PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

“We, at the Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, are a diverse community of the poor, the disadvantaged and hungry, the well-to-do, the youth, elderly, visitors and those seeking refuge.

As a community of many cultures and races, we stand for unity in our diversity by expressing our love of God the Father through prayer and worship, through service to one another, through the ministry of welcoming, through evangelization and ecumenism. With the Bishop, we shall pursue this mission faithfully through the example of Jesus Christ, the power of the Holy Spirit and the gifts and talents of our members.” All are welcome today, especially visitors, guests and those who might be new to the community.

A note from the Rector...

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Greetings on this Third Sunday of Advent.

Gaudete Sunday!

Rejoice!, we are halfway to the beautiful celebration of Christmas.

I pray you will find quiet times and peaceful places to ready yourself for the celebration of the Incarnation of Jesus. Making a smooth path between you and the Lord.

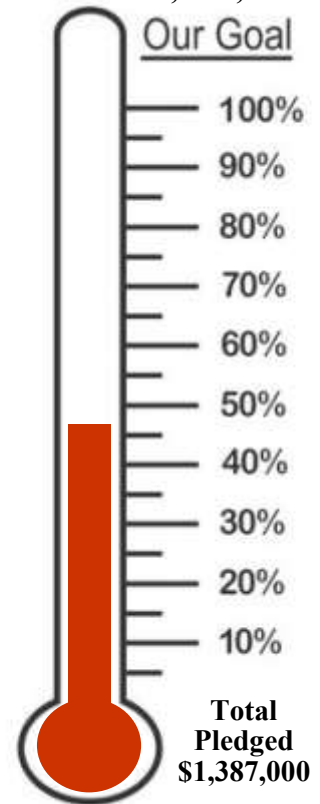

To help in this holy work, we will have Advent Vespers on Wednesday beginning at 7pm. On Thursday evening at 7pm, we will have our Advent Reconciliation Service. We will have additional priests for this healing sacrament. Please continue to make us of the daily Advent reflections provided in the bulletin.

This coming Thursday will be Msgr. Sadie's, 92nd Birthday. We thank God for the gift and blessings of his life and priestly ministry. I spoke with him this past week, he is doing well as he spends some wonderful time with his family. If you would like to send him a card, his temporary address is in this bulletin. May you have a blessed week. I remain,

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Don

Our Goal

Christmas Mass Schedule

We will celebrate the Nativity of the Lord on Christmas Eve with Mass at 4pm, 8pm, and Midnight.

There will be no 5:30pm Mass, no Eucharistic Adoration or Confession on Christmas Eve.

On Christmas Day we will have Mass at 9am & 12pm. There will be no 5pm Mass.

FYI: The weekend of January 1st, New Year's—The Solemnity of Mary, will be the regular Sunday Mass Schedule.

Sacred Heart will celebrate the 125th anniversary of the first Mass celebrated in its current location this Christmas Eve. Traditionally, parishioners gathered to decorate their sanctuary with fresh greenery cut from their own yards. We'd like to continue that tradition this year and hope that many will contribute greenery for this special Christmas celebration in our parish.

Boughs of magnolia are especially needed, as well as pine, holly, boxwood and laurel. Please cut the branches in segments no shorter than 18-inches. They will be placed during a decorating session on Wednesday, December 21, beginning at 12:30 p.m. Please drop off greenery contributions no earlier than December 17th and place them in the sacristy. If the church is locked, please leave them in the wooden crate located outside the church's back door to the sacristy.

For the greenery to be especially fresh, consider bringing it to the December 21 decorating party and lending a hand as well. Helping to adorn our sanctuary in Christmas finery is both inspiring and fun. All are welcome and no special skills are needed. The tasks are many and we'd love to have you. Contact Julie Robinson at 304-444-9517 with questions.

Sacred Heart Grade School News...

We have been very busy this week preparing our hearts for the birth of Jesus and the arrival of Christmas. Each class has heard The Legend of the Candy Cane story and enjoyed a candy cane. The story tells of the meaning of the white candy with red stripes and how it is a reminder of Jesus. Basketball teams are ramping up with practices as games will start for the first time in 2 years. Each grade is practicing for their Christmas programs and Kindergarten will be enjoying all the fun of Gingerville. It truly is a great time of year! Anne Davis, Principal

On Saturday, December 3, Charleston Catholic High School continued the annual tradition of a Christmas project in partnership with Risen Lord Church in Maysel. Food boxes were packed, stockings were stuffed, and gifts were wrapped. Approximately 250 food boxes were prepared by Sacred Heart Grade School and Charleston Catholic families, in addition to over 400 stockings and approximately 350 presents for almost 140 families. Many thanks to all who made this project a success, both in Charleston and in Clay County.

The Knights Food Drive to benefit the Risen Lord Food Pantry in Clay County will continue until Christmas. Knights will have information available after all of the masses. Please consider a donation of $17 for a Turkey or Ham or $30 for a meal [adjust for inflation if you wish]. Please make out checks to K of C 12630 and place in collection or mail to K of C/ PO Box 11578/Charleston, WV 25339. Non perishable food such as Peanut Butter, [crackers], Tuna, Canned Soup, Canned Vegetables or Fruit are welcome in the Gathering Space. Thanks to everyone who has contributed so far.

Retirement Fund for Religious Collection this weekend.

Help aging religious. Senior sisters, brothers, and religious order priests have devoted their lives to prayer, service, and works of mercy. Most ministered for little or no pay. Today, their religious communities do not have enough retirement savings. Your gift to today's Retirement Fund for Religious collection helps to furnish medications, nursing care, and other necessities. Please give generously.

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Rejoicing in the Lord

Gracious and loving God,
you are the source of all hope,
Embed your grace into our hard hearts,
and guide us to rejoice on this day.
Help us to do your will
as we repent of our willful ways.
May our deaf ears hear
the wisdom of Scripture
as we joyfully await the Lord's coming.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Be Strong, Fear Not

Today's readings: Isaiah 35:1–6a; Psalm 146:6–7, 8–9, 9–10; James 5:7–10; Matthew 11:2–11. From the rose vestment the priest may wear, to the depiction of joy in the prayers and readings, the Advent theme of rejoicing permeates the liturgy on the Third Sunday of Advent. The day is called Gaudete Sunday, “gaudete” coming from the Latin word gaudere, “to rejoice.” We hear the word rejoice in the entrance antiphon: “Rejoice in the Lord always,” and the word joy in the collect, or opening prayer. The reading from Isaiah portrays this joy, telling of the desert and the parched land rejoicing and a time when the eyes of the blind will be opened, the lame will leap, and the mute will sing.

Isaiah predicts salvation and God's victory over sickness and evil. Our “Thanks be to God” after the first reading should be emphatic, because wonderful things await us. Psalm 146 offers praise and hope as it tells how the Lord sets captives free, protects strangers, and thwarts the wicked. At this halfway point in Advent, the Letter of St. James tells us to be patient “until the coming of the Lord.”

For your Advent prayer this week, reflect on the reading from St. James, reading it in the morning or before a meal. St. James tells us not to judge another and to look to the prophets as an example of hardship and patience. The Scripture will help you center on the meaning of Advent.

THIS WEEK AT HOME

Monday, December 12

Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe

Many people began celebrating la Virgen de Guadalupe nine days ago with a novena. The novena concludes with a vigil Mass at midnight, after an evening of dancing, feasting, and celebrating Mary's appearance and miracles at Tepeyac Hill, Mexico. Mary appeared to the poor to be close to us. Today and during the coming week, find one way to be close to the Blessed Mother. Pray the Magnificat and ask Mary to intercede for people seeking asylum in the United States. Today's readings: Zechariah 2:14–17 or Revelation 11:19a, 12:1–6a, 10ab; Judith 13:18bcde, 19; and Luke 1:26–38 or Luke 1:39–47.

Tuesday, December 13

St. Lucy, Virgin and Martyr

St. Lucy is the patron saint of those who struggle with eye disease, blindness, or impaired sight. Pray today for those who are blind to their neighbor and for others who cannot "see" with eyes of faith and turn away from God. Today's readings: Zephaniah 3:1–2, 9–13; Psalm 34:2–3, 6–7, 17–18, 19, and 23; Matthew 21:28–32.

Wednesday, December 14

St. John of the Cross

St. John of the Cross was a Carmelite priest from Spain, known to his followers as a mystic and a poet. In early life he was taught by the Jesuits and the Augustinians, was influenced by the Carthusians, and finally became a spiritual follower of Teresa of Avila. An admirer of Teresa's lifestyle and spirituality, he tried to reform his Carmelite order with her guidance and mentoring. His efforts were misunderstood, though, and he suffered in prison for trying to reform the Carmelites. His "cross" was being treated unjustly. Today's readings: Isaiah 45:6c–8, 18, 21c–25; Psalm 85:9ab and 10, 11–12, 13–14; Luke 7:18b–23.

Thursday, December 15

Prepare

Advent is full of joyful events to anticipate and encounter. Not only do we become closer to God through listening to his Word but also through the songs of anticipation, the sweets we eat with thanksgiving, and the nativity scenes enacted. If we are open, the festivities during this time of year can change us, renewing us in hope for a better life and world. Prepare the way of the Lord today, joyfully. Today's readings: Isaiah 54:1–10; Psalm 30: 2 and 4, 5–6, 11–12a, 13b; Luke 7:24–30.

Friday, December 16

Beginnings

Today, Simbang Gabi, Las Posadas, and Las Parrandas celebrations begin, anticipating the nativity of Jesus. During Advent support a religious cultural celebration that is different from your experience by attending one of the celebrations. Find the celebrations through your diocesan newspaper or the parish or diocesan website. Today's readings: Isaiah 56:1–3a, 6–8; Psalm 67:2–3, 5, 7–8; John 5:33–36.

Saturday, December 17

"O" Wisdom

As Christmas nears, begin a family evening prayer consisting of the Hail Mary, Our Father, and the "O" antiphon of the day (or sing a different verse of "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel" daily). Today's antiphon is "O Wisdom, O holy Word of God, / you govern all creation with your strong yet tender care / Come and show your people the way to salvation." Invite your family to reflect on how they will look to God's wisdom during the coming week. Today's readings: Genesis 49:2, 8–10; Psalm 72:1–2, 3–4ab, 7–8, 17; Matthew 1:1–17.
