“We, at the Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, are a diverse community of the poor, the disadvantaged and hungry, the well-to-do, the youth, elderly, visitors and those seeking refuge.

As a community of many cultures and races, we stand for unity in our diversity by expressing our love of God the Father through prayer and worship, through service to one another, through the ministry of welcoming, through evangelization and ecumenism. With the Bishop, we shall pursue this mission faithfully through the example of Jesus Christ, the power of the Holy Spirit and the gifts and talents of our members.” All are welcome today, especially visitors, guests and those who might be new to the community.

A note from the Rector...

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Greetings on this Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time.

This weekend, we say farewell to Fr. Dominic Asthisu, who will be leaving us after the Noon Mass. As announced last week, Bishop Mark has asked Fr. Dominic to become administrator of the Churches in Preston County. It is because of a sudden pastoral need, that Fr. Dominic is leaving us so soon. We are very grateful for his pastoral care and priestly service to us since last March. Please keep him in your prayers as he takes on this new assignment.

It may be a while before a new associate is appointed so we are adjusting the weekday Mass schedule as is noted in this bulletin.

As announced last week, we are taking this opportunity to adjust the Sunday Mass schedule. Studying our attendance numbers for the past five years, four of our five Masses average less than a third of our capacity. After seeking the advice of our parish pastoral council members and your preference (your vote through Flocknote), I announce that beginning on March 5th, we will combine the 10am Mass and the 12pm Mass into one at 10:30am. I am aware it will call for a little sacrifice and adjustment for some. I ask for your understanding and patience. If you have any questions, please contact me. I remain,

In Christ,
Fr. Don

From our music director...

A Joyful Psalm #76: Psalm 112

Do you love food? I love food. We just so happen to be concluding "Restaurant Week" here in Charleston, WV, and it is quite fitting for the readings this weekend. I have decided that God loves food. Consider the following: the first sin is committed by the consumption of food; the Israelites are instructed to eat the Passover lamb; God feeds them in the desert with manna from heaven; Jesus is born in the City of Bethlehem, which means "City of Bread"; He is born in a feeding trough where animals eat; He gives himself to us to be eaten in the Holy Eucharist.

The matter used for the Holy Eucharist is especially unique. All the other Sacraments use the naturally occurring materials of oil and water. The Eucharist uses bread and wine, which we physically make ourselves. During the presentation of gifts at Mass, we present our broken, unfermented selves, and the Lord changes this matter into Himself!

In the Gospel Reading, Jesus says, "You are the salt of the earth. But if salt loses its taste, with what can it be seasoned? It is no longer good for anything." (Mt.5: 13) As the Body of Christ, we are meant to "stick out" of the crowd just as well-seasoned food "stick out" of the menu. We are to be the "light of the world that must shine before others." (Mt. 5:16)

Do you love food? God loves you, and he wants to season you to go forth and be a light to others: to be a "light in darkness for the upright." (Ps. 112)

Mark Haas, Director of Music

The confirmation class would like to thank all who donated clothes, household and personal goods and money for the victims of the Regal Apartment fire. We collected so much and over $3700.00 in funds for them. We appreciate your generosity. The collection fit in well with our lesson that day on relationships and love, we were spreading love to the community. Thanks to all parents and volunteers who helped us. God Bless You.

Sacred Heart Grade School News...

SHGS has had a fabulous week of Catholic Schools Week. We celebrated the 100th Day of School on Monday and dressed like 100 year old people. Charleston police officers, firefighters, and some Kanawha Co. sheriff's ate lunch with us on Wednesday. Our fourth grade class did a Living Rosary on Thursday afternoon for grades 1-5 and fourth grade parents. On Friday, we celebrated our students by having pizza and ice cream for lunch and playing board games with our friends. Our Pennies for People coin drive raised over $1500 for local charities. The donations on Wednesday for Day of Giving totaled well over $15,000. What a loving community we have!

A fourth grader finished third in the Kanawha County Spelling Bee. She placed behind 2 middle school students! Wow- are we proud! This week, two of our students will participate in the Kanawha County Math Field Day. We have great kids AND great teachers. Thank you for your prayers and support! Anne Davis, Principal

Concerns for Immigrants Among Us

As a priest I have spent over thirty-five years serving and getting to know immigrants to our country. They are good people. While, we may not have large numbers of immigrants in West Virginia, those who are here deserve respect and fair treatment. I am concerned that proposals in the West Virginia legislature may harm immigrants and produce effects counter to the intention of those proposals.

The US constitution gives the conduct of foreign affairs and associated matters such as immigration to the federal government. Reforming our struggling immigration system, restoring order at the southern border, overcoming the obstacles facing those seeking asylum or refuge from oppression or starvation, being fair to immigrants brought here as children, and keeping families together when parents lack legal status, but their children born here are citizens – these challenges are for the federal government to solve, not the individual states. As Americans we can both welcome the foreigner out of charity and respect for his or her humanity and live in a country that takes reasonable steps to secure its borders and enforce its laws for the common good.

Here at home, West Virginians should focus on building compassionate and caring communities that foster the basic conditions necessary to permit human flourishing. I am concerned that reforming our code to impose draconian penalties on local governments and agencies when they fail to prioritize national immigration law over more local concerns may lead to labor exploitation where immigrant communities do not feel able to report unfair pay practices or unsafe working conditions to civil authorities; to human trafficking where people feel trapped and unable to go to the police for help; to unjust discrimination where the penalties for missing someone with a detainer order are so extreme that oppressive measures seem preferable; and to the ability of law enforcement to deal with crime, because immigrants who are witnesses to crimes or themselves victims, may fear cooperation with the police because of the threat of deportation or the deportation of loved ones.

I was ordained a priest in our nation's bicentennial year, 1976. That year, the Smithsonian Institution, our national museum, had an exhibit entitled "A Nation of Nations." The exhibit recognized that, since the beginning, the immigrant experience has always been a major part of the American experience. We are all the descendants of immigrants or are immigrants ourselves. We must work together to reform our immigration laws at the national level, to end human trafficking and drug smuggling, to provide adequate security at our borders and to address the basic needs of food, shelter and safety of those who arrive on our doorstep. Trying locally to root out a few strangers in West Virginia is not a productive, proportionate or humane response to these immigration concerns.

When King Herod threatened the life of Jesus Christ, Mary and Joseph became refugees in Egypt. Today we can remember our refugee Lord in our humane and fair treatment of those strangers among us.

Sincerely in Christ,

+Mark E. Brennan
