PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

“We, at the Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, are a diverse community of the poor, the disadvantaged and hungry, the well-to-do, the youth, elderly, visitors and those seeking refuge.

As a community of many cultures and races, we stand for unity in our diversity by expressing our love of God the Father through prayer and worship, through service to one another, through the ministry of welcoming, through evangelization and ecumenism. With the Bishop, we shall pursue this mission faithfully through the example of Jesus Christ, the power of the Holy Spirit and the gifts and talents of our members.” All are welcome today, especially visitors, guests and those who might be new to the community.

A note from the Rector...

Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Lord,

Greetings on this Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord! As we recall today, Jesus' entry into His own City of Jerusalem, we prepare to enter into this most sacred Holy Week. Please join us for these Holy Days.

Please keep in your prayers our Elect, Kimberly Bradley, William Burke, and Adrian Langford and our Candidates, Brian Arnold, Holly Hitt, and Kyle Mork as they prepare to enter the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil.

Please make us of this prayer during this Holy Week.

Let us pray for peace in the Ukraine and the people of the Ukraine and Russia. May Mary, Our Lady of Kiev intercede for us. I remain,

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Don

A Joyful Psalm #47: Psalm 22

Was Jesus really God himself? As he is dying on the cross, Jesus cries out: "My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?" Did Jesus really feel abandoned? Does this mean he was not a divine person? Well, no it doesn't mean that. Jesus is not simply crying out in despair; He is quoting the first line of Psalm 22, and he is asking us to dig a little deeper to observe the Psalm in its entirety.

Our Lord was showing us that the prophecies of the Messiah were being fulfilled. Psalm 22 gives a chilling account of the crucifixion before it even happens: "All who see me scoff at me; they mock me with parted lips, they shake their heads." (Ps.22:8) "They have pierced my hands and my feet." (Ps.22:17) "They divide my garments among them, and for my vesture they cast lots." (Ps.22:18) All of these passages are fulfilled in the Gospel accounts of the Passion of Christ.

But there's more. The entirety of Psalm 22 is not all doom and gloom. The conclusion of the psalm takes on a tone of hope: "All the ends of the earth will remember and turn to the Lord, and all the families of the nations will bow down before him." (Ps.22:27) Indeed, the final line of Psalm 22 reads: "They will proclaim his righteousness, declaring to a people yet unborn: He has done it!" (Ps.22:31) This line is almost verbatim to the final words of Jesus: "It is finished."

Jesus shows us on the Cross that He is indeed God. And he was never in despair. Rather, He was demonstrating the fulfillment of His plan all along. He has done it!

Religious Education News

I pray this note finds you well as we prepare for our Easter celebration.

For the past year Melanie Bennett helped the Religious Education program teaching Second Grade, preparing the children for the Sacraments of Reconciliation and 1st Eucharist. Melanie is graduating in May with her medical degree and will be moving to Tulsa Oklahoma in June. Congratulations Melanie for such an achievement! Wishing you God's blessings as you start your new career. Fr. Don, the RE staff and our children are grateful and appreciate your dedication to service in our Parish. Thank you and may God bless you.

There will be no class on Palm Sunday, April 10, or April 17, Easter Sunday. We still need Catechists and substitutes. To volunteer or for more information contact Sr. Ida email: ida.chikara@gmail.com or 304 709 0026. Thank you.

Happy Easter to you all!

Pontifical Good Friday Collection for the Holy Land

This annual collection not only supports the Holy Places, but above all provides for those pastoral, charitable, educational and social works which the Church supports in the Holy Land for the welfare of the Christian brethren and of the local communities "Moreover, for two consecutive years, the Christians of the Holy Land have celebrated Easter and Christmas in a sort of isolation, without the warmth and solidarity of pilgrims visiting the Holy Places and local communities. Families have suffered beyond measure, more from the lack of work than from the immediate effects of the pandemic itself. It is by the express wish of the Popes that the collection "Pro Terra Sancta" was begun and continues to be taken up on the day of the saving Passion of our Lord, Good Friday. It is not something ancient or outdated, because it expresses above all our awareness of being rooted in the proclamation of redemption, which spread from Jerusalem and reached us all. The gesture of offering, even a small one, but by everyone, like the widow's mite, allows our brothers and sisters to continue to live, to hope and to offer a living witness to the Word made flesh in places and on the streets that saw his presence."

Sacred Heart Grade School has an opening for the After School Care Program Coordinator for the up-coming 2022-2023 school year.

Responsibilities include remaining current on licensing requirements, staffing and scheduling for the summer care and after care programs, age appropriate program design and activities, maintaining monthly meal/snack schedule, and purchasing food and supplies. Qualified applicants must pass a criminal background check, fingerprinting and TB Screening, possess CPR certification, strong computer and communication skills, and obtain 15 hours of continuing education every year.

Applicants should forward resumes to the parish office at 1114 Virginia St. E., Charleston, WV 25301.

Sacred Heart Grade School News...

We had a great week of Stations of the Cross, celebrating Reconciliation, having Easter Egg hunts, and many other things to prepare for Holy Week. We are off for Easter Break this week. We pray that you and your family have a safe & joyous Easter!

Help send food to the Risen Lord Food Pantry in Clay County.

Your donation makes a difference! Your gift of non-perishable food or money is an important link in the chain of people who help Father Thien and his food pantry help the people of Clay County, West Virginia. Father Thien and his volunteers distribute items like turkeys, hams, and vegetables and do the hard work of keeping the pantry open. Your help makes their work much more effective.

The Food Drive will continue through Easter Sunday, April 17. Knights will pass out slips of paper with donation information which may be returned to our Post Office Box P.O. Box 11578 Charleston, WV 25339-1578 or the Sunday Collection Basket. Although we will accept non-perishable food, we also encourage monetary donations by check. Father Thien works hard to get donated food from food banks but the food and money from the Parishioners of Sacred Heart help fill in the gaps. Father Thien knows how to purchase food in quantity and will certainly put any money donated to good use. If you prefer to donate food rather than money, Father Thien's most requested items are 1. Peanut Butter, 2. Canned Tuna Fish, 3. Canned Soup, 4. Any Canned Vegetable, 5. Canned Fruit. Crackers would also be appreciated.

We thank our parishioners for their generosity during this time of continued need.

Father Sadie: One Holy, Catholic (Universal) Apostolic Church

Historical Overview

Eleventh Century Divisions

14. Historians generally recognize that the event, sometimes called the Great Schism cannot be exactly dated. This division involved the two larger portions of the Church: The Roman Church and the Byzantine Church. The Byzantine Church or Church of Constantinople by this time had been vastly extended from Greece to countries such as Bulgaria, Serbia, Romania and Russia. Its influence was well established in the Eastern Patriarchates of Antioch, Constantinople and Jerusalem as well as in the Slavic countries while the Roman Church had spread throughout the Western world.

15. The division between these groups came about gradually as a result of a long complicated process, starting well before the eleventh century and not completed until some time after it. Many different influences were at work. The division was conditioned by cultural, political and economic factors; it then developed into a theological quarrel. Long before there was an open division between East and West, the two sides were becoming strangers.

16. Sad hostilities on both sides created the break which divided the Church of Christ. The date usually set for the finality of the rupture is 1054. Even after 1054 however, friendly relations between East and West continued. The two parts of Christendom were not yet conscious of the great gulf of separation between them. In fact, the average Christian was unaware of the rift. There is no doubt that after 1204, the plunder and devastation of Constantinople by the Fourth Crusade and the establishment of a Latin Patriarch at Constantinople, Christian East and Christian West were divided. The Christian East involved in this rift came to be known as the *Orthodox or Eastern Orthodox Church. The West was called the Catholic Church.

April is Child Abuse Prevention Month

Every April, Catholic parishes and schools across the United States participate in National Child Abuse Prevention Month.

Week #3

Did you know... Hope is rising. Throughout scripture there is evidence that we are called to be ambassadors of hope and healing. Did you know children of abuse long to hear this message of hope. Victims of crime, their family and loved ones need to know that their voices are heard. Organizations throughout the nation are striving to share the message that He has risen and there is hope. Each of us has a unique ability to support individuals who are hurting, to promote healthy relationships, and to build communities that are safe from those who may want to do harm. How has He called you to be an ambassador of hope and healing?

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

Merciful Messiah

Almighty God, look with mercy on your people, and grant us forgiveness. Increase our faith as we honor Jesus, our messiah, who brings us to new life in you. May we praise you with our whole heart, following the humble example of your Son. Take away our sinfulness and lead us to the joy of your kingdom. through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sunday, April 10, 2022-True Love

Today's readings: Luke 19:28–40; Isaiah 50:4–7; Psalm 22:8–9, 17–18, 19–20, 23–24; Philippians 2:6–11; Luke 22:14–23:56. In the celebration of Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord, the tenor of the readings begins with joyous acclaims of hosanna to later change to horrifying calls for Jesus' death. On this Sunday, the Gospel reading of the procession portrays crowds regarding Jesus as a king, but in the Gospel during the Liturgy of the Word, our Lord is mocked.

No matter how the people treated Jesus, he was true to himself and the mission God gave him. As St. Paul tells us in the Letter to the Philippians, "he humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death." When Jesus was about to be arrested, he healed the high priest's servant and called on his disciples to refrain from violence. And when asked if he is the Christ, Jesus only responded by saying, "You say so."

In his passion, Jesus teaches us that no matter the circumstance, we are to remain true to the person God has created us to be. Through such authentic living, we carry our cross, turn from our old way of living, and allow our heart to be open to God. Luke's account of the Gospel records that all of Jesus' "acquaintances stood at a distance." As we observe his passion and death today, we can stand by his cross, acclaiming in our hearts, "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!"

This Week at Home

Monday, April 11-Servant to All

Our first reading is a part of the servant songs in the Book of Isaiah. These are also known as the songs of the suffering servant; the others are found in Isaiah 49, 50, and 52–53. The prophecies within these songs point to Jesus, who brought justice and peace to all people and yet endured great suffering for us. Give thanks to Jesus today by serving another without counting the cost to you. Today's readings: Isaiah 42:1–7; Psalm 27:1, 2, 3, 13–14; John 12:1–11.

Tuesday, April 12-Christ Mass

During Holy Week, the Church celebrates the Christ Mass, at which the oil of catechumens and the oil of the sick are blessed, and the sacred chrism is consecrated for use that year. Pray for all priests, who serve the people of God in parishes and diocese around the world through the administration of the sacraments and in countless other ways. Today's readings: Isaiah 49:1–6; Psalm 71:1–2–4a, 5ab–6ab, 15 and 17; John 13:21–33, 36–38.

Wednesday, April 13-Betrays

Judas betrayed Jesus for thirty pieces of silver, and later regretted his actions. Jesus knew that a close friend would turn him over to the authorities. All of us have made unkind comments or poor choices that have betrayed, hurt, or defamed another person. Take quiet prayer time today to pray for those you have hurt. Ask God to help you forgive yourself for what you said or did, and for his grace of unending mercy. Today's readings: Isaiah 50:4–9a; Psalm 69:8–10, 21–22, 31 and 33–34; Matthew 26:14–25.

Thursday, April 14 -Servant Leadership

During the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper, the Church celebrates Jesus' gift of the Eucharist but also the Lord's modeling of servant leadership. During the Passover meal, Jesus, "fully aware that the Father had put everything into his power," bent to wash the feet of his disciples. Enter into the Sacred Paschal Triduum tonight by participating at Mass in your parish. Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper: Exodus 12:1–8, 11–14; Psalm 116:12–13, 15–16bc, 17–18; 1 Corinthians 11:23–26; John 13:1–15.

Friday, April 15-All for You

Jesus died on the cross to raise us to new life in the Spirit. As Christians, we are called to commend our spirit to God, and fully surrender our lives to him. Pray with a sincere heart today, remembering all that Jesus has done for you. Celebration of the Lord's Passion: Isaiah 52:13–53:12; Psalm 31:2, 6, 12–13, 15–16, 17, 25; Hebrews 4:14–16, 5:7–9; John 18:1–19:42.

Saturday, April 16-Most Holy Night

At the Easter Vigil, the high point of the liturgical year, those who have been preparing for the initiation sacraments received baptism, confirmation, and the Eucharist. Pray with and welcome these new members of the Church. Today's readings: Genesis 1:1–2:2; Psalm 104:1–2, 5–6, 10, 12, 13–14, 24, 35 or Psalm 33:4–5, 6–7, 12–13, 20–22; Genesis 22:1–18; Psalm 16:5, 8, 9–10, 11; Exodus 14:15–15:1; Exodus 15:1–2, 3–4, 5–6, 17–18; Isaiah 54:5–14; Psalm 30:2, 4, 5–6, 11–12, 13; Isaiah 55:1–11; Isaiah 12:2–3, 4, 5–6; Baruch 3:9–15, 32–4:4; Psalm 19:8, 9, 10, 11; Ezra 36:16–17a, 18–28; Psalm 42:3, 5; 43:3, 4 or Isaiah 12:2–3, 4bcd, 5–6 or Psalm 51:12–13, 14–15, 18–19; Romans 6:3–11; Psalm 118:1–2, 16–17, 22–23; Luke 24:1–12.

Sacred Heart Electronic Giving
Make a donation to the Parish electronically through Parish Soft by one of the following three methods.

1. Text "Give" to 304-464-9901 (first time, set up account, scroll to bottom of page and enter required info)
2. Download "Church by MinistryOne" app. Locate our parish and begin.
3. Go to parish website, www.sacredheartcathedral.com and scroll to the bottom of the page. Click on the red "Click to Donate" button to be directed to the Parish Soft Donation page. Simply scroll through the "Fund" box to find the collection, enter a dollar amount and submit. You will be directed to the payment method to supply your information.

The Parish Soft donation system will allow you to set up one-time only donations or recurring weekly donations.

Why Advertise in your Parish Bulletin?

1. Your message gets out weekly in about 500 bulletins x 52 weeks a year.
2. All Ads are in your choice of color.
3. You support your parish and the parish in turn supports your business.
4. Your ad can be changed as needed because all the work is done in-house.
5. All proceeds go to assist needy parish students in our schools.

We encourage parishioners to patronize our sponsors for helping to make this bulletin possible through their generosity.
