PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

“We, at the Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, are a diverse community of the poor, the disadvantaged and hungry, the well-to-do, the youth, elderly, visitors and those seeking refuge.

As a community of many cultures and races, we stand for unity in our diversity by expressing our love of God the Father through prayer and worship, through service to one another, through the ministry of welcoming, through evangelization and ecumenism. With the Bishop, we shall pursue this mission faithfully through the example of Jesus Christ, the power of the Holy Spirit and the gifts and talents of our members.” All are welcome today, especially visitors, guests and those who might be new to the community.

MSGR SADIE'S "STAY-AT-HOME" REFLECTIONS #1

Father Higgs has invited me to "say" a few words in the Parish bulletin. I thank him. I am happy to do so over a period of a few weeks.

Tertullian Romanum paganum proferens.

"Videte quomodo hi Christiani invicem inter se amant."

First: I must express my deep gratitude to so many parishioners and friends for so many acts of kindness. I never tire of telling people that everything in my residence, except the pictures on the wall, has been gifted to me.

Second: I must express my gratitude and great admiration for the "medical people" who have managed to keep me alive and kicking during five weeks in the hospital. Each and every person I encountered showed me God's love in so many different ways. It was humbling and inspiring.

Third: I must express my gratitude to the leaders and people of the Diocese for the (PHRA) Priests Health and Retirement Association Program. My healthcare bills have been astronomical but mostly paid by PHRA. Thank you.

Tertullian quoting a pagan Roman.

"See how these Christians love one another."

For those of you who watch the Basilica's Sunday, 10:00 AM live stream Mass at home, we will no longer post the worship aid on our website due to copyright laws. However, we will email the worship aid to everyone as usual. If you haven't been receiving emails from the parish in the last few weeks, call the parish office to update your contact information 304-342-8175.

Pentecost Sunday

Come upon Us

Lord of life, The world awaits your liberating Spirit. Come, mighty wind, breathe new life into us. Come, Spirit of Truth, reveal the evil that lingers in our midst. Come, Wisdom of God, teach us the way of righteousness. Come, Fire of Love, impassion us to act justly in all we do. Come, Helper and Guide, draw us together in fellowship and peace. Come, O Sanctifier, and make us holy. Keep us forever united with our loving and creating God, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sunday, May 31, 2020-Today's Apostles

Today's Readings: Acts 2:1–11; Psalm 104:1, 24, 29–30, 31, 34; 1 Corinthians 12:3b–7, 12–13; John 20:19–23. For the past seven weeks, we have heard what the Apostles did after Jesus poured his Spirit out upon them. We have heard compelling speeches and listened to stories of healing and exorcism. We have witnessed the conversion of Jews, Samaritans, and Gentiles. We have seen Paul, a fierce opponent of Jesus' followers, become an eloquent and passionate preacher of the Gospel. We have also heard stories of ridicule, expulsion, imprisonment, and martyrdom, yet in those moments, the Apostles rejoiced that they could glorify God by dying and rising with Jesus.

As our Easter season comes to an end and we conclude our reading of the Acts of the Apostles, we might think such marvelous stories belong to the past. We might think we could never be such loving, courageous witnesses, we could never speak and act like those Apostles did. We would be wrong to think this. St. Paul tells us, "To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit." Pentecost marked the beginning of the apostolic era, the era of the Church. We are still in that era. People still need to hear the story of salvation, still need healing, still need evil expelled from their midst. God pours his Spirit out upon us to transform and empower us, and then he sends us forth. We each have something to contribute to the story of salvation, for we are the apostles of this age.

This Week and Beyond

Monday, June 1-Mary, Mother of the Church

In the Gospel passage, Jesus ensures that his mother will be taken care of after his death. However, this passage also has a symbolic meaning. Throughout the Gospel, the Beloved Disciple has faithfully told us all that happened to Jesus so that we will believe in and worship Jesus as God's Son. Mary represents the Church, the community of believers who are continually strengthened by the witness of this disciple. As we strive to bear Christ in our world, we continue to draw strength and gain wisdom from the faithful witness of others. Pray the Rosary this week, and ask God to help you be a more faithful witness to God's love. Today's Readings: Genesis 3:9–15, 20 or Acts 1:12–14; John 19:25–34.

Sunday, June 7-The Most Holy Trinity

Because the first Christians worshipped the Risen Christ as Lord, it soon became necessary to explain how Jesus and God the Father, as well as the Holy Spirit, were one God and not three different gods. There were intense discussions about the nature of God in the fourth and fifth centuries. The fruit of this process is the Nicene Creed, particularly the use of the title "Father."

The term father implies relationship. If God is a father, then there must be a child. In God's case, the child is a Son, Jesus. The relationship does not end there; it flows outward, bringing the world into existence and giving life to countless creatures. The Holy Spirit draws the world toward God so that we may become part of the divine relationship, part of God's eternal love. Today's Readings: Exodus 34:4b–6, 8–9; Daniel 3:52, 53, 54, 55, 56; 2 Corinthians 13:11–13; John 3:16–18.

Sunday, June 14-The Body and Blood of Christ

When Jesus' followers gathered after his death and Resurrection to break bread and drink from the cup, they were doing something dangerous. Their Lord had been executed, and by gathering in his name they risked the same fate. They gathered nonetheless. By communing with the Risen Christ, they declared themselves part of his body and showed their willingness to suffer for the sake of the Gospel.

When we come forward during Communion, we are doing the same thing. By partaking of the consecrated bread and wine, we become part of Christ's Body. We commit ourselves to acting as Christ in the world, even to the point of suffering, maybe even shedding our blood, so that others will know of Christ's love for them. Today's Readings: Deuteronomy 8:2–3, 14b–16a; Psalm 147:12–13, 14–15, 19–20; 1 Corinthians 10:16–17; John 6:51–58.

Friday, June 19-The Most Sacred Heart of Jesus

In the First Reading, Moses reminds the Israelites that God bound himself to his people in a covenant, and they, in turn, must remain bound to God and God alone. St. John writes similarly in our Second Reading, urging us to remain bound to God by loving each other as God loves us, for God is love itself. Because we associate the human heart with love, it became natural to revere the heart of Jesus as the more particular embodiment of the Father's love.

In today's Gospel passage, Jesus tells us to yoke or bind ourselves to him. He invites us to live in a way that is not burdensome because it is the way of love and because he accompanies us every step of this way. We can trust him because we know that he has already bound himself to us in love. Today's Readings: Deuteronomy 7:6–11; Psalm 103:1–2, 3–4, 6–7, 8, 10; 1 John 4:7–16; Matthew 11:25–30.

A Note from the Rector...

Dear Parishioners,

Happy Pentecost!

We returned to our Sacred Home last weekend. I am very grateful for the work of our parish staff. I am very grateful to our property manager, John Blake and his staff who worked hard on getting everything in place for our careful and safe return. Many thanks also to our ushers who worked very well assisting you with our new procedures. Please be aware of the following:

REVISED MASS SCHEDULE

Our Sunday Mass times will be as follows until further notice,

Saturday Vigil 5:30pm
Sunday 8am, 10am and 12 Noon

We will not have the 5pm Sunday Mass until further notice.

Our weekday Mass will be at 12pm. There will be only one daily Mass, Monday through Friday. There will be no Saturday morning Mass until further notice.

DISPENSATION STILL IN PLACE

Bishop Brennan has continued the dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass until further notice. Persons who are ill and those more susceptible to infection, the elderly, or those already in frail health, are urged to remain at home and participate in televised or online Mass. Anyone who fears being infected by attending Mass should stay home. I fully understand if you have concerns returning for a Sunday Mass, perhaps consider a weekday Mass

WHAT TO EXPECT AT MASS

Social distancing will be required at Mass. Those who live in the same household may sit together; otherwise, there must be six feet of separation between persons. Everyone will be required to wear a mask during Mass, except in the moment of receiving Holy Communion. You are asked to bring your own mask. We will have some available if you forget to bring one. Some common practices will be omitted: the use of hymnals-we will provide a one-use worship aid, holding hands during the Our Father, the Sign of Peace, and the offering of the Precious Blood. The Church will be opened 20 minutes before Mass. You are to use the main entrance of the Basilica on Leon Sullivan Way. You will be greeted by an usher, making sure you use the provided hand sanitizer and are wearing a mask. An usher will escort you to your reserved pew. You are asked not to gather anywhere else in the Church. The usher will release your pew for Communion and release your pew to leave at the end of Mass. You may leave the Church by any exit while maintaining social distance guidelines.

SANITIZATION

Our pews, floors, doors and restrooms will be sanitized before the first Mass and after the last Mass. If you use the restroom, you will be asked to wipe any surface you have touched with wipes that we will provide.

RESERVING A TIME FOR MASS

According to the health guidelines, we have a limit of 75 people allowed in our Basilica for each Mass. We require that you reserve a pew. We have pews for families, couples, and singles. Please contact Angie Hodges at ahodges@shccwv.us or 304-342-8175 by Noon on Fridays to reserve a time for a Sunday Mass. You may reserve for a weekday Mass but it is not required.

OPENING AND CLOSING OF THE BASILICA

Our Church door will open 20 minutes before the Mass is set to begin. After Mass ends, the doors will be locked to allow enough time to sanitize before the next Mass. This schedule will be in place for all Sunday and weekday Masses.

UPDATE CONTACT INFORMATION

We have started using Flocknote, which is an information platform. We can send you timely information by way of email or a text. Please contact Angie Hodges at ahodges@shccwv.us or 304-342-8175 to update your contact information such as your email or cell phone number.

I know this will be very different and challenging for all of us. I ask for your patience, understanding and cooperation. We will adapt if and when the need warrants.

If you have any questions, please contact our parish office or you may call me on my cell.

Let us continue to pray for each other in these difficult times. Pray for those who have the corona virus and for the families of those who have died from the virus. May those who serve the victims of this virus be protected and be given strength.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Donald X. Higgs
Rector 304-685-2367

From Fr. Don , Fr. Brian , the parish staff and parishioners.

We thank God for the gift of your life.

Changes in our Music Ministry at the Basilica.

As we announced in March, Mark Haas will become our full time Music Director on June 1st. This new position will be responsible for all the music for each Mass. As we welcome Mark, we say thank you for those that served us for many years in this ministry. We are grateful for the faithful ministry of Ellen Olson who served for nearly forty years. Ellen began playing when the Capuchin Fathers were here at Sacred Heart. Ellen will continue to serve as a substitute when needed. We also want to thank Garrett Maner who served us the past three and a half years. Garrett has also offered to be a substitute when needed. Greg Gray will continue his very dedicated ministry as our principle organist. We are grateful to Jeremy Severn who returned for a time as our interim-Choir Director. Thank you all for providing a wonderful and important service to us, leading us to sing praise to the Lord. May God bless you and St. Cecilia intercede for you.

Fr. Brian Receives a New Assignment

Fr. Brian O'Donnell, SJ. will be leaving us the first part of June for his assignment as a member of the staff at Holy Trinity Church in Georgetown. While in residence at the Cordis Center, Fr Brian served in a great number of Diocesan Offices including, Catholic Lobbyist to our State Legislature, Executive Director of the Catholic Conference of WV, Executive Director for the Dept. of Social Ministries and Interim Director of the Justice and Life Office, Chair of the Office of Ecumenism. While in residence, Fr. Brian O'Donnell assisted with our Sunday and weekday Masses and helped many parishes throughout our Diocese provide weekend coverage. We are very grateful for his priestly service to us. If you would like to send Fr. Brian a note please email him at, bodonnell@dwc.org.

Our Return to Church on Ascension Sunday

Mount Olivet Mausoleum Mount Olivet Catholic Cemetery, Charleston, WV

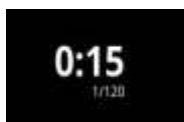

Due to the lack of space in our current mausoleum, we are planning the construction of an additional mausoleum adjacent to the present site. Our future mausoleum will provide the prestige and serenity of above-ground burial with the relaxing and comfortable environment for loved ones to visit year-round. This mausoleum will hold 180 casket spaces, which includes single and tandem crypts, and 90 niche spaces and will be nestled against an earthly rock backdrop.

To purchase or learn more about arrangements for above ground entombment or inurnment, please contact the parish office 304-342-8175, Monday - Friday, 8:30am - 4:30pm and ask to speak to Sheila Kerekes or John Blake or via email at Skerekes@shccwv.us or Jblake@shccwv.us.

ANNULMENT To help couples establish permanent and sacramental marriages, the Church encourages divorced and remarried persons to pursue the annulment process. Contact Fr. Higgs at 342-8175 for confidential discussion on exploring the process.

Consider having your church contributions sent directly to the Church from your bank; please contact your own bank to do so. Almost every bank offers this service. If possible please have your parish ID included on the check. Many parishioners are opting to do this.

Baptismal Preparation Class for First Time Parents
To schedule a baptism preparation class for your family or to get more information please call 304-342-8175.

Parishioners, personal listening devices are available in the sacristy, if you would like to have one just let Fr. Don know.

Pastoral Care is offered to all parishioners. If you would like a visit or the Eucharist brought to your home, the hospital or assisted care facility from one of our Pastoral Care SJI Sisters, you can contact Sr. Ida at 1-304-709-0026.

Sacred Heart Early Learning Center Ages 6 Weeks to 2 Years open to children of all faiths, located at 204 Leon Sullivan Way. Hours of operation are Monday-Friday 7:00 am to 5:30 pm, year round.

At the Early Learning Center, care teachers provide a safe, clean, predictable and nurturing environment in which children can explore, build relationships and develop a positive self concept. If you are interested in our program, call Dawn Snyder at 414-5757 for an appointment, or for information.

Sacred Heart Basilica is sustained by the generosity of our parishioners through time, talent and treasure. We are sincerely grateful for kind remembrances in memorials, donations and wills. Donations are tax deductible. For all that you do, thank you!

Why Advertise in your Parish Bulletin?

1. Your message gets out weekly in about 500 bulletins x 52 weeks a year.
2. All Ads are in your choice of color.
3. You support your parish and the parish in turn supports your business.
4. Your ad can be changed as needed because all the work is done in-house.
5. All proceeds go to assist needy parish students in our schools.

We encourage parishioners to patronize our sponsors for helping to make this bulletin possible through their generosity.
