PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

“We, at the Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, are a diverse community of the poor, the disadvantaged and hungry, the well-to-do, the youth, elderly, visitors and those seeking refuge.

As a community of many cultures and races, we stand for unity in our diversity by expressing our love of God the Father through prayer and worship, through service to one another, through the ministry of welcoming, through evangelization and ecumenism. With the Bishop, we shall pursue this mission faithfully through the example of Jesus Christ, the power of the Holy Spirit and the gifts and talents of our members.” All are welcome today, especially visitors, guests and those who might be new to the community.

Sacred Heart Grade School
 Learn more. Serve Many. Love all.

The past two weeks at Sacred Heart Grade School have been those of mindful preparation. Last week, SHGS welcomed an internal accreditation team from the Diocese. The team visited our classrooms and met with teachers and parents. They were thrilled with the sense of family they witnessed at SHGS and were also very pleased with our strong standardized tests scores as well as our devotion to faith and service. With this important day behind us, we celebrated with a visit from award winning West Virginia author, Anna Egan Smucker and of course, with Mardi Gras! We now turn our minds and hearts to Lent. Throughout Lent, SHGS students will pray, fast and give alms. We continue to support the Gabriel Project, and each student will also be collecting change in their individual Missionary Childhood Association banks to support children in missionary diocese. May the love of the Lord be with you this Lent and always.

Prayer for the Diocese

Lord God, You are our eternal shepherd and guide. In your mercy grant to your Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston a shepherd who will walk in your ways and whose watchful care will bring us your blessing. We ask this in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Archbishop Lori's prayer for a new Bishop.

Heavenly Father,
 we thank you for the blessings you have bestowed upon the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston.

In the power of your Holy Spirit you have imparted an abundance of spiritual blessings and gifts so that the Name of Jesus and his Gospel would be proclaimed in every mountain and valley and in every city and village of the great State of West Virginia.

Through the Sacraments, the abiding presence of your Son lives on in our midst healing and transforming our souls, creating in our midst missionary disciples, strengthening our families, raising up vocations, making us advocates and servants of the poor and vulnerable.

Forgive us for our sins and failings and for anything we have done or failed to do to advance the mission of evangelization entrusted to us by the Good Shepherd.

Now, as we await the appointment and arrival of a new bishop, we turn to you in heartfelt prayer.

In your goodness, send us a shepherd who will love and care for this local Church and tend the flock of God after the heart and mind of your Son Jesus.

May he be an ardent yet gentle herald of the Gospel, a priest and bishop filled with missionary zeal and pastoral love, whose heart is centered upon the Eucharist and love for the poor.

May he guide and serve the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston with love, humility and justice and lead many souls to holiness and eternal life.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

First Sunday of Lent

Lenten Journey

Lord God, you invite us to enter into these desert days of Lent. Your Son was filled with the Holy Spirit and then led into the wilderness, where he experienced the emptiness of hunger, and faced temptations from the devil. When we stumble and find this journey difficult, because we are overwhelmed by our needs and desires, or seek to find a quick escape from troubles, help us to turn to you in our time of want. We ask that you draw us closer to you, so that we may find nourishment in your Word, during these forty days of Lent. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Sunday, March 10, 2019-Journey with the Word

Today's Readings: Deuteronomy 26:4–10; Psalm 91:1–2, 10–11, 12, 13, 14, 15; Romans 10:8–13; Luke 4:1–13. As a people and as individuals, we turn to God in times of want and in times of plenty, as we live out our covenant relationship. Moses instructs the people to bring their baskets filled with products of the soil to offer at the altar of the Lord, and then to declare before God all he has done for them, from their days of wandering in Egypt to being led to a land flowing with milk and honey. These are the events that have shaped them as a people. As they confessed their faith, they acknowledged all that God had given to them. Following this proclamation, they bow down in the presence of the Lord.

Jesus is led into the desert to take the journey of his people. A journey of testing and purification. Testing whether Jesus will use his divine power, the devil says, "If you are the Son of God . . ." Jesus responds with words from Scripture, words that give him power and strength. After the temptations are faced, the angels come to wait upon Jesus. Entering into these forty days, be open to discovering the blessings of God's Word, allowing its wisdom to provide you with strength and protection. What passages from the Bible provide peace to you? Which ones give you consolation in times of sadness or joy in the awe and wonder of God?

This Week at Home

- Monday, March 11-The Least among Us

Who would you consider to be the least among us? Those with no voice or power? The poor, the weak and marginalized? The aged or the young and innocent? The Gospel invites us to see the face of Christ in the people who have little status. Who in your family or neighborhood is in need of a smile, a hug, a conversation, or a warm meal? Who would enjoy hearing from you? Make time for them this week. Today's Readings: Leviticus 19:1–2, 11–18; Psalm 19:8, 9, 10, 15; Matthew 25:31–46.

- Tuesday, March 12-Your Will Be Done

When the disciples asked Jesus to teach them to pray, he taught them the prayer that we know as the Our Father or Lord's Prayer. Sometimes we say this prayer giving little thought to its words. We pray, "your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as it is in heaven." In heaven, God's will is obeyed perfectly. What would our world be like if his will were obeyed on earth? Today's Readings: Isaiah 55:10–11; Psalm 34:4–5, 6–7, 16–17, 18–19; Matthew 6:7–15.

- Wednesday, March 13-Repent

When Jonah, brought the message to repent to the people of Nineveh, they listened and turned away from sin. Jesus has revealed God and his Kingdom to us. What is your response? Have you allowed his Word to transform you? The Catechism of the Catholic Church states that an examination of conscience is a "prayerful self-reflection on our words and deeds in the light of the Gospel to determine how we may have sinned against God." As a preparation for the Sacrament of Reconciliation, make an examination of conscience, considering where you have not listened to the voice of God. Today's Readings: Jonah 3:1–10; Psalm 51:3–4, 12–13, 18–19; Luke 11:29–32.

- Thursday, March 14-Seek and Find

How do you pray and speak with God? Jesus offers these instructions: to ask, to seek, and to find. Is it difficult for you to ask for something from God? Is there something that you are struggling with in your life? Write in your Lenten journal what you are most in need of at this moment. Think about where you turn to seek answers when you face problems or difficult situations. Is God a part of the solution? Ask the Lord to give you peace and to find his will for you this day. Today's Readings: Esther C:12, 14–16, 23–25; Psalm 138:1–2, 2–3, 7–8; Matthew 7:7–12.

- Friday, March 15-Difficult and Messy

We do not need to look too far to know that relationships are difficult and life can be messy. Within every family, group, or community, there are instances of tension. How do we bring acceptance and understanding to those situations? We are called to make peace and to reconcile with one another. Let us ask God to help us bring his mercy and compassion, his peace and his love to every conversation and every corner of our world this week. Today's Readings: Ezekiel 18:21–28; Psalm 130:1–2, 3–4, 4–6, 7–8; Matthew 5:20–25.

- Saturday, March 16-Difficult Love

Love your enemies. It is easy for us to love those who love us, but loving those who have harmed us is difficult. Loving our enemies is countercultural, so we look different than the rest of the world when we love this way. Who will help us love like this? God will give us everything we need to follow him. Spend time in prayer today asking God to forgive those who have caused hurt, pain, and injury in your life. Today's Readings: Deuteronomy 26:16–19; Psalm 119:1–2, 4–5, 7–8; Matthew 5:43–48.

Mount Olivet Mausoleum

Mount Olivet Catholic Cemetery, Charleston, WV

Due to the lack of space in our current mausoleum, we are planning the construction of an additional mausoleum adjacent to the present site. Our future mausoleum will provide the prestige and serenity of above-ground burial with the relaxing and comfortable environment for loved ones to visit year-round. This mausoleum will hold 180 casket spaces, which includes single and tandem crypts, and 90 niche spaces and will be nestled against an earthy rock backdrop.

To purchase or learn more about arrangements for above ground entombment or inurnment, please contact the parish office 304-342-8175, Monday - Friday, 8:30am - 4:30pm and ask to speak to Sheila Kerekes or John Blake or via email at Skerekes@shccwv.us or Jblake@shccwv.us.
