A note from the Rector...

Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Lord!

Happy Second Sunday of Advent.

With Christmas this year being on a Sunday, we have the longest season of Advent to enjoy. May we use this beautiful season as a graced time to prepare our hearts and mind for the Lord's coming. May we listen to the prophetic voices of Advent to make room for the Lord. One powerful way to prepare is through the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Please check the schedule of Advent Reconciliation Services offered by our area parishes including ours set for December 15th at 7pm. I also encourage you to make use of the daily Advent reflections offered in this bulletin.

Three weeks ago, we kicked off our major campaign to provide funding for our parish and the needs of Sacred Heart Grade School titled "Renewing Our Present, Securing Our Future". The mailings for the campaign have been sent out, if you haven't received it you can call the parish office and we will send you the information 304-342-8175.

I ask for your continued prayers for the success of our campaign. May you have a Blessed and Holy Advent. I remain,

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Don

"No sin would touch her, so that she would be a fitting and worthy vessel of the Son of God. The Immaculate Conception does not refer to the virginal conception and the birth of Christ, but rather to Mary's being conceived without inheriting Original Sin."

Advent Wreath Year A

If you are setting up an Advent wreath in your home this year, here are some prayers you could say while you light its candles. You may say these before or after a meal, when waking up, before going to bed, or whenever you and the members of your household gather for prayer. Before you say the prayer, read and talk over the Gospel reading you heard at Sunday Mass that week.

Week 1: O God, who invite us to stay awake because we do not know the day the Lord will come, let this candle signify the dawn of the day when your Son will come again. Help us to avoid doing things we want to hide and to live always as children of the light. Through Christ our Lord.

Week 2: O God, who sent John the Baptist to tell us to prepare the way of the Lord, let these two candles light the way for us. Help us to walk now and always in a straight path to you. May love of God and love of neighbor light our way. Through Christ our Lord.

Week 3: O God, who promised that the least one born into the Kingdom of God is greater than John the Baptist, fill us with joy as we light the rose candle. Make us happy when we serve you, and let us see the light of your glory. Through Christ our Lord.

Week 4: O God, who sent an angel to comfort Joseph in his dream, comfort us when we are afraid. Turn our darkness into light. Let these four candles warm our hearts as we await the coming of Emmanuel, God-with-us. Through Christ our Lord.

Second Sunday of Advent

Come, Peaceable Kingdom

Almighty God, you are the giver of peace, the source of harmony. Guide us to follow your will so that we may be united in thought and act and look forward to a time when the wolf is guest of the lamb. and all the earth knows you. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sunday, December 4, 2022-Kings Rule, God Reigns

Today's readings: Isaiah 11:1–10; Psalm 72:1–2, 7–8, 12–13, 17; Romans 15:4–9; Matthew 3:1–12. Isaiah's prophecy reinforces the vision that a new king will come from the "holy mountain" upon which Jerusalem will be built. The scene that Isaiah imagines is much like the Garden of Eden, where animals have no enemies and the kingdom is peaceful. The prophet puts forth the hope that one day God will reign over the earth and the will of God will bring true harmony and peace.

The refrain for Psalm 72 parallels justice and peace. Peace will result when a king governs with justice, when the poor are rescued and saved. To govern with integrity, the king must be blessed. From that blessing, "all the tribes of the earth" can be blessed. Listen carefully to this psalm that proclaims that a leader protects and serves those who are defenseless, vulnerable, and victims of injustice. What better way to anticipate the second week of Advent than to find a way to treat with kindness a victim of injustice? What better way to "think in harmony," as St. Paul states in the second reading, than to seek reconciliation with a family member or friend? Keep in mind St. Paul's instruction to "welcome one another, then, as Christ welcomes you."

The reading from Romans today speaks of endurance, encouragement, unity, harmony, and hope. Each day this week, as you contemplate John the Baptist's call to repent, read Romans 15:4–9 and choose a different phrase to ponder.

This Week at Home

Monday, December 5-Be Strong and Hope

In the first reading, Isaiah imagines the peaceful wonders that will come to pass when the Son comes to save. Scripture envisions a beautiful and peaceful world, as we glory in salvation. The images of the desert blooming with flowers, the lame leaping, and streams bursting forth in the desert are all ample subjects for quiet reflection as we await the nativity of the Lord. Just as the bystanders to the cure of the paralytic witnessed something "incredible," so do you during your day. Watch for the incredible. Today's readings: Isaiah 35:1–10; Psalm 85:9ab, 10, 11–12, 13–14; Luke 5:17–26.

Tuesday, December 6-St. Nicholas

"Comfort, give comfort to my people," begins the reading from Isaiah. These are apt words for the optional Memorial of St. Nicholas, the patron saint of children, prostitutes, sailors, and repentant thieves, among others. To celebrate this day, many traditions have arisen involving candy and small gifts. Some consider St. Nicholas the "real Santa" because of his acts of charity, especially to the poor. Celebrate this fourth-century holy and generous bishop by being kind to another. Today's readings: Isaiah 40:1–11; Psalm 96:1–2, 3 and 10ac, 11–13; Matthew 18:12–14.

Wednesday, December 7-St. Ambrose

In the Gospel today, Jesus invites the crowds to find solace in him, saying, "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest." Today too we find hope in these words, knowing that we can give our burdens over to God. On the Memorial of St. Ambrose (340–397), we recall someone who unburdened many people by helping them resolve conflicts. He was an eloquent defender of the faith. Today's readings: Isaiah 40:25–31; Psalm 103:1–2, 3–4, 8 and 10; Matthew 11:28–30.

Thursday, December 8-Immaculate Conception

On the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, the refrain of the responsorial psalm sings of God's "marvelous deeds," then the Letter to the Ephesians tells of our adoption by God. Finally, in the Gospel, faith is proclaimed in Mary's words, "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord." Celebrate Mary's yes to God through an action for another. Today's readings: Genesis 3:9–15; Psalm 98:1, 2–3ab, 3cd–4; Ephesians 1:3–6, 11–12; Luke 1:26–38.

Friday, December 9-Flowers of Hope

The optional Memorial of St. Juan Diego Cuauhtlatatzin is dear to many Mexican Catholics because it celebrates the appearance of Mary to a peasant. After Mary's appearance, Juan's cloak was inscribed with the Virgin's face and filled with flowers. This proved to the bishop that Juan Diego was the Blessed Mother's messenger and that the bishop should build a shrine at Tepeyac Hill. Juan Diego, canonized in 2002, was the first Catholic indigenous saint from the Americas. Put a fresh flower today on your table and share the story of St. Juan Diego with a friend. Today's readings: Isaiah 48:17–19, Psalm 1:1–2, 3, 4 and 6, Matthew 11:16–19.

Saturday, December 10-Our Lady of Loreto

While lighting the first two candles on your Advent wreath today, make a commitment to continue joyful expectation during Advent. Pray the Rosary or the Magnificat and observe yourself becoming less stressful during this time of many demands from the secular world. Today's memorial remembers the birthplace of Mary, in Palestine. Today's readings: Sirach 48:1–4, 9–11; Psalm 80:2ac and 3b, 15–16, 18–19; Matthew 17:9a, 10–13.

Sacred Heart Grade School News...

Happy Advent from SHGS. We are all anxiously awaiting the coming of Jesus. Each morning we are learning about the different symbols of Christmas like the Advent wreath, the colors red and green, and Christmas trees. We were able to fill over 120 boxes of food for Clay Co. this year. It was a great year and we were able to share some of our blessings with other people. We are getting into the joy of the season by practicing songs for our Christmas programs and Gingerville. The fun is just beginning!
