PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

“We, at the Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, are a diverse community of the poor, the disadvantaged and hungry, the well-to-do, the youth, elderly, visitors and those seeking refuge.

As a community of many cultures and races, we stand for unity in our diversity by expressing our love of God the Father through prayer and worship, through service to one another, through the ministry of welcoming, through evangelization and ecumenism. With the Bishop, we shall pursue this mission faithfully through the example of Jesus Christ, the power of the Holy Spirit and the gifts and talents of our members.” All are welcome today, especially visitors, guests and those who might be new to the community.

SAVE THE DATE!

Our Parish Picnic will be September 25th at Coonskin Park

Mass will be at 11:00 followed by lunch.

There will be a sign up sheet for estimated attendance and volunteers in the gathering space beginning this weekend.

The Pope's Monthly Intention

August-Small Businesses

We pray for small and medium sized businesses; in the midst of economic and social crisis, may they find ways to continue operating, and serving their communities.

A note from the Rector...

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Greetings on this Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time!

Our Catholic School Communities have begun their new school year. Please keep them in your prayers.

We have two opportunities as a parish to gather. This Sunday after the Noon Mass, our Knights of Columbus will hold a hotdog and Ice cream social. Our playground will be open. Please join us even if you attend another Mass. On September 25th, we will hold our parish picnic at Coonskin Park beginning with Mass at 11am? Please join us by signing up. The sign-up sheets are located in our Gathering Space.

Please consider joining in these community building events. May you have a blessed week. I remain

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Don

Adult Prayer Enrichment Program for 2022-2023

Are you feeling (1) Deceived, (2) Divided, (3) Diverted or (4) Discouraged lately? You are not alone. The devil uses these four “D’s” to entrap us according to Louis J. Cameli in The Devil You Don’t Know.

In Holy Is His Name, John Michael Talbot, shows us how Mary’s Magnificat was her way of saying “Yes” to God. Walking with Saint Joseph by Pope Francis further demonstrates how God used Saint Joseph to play an incomparable role in our salvation history.

Jesus and the Jewish Roots of the Eucharist by Brant Pitre teaches us how to unlock the secrets of the Last Supper to ward off temptation today.

These four books will be used in the Adult PEP (Prayer Enrichment Program) for 2022-2023. Adult PEP begins Tuesday, September 13, 2022 from 10:15-11:30 at the Cordis Center on 1114 Virginia Street East in Charleston WV. The class will end on Tuesday, November 15, 2022.

Registration is required. To register call or text Bob Harrison at 304-932-8246 or email at DRBOBWV@AOL.COM. The cost of the first book is $17.00 and will be available for purchase during the opening class meeting on September 13. The registration deadline is September 6, 2022.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION 2022-23

The fall Religious Education (RE) program for Kindergarten through 8th Grade will begin September 18th from 9:00 to 9:45 am at Seton Hall.

We are in need of Catechists for 2nd, 5th & 6th grade and substitute Catechists. To volunteer or for information contact Sr. Ida email: idachikara@gmail.com or call 304-709-0026.

TO REGISTER: Parents go to the parish website: www.sacredheartcathedral.com to print the registration form, you can then fill it out and email it to Sr. Ida idachikara@gmail.com or Angela Hodges ahodges@shccwv.us, or you can mail it to or drop it off at the parish office, 1114 Virginia St. E, Chas., WV 25301.

Thank you for supporting our children in their faith journey. Watch the bulletin for further information.

HELP! Meals on Wheels is in need of a Driver out of St. Francis. Please consider giving a little of your time for this much needed service. For more information or to volunteer call 304-346-5104

Please keep in your prayers Joseph “Joe” Louis Garcia, II who died July 19th 2022. Our prayers and condolences for his family and friends. Eternal rest grant to him, O Lord.

Sacred Heart Grade School News... We are back! We had our first full day on Friday and we are ready to go on Monday. This year, we will be learning Spanish in grades K-5. This will be a lot of fun! Thank you for your prayers for our teachers, staff, and students. We know this is going to be a great year!

News from CCHS...The 2022-23 school year is underway! The halls of CCHS came alive this week with the return of students and teachers. All are ready for an excellent year. Please remember the Charleston Catholic community in your prayers as the school year progresses.

DON'T FORGET ! The Hot Dog and Ice Cream Social this Sunday August 21, following the 12:00 Mass. The location will be in the garden outside of the gathering space. The menu will include hot dogs with toppings, water or peach tea and ice cream with chocolate or butterscotch sauce. The playground will be opened, so that families with children may more comfortably attend. We hope you will join us for this fellowship.

Future Knights Activities

- We will look forward to seeing you at the Parish Picnic September 25, 2022 at Coonskin Park.
- The Knights of Columbus will host a Guest Speaker in the Gathering Space September 29, 2022; 7:00 p.m. We will offer light food and refreshments. Preliminary plans are for parishioner and Brother Knight Steve Collins to speak on the challenges of setting up his scientific testing laboratory and keeping current with fast moving technology. This event will be open to all parishioners.

Do you know someone who wants to become Catholic?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process established for the universal Church for individuals to become Catholic and receive the sacraments of initiation — Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist. This initiation process also involves a parish community experiencing a renewal in faith as it prepares and welcomes new members into the Church. The Rite speaks of conversion as a “spiritual journey.” Centered on fostering a deep relationship with Jesus and the Church he founded, this journey takes place through distinct stages over a period of time (late August to Easter) suitable to bring about a thorough catechesis, significant experience of the parish community, and commitment to the liturgical and moral life of the Catholic faithful. The RCIA process is a restoration of the ancient catechumenate, arising within the first three centuries following the era of the apostles. It was the early Church’s way of Christianizing the pagan Roman Empire. The Second Vatican Council called for the restoration and use of this venerable and powerful method of initiation for the worldwide Church.

Are you or do you know someone who would like to take this journey? If so, please contact Father Don (dhiggs@dwc.com) or RCIA Director Michael Kawash (mak@ramlaw.com or 304-549-6453). An inquiry session will be held in August.

From our music director...

A Joyful Psalm #59: Psalm 117

Has anyone ever asked, "why are you Christian?" Or perhaps, "why do you believe in God." Sometimes it is necessary to give an defense of our faith. Saint Peter recognized this necessity: "Always be ready to give a defense for the hope that is in you." (1 Peter 3:15)

Psalm 117 provides a "cheat sheet" for the reasons we worship and believe in God. The psalm is divided into three parts:

1. a universal exhortation to praise YHWH (Ps. 117:1)
2. the reason to praise YHWH in his covenant (Ps. 117:2a)
3. a short doxology (Ps. 117:2b)

In other words, we should praise God, believe in him, and praise him for what he does for us. And perhaps, at times, we should dust off our own catechesis and be prepared to defend our faith so that we will be prepared to go out to all the world and tell the good news!

Mark Haas, Director of Music

Queenship of Blessed Virgin Mary

August 22—Memorial
Liturgical Color: White

The mother of a king is a queen who receives honor in her son's realm

Mary is both a queen and a mother, but she is more mother than queen. Mary's Queenship and "mothership," or motherhood, spark to life simultaneously. In the very moment Mary becomes a mother at the Annunciation, she also becomes a queen. The Archangel Gabriel tells Mary that her Son will sit on "the throne of his ancestor David" and that "He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end" (Lk 1:32-33). Since Jesus is a king, and since He is conceived in the womb of Mary, and since in Israel the mother of a king was always a queen, (the daughter not necessarily so), Mary becomes a queen. Some texts from the early centuries of the Church call Mary the "domina," the female of "dominus," Latin for "master" or "Lord."

It is not royal blood, but her motherly relationship, that makes Mary a queen. And since nothing is excluded from the realm of Christ the King, Mary is the Queen of that same realm, including both heaven and earth. This realm was not earned through violent conquest or political machinations. The Kingdom of Christ the King was purchased through a blood sacrifice of the King Himself who died on the cross. Soldiers were not killed so that Christ could walk over their corpses on the battlefield in order to rule a vanquished people from a secular throne. No, of course not. Christ humbly allowed Himself to be murdered so that He could rise forty hours later and ascend into heaven to be seated, like a king, at the right hand of the Father. (Kings sit. Their audience's stand.) Christ gives the world a new form of reigning, a reinterpretation of the words "I win!"

Mary is that heavenly queen in the mysterious vision of the Book of Revelation in which appears "a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars" (Rv 12:1-3). The complex symbolism of this crowned empress encompasses Mary, Israel, and the Church Herself. Mary's coronation, the Fifth Glorious Mystery of the rosary, has not been defined dogmatically but has been celebrated liturgically and depicted in art since early medieval times. The most ancient depiction of Mary as queen is a mosaic from the 500s in a small church in the historic center of Rome! But the feast day of her Queenship was only placed in the Church's calendar in 1954. Vatican II stated unequivocally that "Mary was taken up body and soul into heavenly glory, and exalted by the Lord as Queen of the universe..." (Lumen Gentium, 59). After the liturgical reforms of Vatican II, the octave of Mary's Assumption was abrogated but is still recalled in her Queenship being commemorated eight days after August 15, showing the link between the two celebrations.

Earthly kings, queens, and kingdoms, so present throughout the lived history of mankind, are, more cosmically, images or signs of the structure of authority that lies behind all creation. Mankind naturally organizes its public life to ensure peaceful co-existence with others, to promote order and tranquility, and to foster the common good in a thousand ways. This secular response of establishing a structure to manage together what cannot be managed alone is universal and always includes certain leaders to represent the organized community. All of this has a religious equivalent. A sacred canopy hangs over the world. A timeless, divine mega-structure encompasses under itself all of the smaller, temporary civic structures. The man anointed as king, the woman crowned as queen, the order they impose through a just rule in a secular polity, point to something else—an underlying, and overarching, sacred polity in which God rules His creation like a fatherly king. In this timeless theological union, the feminine presence is felt. The queen mother is there, interceding with her King-Son on behalf of His subjects. She worships with them but also receives their honor. The accolades directed at her are deflected, mirror-like, to the greater One to whom she is holy daughter, holy mother, holy spouse and holy queen, our life, our sweetness, and our hope.

Mary, Queen of the Universe, in your Son's Kingdom, the faithful struggle to be faithful and to be fruitful. We are under your regal yet maternal care. May we please both our King and Father, and you, our Queen and Mother, since all parents are deserving of their children's honor.
