The Pope's Monthly Intention

JANUARY-For true human fraternity

We pray for all those suffering from religious discrimination and persecution; may their own rights and dignity be recognized, which originate from being brothers and sisters in the human family.

A note from the Rector...

Dear Sisters and Brothers,
Greetings in the Lord!

Happy Word of God Sunday! Pope Francis has established that the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time will be devoted to the celebration, study, and dissemination of the Word of God. Pope Francis stated “that we need God’s Word so that we can hear, amid the thousands of other words in our daily lives, that one word that speaks to us not about things, but about life” I very much agree that amid all the words that we will hear and say can bring peace and joy but also may bring confusion and despair. As the Church of the Word, I invite you to spend time studying and praying with the Word of God. May the Word of God nourish and strengthen us and deepen our understanding and love. Make use of this prayer as you prepare to read the Word of God.

Loving God, anoint me with your Holy Spirit,
so that as I read your Eternal Word, your Word may penetrate my whole being and transform me.
Grant me the blessing to be a faithful disciple in believing the Word of God and that I may be a light shining upon all who are in darkness.

Amen.

May you have safe and blessed week. I remain,
Yours in Christ,
Fr. Don

Pope Francis wants to hear from you! The Church of God is convoked in Synod. With this convocation, Pope Francis invites the whole Church to send feedback. Please join us for one of the following listening sessions. A parish online survey will also be available.

- ◆ Friday, February 4, 12:40-2:00pm (Gathering space)
- ◆ Sunday, February 13, 1:00-1:50pm (Parish Hall)
- ◆ Saturday, February 19, 6:30-8:00pm (Parish Hall)
- ◆ Wednesday, February 23, 6:30-8:00pm (Parish Hall)

From our Music Director...

A Joyful Psalm #36: Psalm 19

Scandal! The word “scandal” literally means, “stumbling block.” It is not difficult to find instances of scandal within the church. We are broken creatures, and scandal occurs in every human institution: school systems, boy scouts, karate classes, etc. As for the Catholic Church, Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI recently offered some poignant thoughts on the topic:

“What must be done? Perhaps we should create another Church for things to work out? Well, that experiment has already been undertaken and has already failed. Only obedience and love for our Lord Jesus Christ can point the way.”

Obedience will point the way. Psalm 19 reminds us that the obedience of God’s law is the only way to stay on the right path and avoid the stumbling blocks of life. “The law of the LORD is perfect, refreshing the soul; The decree of the LORD is trustworthy, giving wisdom to the simple.” (Psalm 19:8)

Scandal will always be present within the Church, and woe to the man through whom scandal comes (Matthew 18:7). Scandal is especially devastating when leading people away from the faith. Our Lord said it would be better to be drowned in the sea than to be the cause of this (see Matthew 18:6).

May we forever follow the law of the Lord, whose words are spirit and life!

Mark Haas, Director of Music

We would like to urge all male parishioners to consider joining the Knights. If you have not thought about joining before, please give it some thought. If you have thought about joining before and just not made the final decision, now is an excellent time

In 1882 Father McGivney had good reasons for forming the Knights of Columbus. In his experience as a parish priest, he observed that if a family lost their main breadwinner they could be put in great peril, even leading to the breakup of the family. He wanted a group that could help both families and the church. The principles of Charity, Unity and Fraternity were and are the watchwords of the Knights and are featured in the First, Second and Third degrees of Knighthood. Patriotism is also a pillar of the Knights of Columbus as shown by our Fourth Degree. To put our goals more plainly, we try as best we can, to help the Catholic Church in general and our local parish in particular in any way we can.

You may talk to a member of the Knights to join, [the ushers at the masses know who we are] or you can join on line free for the first year of membership. Search kofc.org/joinus, then enter the promo code MCGIVNEY2020. After the first year we do collect dues as a way of supporting national Knights of Columbus and supporting various Charitable works. This past year we have helped with the Clay County Food Drive, Coats of Kids, St. Baldricks Childhood cancer research fund drive, helped sponsor a Cross Catholic Food Packing Event which packed over 100,000 meals for needy families and more. If you would like to be a part of these and similar activities please become a member.

UNITED STATES CONFERENCE OF CATHOLIC BISHOPS

Sunday of the Word of God Hearing the Word of God

"When the Sacred Scriptures are read in the Church, God himself speaks to his people, and Christ, present in his word, proclaims the Gospel" (GIRM, no. 29).

These words from the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM) set before us a profound truth that we need to ponder and make our own. The words of Sacred Scripture are unlike any other texts we will ever hear, for they not only give us information, they are the vehicle God uses to reveal himself to us, the means by which we come to know the depth of God's love for us, and the responsibilities entailed by being Christ's followers, members of his Body. What is more, this Word of God proclaimed in the liturgy possesses a special sacramental power to bring about in us what it proclaims. The Word of God proclaimed at Mass is 'efficacious' that is, it not only tells us of God and God's will for us, it also helps us to put that will of God into practice in our own lives. How, then, do we respond to this wonderful gift of God's Word? We respond in word and song, in posture and gesture, in silent meditation and, most important of all, by listening attentively to that Word as it is proclaimed. Following each reading we express our gratitude for this gift with the words "Thanks be to God" or, in the case of the Gospel, "Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ," and it is appropriate that a brief period of silence be observed to allow for personal reflection. Following the first reading we sing the Responsorial Psalm, a meditation on God's word through the inspired words of one of the psalms from the psalter, the Bible's prayer book.

The Gospel is the highpoint of the Liturgy of the Word. The readings from the Old Testament tell us of God's promises and his preparation of his people for the coming of his Son; the epistles and other pre-Gospel New Testament readings offer the reflections of St. Paul and other contemporaries of the Lord on the life and message of Christ; in the Acts of the Apostles we have a history of the early Church. We believe that all Scripture, the Old and New Testaments, is inspired by the Holy Spirit, but the Church has always given special honor to the Gospel because in the Gospel we have not simply the preparation for and prefiguring of Christ, nor reflections on his message, but the words and deeds of Christ himself. The proclamation of the Gospel is surrounded with marks of respect and honor: the Gospel is read by an ordained minister, the deacon, or, when no deacon is present, by a priest; the Book of the Gospels is carried aloft with honor in the entrance procession and placed on the altar until the Gospel reading to show the unity of Scripture and Eucharist, of the table of the Word and the table of the Christ's body and blood; just before the Gospel is read the Gospel book is carried in procession to the ambo to the accompaniment of an acclamation sung by the people; it may be incensed before the reading and is kissed at its conclusion; finally, all stand as the Gospel is proclaimed. Through this posture and through the honor paid to the book containing the Gospel, the Church pays homage to Christ who is present in his Word and who proclaims his Gospel.

What, then, must we do to properly receive the Word of God proclaimed at Mass? The General Instruction tells us that "the readings from the Word of God are to be listened to reverently by everyone" (no. 29), and it provides that those who read the Scriptures at Mass must be "truly suited to carrying out this function and carefully prepared, so that by their hearing the readings from the sacred texts the faithful may conceive in their hearts a sweet and living affection for Sacred Scripture" (no. 101).

The key word in all of this is listening. We are called to listen attentively as the reader, deacon or priest proclaims God's Word. Unless one is unable to hear, one should not be reading along with a text from a missal or missalette. Rather, taking our cue from the General Instruction itself, we should listen as we would if Christ himself were standing at the ambo, for in fact it is God who speaks when the Scriptures are proclaimed. Carefully following along with the printed word can cause us to miss the gentle voice of the Holy Spirit, the message that the Spirit may have for us in one of the passages because we are anxious to "keep up," to move along with the reader.

Perhaps the best way to understand the readings at Mass and our response to them is offered by Saint John Paul II in his Instruction Dies Domini. He encourages "those who take part in the Eucharist—priest, ministers and faithful... to prepare the Sunday liturgy, reflecting beforehand upon the word of God which will be proclaimed" and adds that if we do not, "it is difficult for the liturgical proclamation of the word of God alone to produce the fruit we might expect" (no. 40). In this way we will till the soil, preparing our souls to receive the seeds to be planted by the Word of God so that seed may bear fruit.

The Word of God, then calls for our listening and our response in silent reflection, as well as in word and song. Most important of all, the Word of God, which is living and active, calls each of us individually and all of us together for a response that moves beyond the liturgy itself and affects our daily lives, leading us to engage fully in the task of making Christ known to the world by all that we do and say.
