kathy.darr.rushworth@gmail.com

You Can Make a Difference Today

We know that Sacred Heart Parish means a lot to you and that is why you support us so generously. If you are considering a gift to the parish at the end of this year, here are two popular options that may appeal to you. These suggestions come from the West Virginia Catholic Foundation.

Give cash. In exchange for a gift of cash, you receive an income tax charitable deduction for the full value of the gift up to 50 percent of your adjusted gross income (AGI).

Donate stocks, mutual funds or real estate. Even if these types of assets have lost value, for tax purposes they are still appreciated if their current value is more than what you originally paid for them. If you've owned them for more than one year, you may deduct the full fair market value of the property up to 30 percent of your AGI. You also eliminate paying capital gains tax on the appreciation, thus reducing the out-of-pocket cost of your gift.

How to Get Your Deduction

Did you give cash? You must have a receipt from us prior to filing your return that states the date of the gift, the amount, and whether you received any goods or services in exchange for your donation. You don't need to send this to the IRS, but you do need to have it on hand when you send in your income tax return. If you write a check for less than $250, a copy of the check will suffice as a record of the gift. You should always obtain a receipt for a gift by check of $250 or more.

Did you give property? A gift of property requires a receipt, and if it is worth $250 or more, additional items are required on the receipt. For gifts of property valued at more than $500, you'll also need to include IRS Form 8283 with your tax return. And if you want to deduct more than $5,000, you'll need to obtain a qualified appraisal unless you have donated marketable securities.

If you have any questions about supporting the parish in these ways, consult with the West Virginia Catholic Foundation's Executive Director, Bryan Minor, at 304-233-0880 x263 or bminor@dwc.org. We look forward to helping you.

Why Advertise in your Parish Bulletin?

1. Your message gets out weekly in about 500 bulletins x 52 weeks a year.
2. All Ads are in your choice of color.
3. You support your parish and the parish in turn supports your business.
4. Your ad can be changed as needed because all the work is done in-house.
5. All proceeds go to assist needy parish students in our schools.

We encourage parishioners to patronize our sponsors for helping to make this bulletin possible through their generosity.
