October-A Church Open to Everyone

We pray for the Church; ever faithful to, and courageous in preaching the Gospel, may the Church be a community of solidarity, fraternity and welcome, always living in an atmosphere of synodality.

A note from the Rector...

Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Lord,

Greetings on the Thirtieth-First Sunday in Ordinary Time!

Growing up, My father would say to me, "Don, it's not what you don't know that hurts you, it's what you know that isn't so". I remember my Dad's wisdom as I apologize for jumping a week for the Second Collection for Hurricane Ian Relief. It is this weekend. I am sorry for the confusion. My mistake gives you another opportunity to give to this important need.

Also, I am repeating my requests from last week. We are looking for more people to respond to these opportunities to serve.

Our RCIA group now has 12 attending the gatherings on Wednesday's at 7pm. We would like to offer light refreshments for them. If you would like to be on a schedule to provide refreshments, please contact Michael Kawash at mak@ramlaw.com.

My other request is for more volunteers to join our Hospitality Committee and our Funeral Luncheon Committee. The Hospitality Committee takes care of things like coffee and donuts on Sunday, and helps with other parish socials. The Funeral Luncheon Committee provides a lunch after a funeral Mass, it's a wonderful ministry and a great comfort for the family. If you are interested or have questions, please email Mary Collins at mcollins28@hotmail.com.

Thank you for considering these requests. May the Lord bless your week. I remain,

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Don

A Joyful Psalm #68: Psalm 145

The great battle for all Christians is that great battle against sin. The devil is always searching for us. He is "prowling around like a lion, searching for someone to devour." (1 Peter 5:8). The great penetrator of sin is Jesus Christ himself.

In the Gospel Reading this weekend, Jesus passes through Jericho. In the bible, Jericho represents sin. Jericho is in the lowlands near the Dead Sea, far down from the heavenly city of Jerusalem. Jericho is dead in sin. Within this city is perhaps the greatest sinner of all: Zecchaeus the tax collector. Despite his sinful life, Zecchaeus longs to see Jesus. His short stature forces him to climb on top of a tree to see the Lord ("The Lord lifts up all those who are falling" [Ps.145:14]). Zecchaeus is forced to rise above the obstacles, just as we are called to rise above the sinful obstacles of our lives.

As we approach the Lord to forgive us our sins, we can rely on the fact that "the Lord is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and of great kindness." (Ps.145:8) The Great Penetrator of sin will strike down the evil one, and restore our freedom.

Mark Haas, Director of Music

Another big week is upon us! Our Halloween party is Monday. We ask that you please pray for rain to stay away so we can enjoy some festivities outside! We are starting the second nine weeks this week- it is flying past! We will be focusing on gratitude in the month of November. We are grateful for all we have and our ability to help others. Have a great week! Anne Davis, Principal

Special Collection for Hurricane Ian Relief—This Weekend

In the aftermath of Hurricane Ian, which devastated areas across Florida and other parts of the southeastern US, recovery and cleanup efforts continue. Many lives have been lost and thousands of homes, business, and Church properties have been damaged or destroyed.

Throughout the region, Catholic Charities USA (CCUSA), Catholic Relief Services (CRS), in conjunction with other agencies, are already hard at work providing humanitarian aid. Items like food, water, sanitation assistance and clean-up services are already being provided and the agencies will remain in the area to support repair and rebuild efforts in communities.

To support the efforts of these organizations, Most Rev. Mark Brennan, Bishop of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, has approved a special collection to be held the weekend of October 29-30, 2022. Bishop Brennan appreciates your generosity this past summer to those affected by the severe storms and flooding in Eastern Kentucky and Southern West Virginia. But he feels impelled once again to ask you to do what you can to help our fellow Americans suffering from Hurricane Ian in Florida.

All funds collected in the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston will become part of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops Emergency Disaster Fund which provides for the pastoral and reconstruction needs of Catholic Churches in the region as well as the efforts of CCUSA and CRS.

Checks can be made out to your respective parish with “Disaster Relief” on the memo line. Donations can also be made on the diocesan website at <https://dwc.org/disaster-relief/>.

As we hold the victims and first responders in our prayers during these critical days, let us also spend time in prayer and discernment as we prepare for this upcoming collection. Let us come together now to support our brothers and sisters in Christ who are suffering this horrible loss.

Please remember in prayer all those who have lost their lives in the wake of Hurricane Ian, as well as all those who have been injured and lost their homes, cars, employment, and access to food and water.

What is the significance of All Saints Day?

By Father Ayala, Director of Liturgy at the Basilica

- What is a saint?

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops defines saints as “persons in heaven (officially canonized or not), who lived heroically virtuous lives, offered their life for others, or were martyred for the faith, and who are worthy of imitation.”

- Are canonized saints the only men and women commemorated on All Saints Day? If not, who is remembered on this day?

When we pray the Apostles’ Creed, we say, “I believe in...the communion of saints.” The communion of saints is made up of men and women who have placed their hope in Jesus Christ and through Baptism, are his adopted sons and daughters. The communion of saints includes the living and the deceased, whether they are with God in heaven or undergoing a process of purification. Before his death, Saint Dominic said, “Do not weep, for I shall be more useful to you after my death, and I shall help you then more effectively than during my life.” In a very special way, on the Solemnity of All Saints, not only can we pray to our favorite saints, but we can also call upon our departed brothers and sisters whom we believe are already with God.

- What is the origin of All Saints Day?

The feast that we know of today as “All Saints Day” originated in May 609, when Pope Boniface IV dedicated the Pantheon in Rome to the Blessed Virgin Mary. In the eighth century, Pope Gregory III changed the date to November 1 when he dedicated a chapel at the Vatican in honor of all the saints, and Pope Gregory IV later extended this celebration of all saints to the universal church.

- What traditions and practices are associated with All Saints Day?

One great tradition and practice associated with the Solemnity of All Saints is going to Mass – it is, after all, a Holy Day of Obligation! Every time we go to Mass, we remember the saints in a special way in the Eucharist. Other traditions on this day include reading and learning about the saints, praying to the saints – especially one’s Confirmation Saint – and asking for their intercession so that we, too might become saints. Finally, there are some good and wholesome movies about saints – some favorite classic movies are A Man for All Seasons, Becket, and The Song of Bernadette.

- What is the difference between All Saints Day and All Souls’ Day?

All Saints and All Souls comprise the two-day celebration of the Communion of Saints – those who are with God in heaven and those who are on their way to heaven. On the Solemnity of All Saints, November 1, the Church celebrates those Christians who achieved spiritual maturity. It is a day to venerate all the holy men and women who have been canonized by the Church. A day later, on the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls’ Day), the Church remembers and prays for the faithful departed: our brothers and sisters who have died marked with the sign of faith. Particularly, we pray for all the souls in purgatory.

- What are some of the Scriptures or prayers associated with All Saints Day? Is one passage particularly meaningful to you?

The Gospel for the Solemnity of All Saints comes from the Sermon on the Mount – specifically, the Beatitudes, which religious education teaches are the “Basic Attitudes of Christ”! This passage is quite fitting for All Saints because all the saints experienced joy in the midst of sorrow or suffering. Jesus says in the Beatitudes that those who are poor, in mourning, or who are persecuted are blessed.

When we do our best to live out the beatitudes, we contribute to building up the kingdom of God here on earth. On All Saints, we pray in a special way to the saints that they continue to help and guide us along our path of life.

- How does the invocation of all the saints assist the faithful in becoming the saints that God has called them to be?

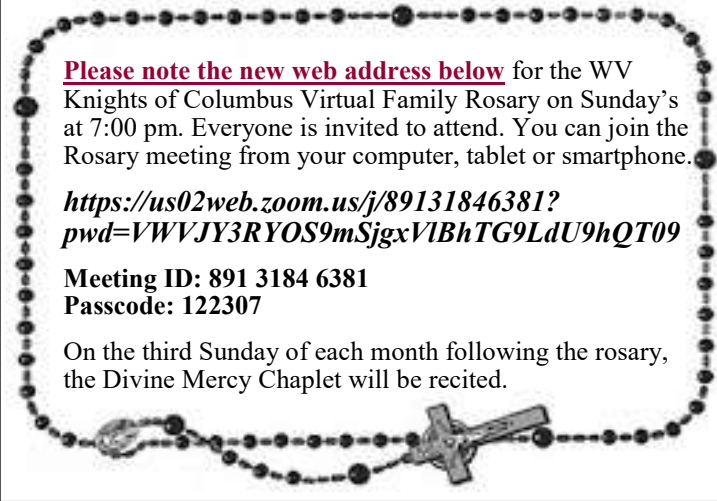

One of my favorite quotations from Saint Teresa of Calcutta is that “holiness is not the luxury of a few people, but a simple duty for you and me.” We are all called to become saints, and we can accomplish that by striving to follow God’s commands and being united with Him in love. To be holy, to be a saint, means allowing God “to live his life in us” as Mother Teresa taught.
