PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

“We, at the Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, are a diverse community of the poor, the disadvantaged and hungry, the well-to-do, the youth, elderly, visitors and those seeking refuge.

As a community of many cultures and races, we stand for unity in our diversity by expressing our love of God the Father through prayer and worship, through service to one another, through the ministry of welcoming, through evangelization and ecumenism. With the Bishop, we shall pursue this mission faithfully through the example of Jesus Christ, the power of the Holy Spirit and the gifts and talents of our members.” All are welcome today, especially visitors, guests and those who might be new to the community.

Please keep in your prayers Bill Monsimer who died December 17th. Our prayers and condolences for his Daughter Noelle McGucken, family and friends. Eternal rest grant to him, O Lord.

Pastoral Care is offered to all parishioners. If you would like a visit or the Eucharist brought to your home, the hospital or assisted care facility from one of our Pastoral Care SJI Sisters, you can contact Sr. Ida at 1-304-709-0026.

Congratulations and Blessings to Fr. Binu on his 4th Anniversary of Ordination to the Priesthood, December 29th.

Parishioners, for those of you interested, Fr. Binu is printing copies of his weekend homilies and leaving them in the vestibule at each Mass.

What a special month it has been at SHGS! Advent has been a time of true preparation for all of us. Our school Advent project, "Who do you say that I am?", has allowed us to begin each day reflecting on the names of Jesus in prayer with grade level created Advent wreaths to light on Monday mornings. Our preschoolers had fun preparing for Christmas with Pajama Day and Polar Express Day! Kindergarteners have been busy singing, creating artwork, and building gingerbread houses for our annual Gingerville, USA Program, held on Friday. First graders have been learning about the gift of kindness and created Whoville in preparation for Grinch Day when they all dressed up as whos! Second graders learned about the liturgical year in religion class and about physics during science class. Third graders gave "How To" presentations, fourth graders learned about invertebrates and prepared for their Christmas Drama Club presentation of "Santa and the Pirates", and fifth graders wrote personal narratives about their individually created "Ugly Christmas Sweater." Throughout December, SHGS STEM Clubs met as did the 4th grade Book Club and our strings class. First, second, and third graders prepared for our Christmas program which was held on Tuesday evening. What a wonderful musical celebration! Faculty and staff were treated to a delicious Christmas luncheon from our amazing PVA and we were also treated by the enthusiastic senior foreign language students from CCHS with caroling in Spanish and English! Many thanks to Monsieur Hoffman and Senorita Iafate for leading this talented crew! It has truly been a December to remember. The Sacred Heart Grade School community wishes each of you a merry Christmas and the happiest of New Years!

Rediscovering the Sacred Heart of Jesus in 2019

Make a New Year's Resolution now to enroll in this three part series designed to deepen our individual identity with the Sacred Heart of Jesus during 2019. This series will begin with a very basic Bible Study using the book The Sacred Heart of Jesus by Stephen J. Binz. The cost of the book is $14.00. This program will be held in the Sacred Heart Family Life Center on Quarrier Street. The program will be offered on Sunday and Tuesday Mornings from 10:15-11:30 a.m. The Sunday Program will begin on January 13 and conclude on April 7, 2019. The Tuesday program will repeat the Sunday session and begin on January 15 and conclude on April 9, 2019. If there is sufficient demand, an additional session will be added on Monday evenings from 6:00-7:15 p.m. beginning on January 14 and concluding on April 8, 2019. Preregistration is required on or before January 6, 2019. To preregister or ask any additional questions about the program, contact Bob Harrison at DRBOBWV@AOL.COM or Phone/Text 304-932-8246

PRAYER FOR A NEW BISHOP

FOR THE DIOCESE OF WHEELING-CHARLESTON

God of the Centuries, you have always guided your people by raising up leaders among us and anointing them for mission, ministry and service. Your Son called his Apostles to heal the brokenhearted and to become the first stewards and preachers of the Gospel. Hear our prayers today and through your Holy Spirit send us a Bishop, to nourish us with word and sacrament, to set a paschal banquet of charity among these West Virginia hills, to call us to mercy and justice and to kindly serve all who seek your face. We pray through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Fourth Sunday of Advent

The Abundant Gifts of the Holy Spirit

Holy Spirit, Lord and giver of life, you spoke through the prophets, and they foretold the coming of the Savior. You came upon the young virgin, and she conceived in her womb the Son of the Most High. You gave Elizabeth your gift of knowledge, and she called Mary “the mother of my Lord.” You filled John the Baptist with joy at the sound of Mary’s greeting, and he leaped in his mother’s womb. We, too, desire your transformative power in our lives. We ask you to fill us to overflowing so we may boldly proclaim the coming of Christ, give birth to him each day in our hearts, know his presence in all we meet, and rejoice in the sure knowledge that he has come among us. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sunday, December 23, 2018-The Spirit Speaks through Elizabeth

Today’s Readings: Micah 5:1–4a; Psalm 80:2–3, 15–16, 18–19; Hebrews 10:5–10; Luke 1:39–45. When we meet Elizabeth in today’s Gospel, she is caught up in astonishing events. She is carrying a child in her old age while her husband, Zechariah, has been rendered mute after questioning an angel who gave him a message that the child would be conceived.

When her relative from Nazareth comes for a visit, Elizabeth grasps that something even greater is now happening. Her baby leaps in her womb; and Elizabeth, bursting with the Holy Spirit, knows at once the news that Mary has come to tell her. She is overwhelmed that her relative has been chosen to bring to birth the promised Messiah, and she recognizes God’s abundant blessing in both Mary and this child.

Mary, who had shared the news from the angel Gabriel with Joseph alone, now hears Elizabeth’s words echoing the words of the angel. Gabriel had called Mary “favored one”; Elizabeth calls her “blessed among women.” The angel had said the child to be born would be “holy, the Son of God”; Elizabeth calls him “Lord” (Luke 1:35).

Both Gabriel and Elizabeth echo Micah’s long-ago prophecy of the Messiah: “his greatness shall reach to the ends of the earth: he shall be peace.”

With Christmas nearly here, let us welcome Christ into our hearts with the same joy that Elizabeth did, and pledge to be instruments of his peace in our families and our world.

This Week at Home

Monday, December 24-Giver of All Gifts

Our gifts are bought and ready to be presented to loved ones. David, too, wants to give a gift—a house for God. God reminds David that God is the giver of all gifts, that all David has is from him. God shows his generosity by promising David a different kind of “house”—a kingship through his descendants that will last forever. Jesus, King over all peoples, fulfills the promise. We give thanks for God’s extravagant gift of his Son. Today’s Readings: 2 Samuel 7:1–5, 8b–12, 14a, 16; Psalm 89:2–3, 4–5, 27 and 29; Luke 1:67–79.

Tuesday, December 25-The Nativity of the Lord

Finally the waiting is over and we celebrate the birth of Jesus. When you place the image of the Infant Jesus in the manger of your crèche, remember this is no ordinary child! Jesus, the Word, was present in the beginning; and the world was created through him. “And the Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us.” How blessed we are that our God desires to dwell with us. Let us rejoice that Emmanuel—God with us—is born! Today’s Readings (Mass during the Day): Isaiah 52:7–10; Psalm 98:1, 2–3, 3–4, 5–6; Hebrews 1:1–6; John 1:1–18.

Wednesday, December 26-St. Stephen, the First Martyr

Even as the Church joyfully celebrates the birth of Jesus for three more weeks, the feast of St. Stephen, the first martyr, refocuses us on the cost of discipleship. Stephen, a deacon in the early Church, was stoned by a mob while preaching the Gospel. With his dying breath, he begged God to forgive his killers. What is the cost of discipleship for us? Do you need to forgive someone who has wronged you? Today’s Readings: Acts 6:8–10, 7:54–59; Psalm 31:3cd–4, 6 and 8ab, 16bc and 17; Matthew 10:17–22.

Thursday, December 27-St. John, Apostle and Evangelist

John and his brother James were fishermen who abandoned their nets and their father when Jesus called them to follow him. Although the authorship of the Gospel of John has been debated since AD 200, many Church fathers have attributed it to the Apostle John. The “beloved disciple” mentioned several times is believed to be John himself, who rested on Jesus’ breast during the Last Supper, remained with him at the Cross, and “saw and believed” at the empty tomb. Today’s Readings: 1 John 1:1–4; Psalm 97:1–2, 5–6, 11–12; John 20:1a, 2–8.

Friday, December 28-The Holy Innocents, Martyrs

Today we remember the boys Herod slaughters when he learns that Jesus, the “newborn king,” has escaped his grasp. He cannot abide a rival king even though his own people are joyful at Jesus’ birth. When we believe someone has taken something that is rightfully ours, we too can become enraged. What a different response Jesus counsels—to turn the other cheek! Today’s Readings: 1 John 1:5–2:2; Psalm 124:2–3, 4–5, 7b–8; Matthew 2:13–18.

Saturday, December 29-Living in the Light of Christ

John juxtaposes light and darkness to compare our words with our deeds: “Whoever says he is in the light, yet hates his brother, is still in the darkness.” The Church continues to celebrate this holy Christmas Time; lights still brighten our homes and yards to welcome Christ, our Light. But do we truly live in the light? The test given by John is whether we harbor hatred for anyone. It is never too late to request or give forgiveness, to give up a grudge, to reconcile with another. Only then will we truly live in the light of Christ, whose forgiveness and mercy toward us have no bounds. Today’s Readings: 1 John 2:3–

Christmas 2nd Collection-Catholic Charities WV

If one suffers in poverty, we all suffer.

Throughout the mountain state, Catholic Charities West Virginia (CCWVa) provides vital assistance to the forgotten elderly, the hungry children and people struggling paycheck to paycheck. Annual contributions to the second collection on Christmas directly impact the amount of assistance and quality of service CCWVa provides in our service region of which your parish is a part. On a Mission of Love.

The Saints on Film Series

2:00-4:30 p.m. in the Sacred Heart Family Life Center on Quarrier Street. The Saints on Film Series is open to all members of the parish and their guests. There is no pre-registration required nor charge for this program. Jim Olson is the film facilitator.

The films are:

January 20: Of Gods and Men - Trappist Martyrs of Algiers
February 17: Restless Heart - St. Augustine.

In the Service of the Transmission of Faith

That people, who are involved in the service and transmission of faith, may find, in their dialogue with culture, a language suited to the conditions of the present time.

To all Prayer Shawl Participants: Thank you all for your lovely shawls that are given to the people who need them. We know that their healing is from our Lord and the shawl is a reminder of His healing. May God bless each and every person that this ministry has touched. We are thankful for God's mercy and blessings. Love in Christ, Wanda Dettinger

You Can Make a Difference Today

We know that Sacred Heart Parish means a lot to you and that is why you support us so generously. If you are considering a gift to the parish at the end of this year, here are two popular options that may appeal to you. These suggestions come from the West Virginia Catholic Foundation.

Give cash. In exchange for a gift of cash, you receive an income tax charitable deduction for the full value of the gift up to 50 percent of your adjusted gross income (AGI).

Donate stocks, mutual funds or real estate. Even if these types of assets have lost value, for tax purposes they are still appreciated if their current value is more than what you originally paid for them. If you've owned them for more than one year, you may deduct the full fair market value of the property up to 30 percent of your AGI. You also eliminate paying capital gains tax on the appreciation, thus reducing the out-of-pocket cost of your gift.

How to Get Your Deduction

Did you give cash? You must have a receipt from us prior to filing your return that states the date of the gift, the amount, and whether you received any goods or services in exchange for your donation. You don't need to send this to the IRS, but you do need to have it on hand when you send in your income tax return. If you write a check for less than $250, a copy of the check will suffice as a record of the gift. You should always obtain a receipt for a gift by check of $250 or more.

Did you give property? A gift of property requires a receipt, and if it is worth $250 or more, additional items are required on the receipt. For gifts of property valued at more than $500, you'll also need to include IRS Form 8283 with your tax return. And if you want to deduct more than $5,000, you'll need to obtain a qualified appraisal unless you have donated marketable securities.

If you have any questions about supporting the parish in these ways, consult with the West Virginia Catholic Foundation's Executive Director, Bryan Minor, at 304-233-0880 x263 or bminor@dwc.org. We look forward to helping you.

The information above is not intended as legal or tax advice. For such advice, please consult an attorney or tax advisor. State income/estate taxes or state law may impact your results.

THANK YOU!

Julie Robinson, Lisa Dobbins and everyone who helped decorate our beautiful Church this weekend. Your time and talent are truly appreciated by all.

Anniversary Dates in 2019 for Sacred Heart Basilica of the Co-Cathedral

In 1869 (150 years ago), the first Mass was celebrated on the grounds where our current building is located.

In 1974 (45 years ago), our name was changed to the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart.

In 2009 (10 years ago in November), we became the Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart.

Christmas Tree Blessing

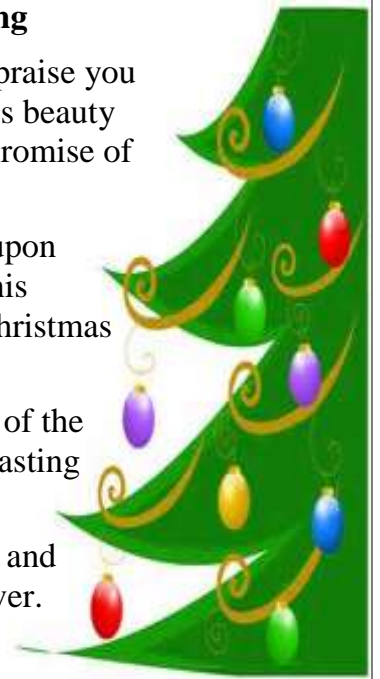

God of all creation, we praise you for this tree which brings beauty and Memories and the promise of life to our home.

May your blessings be upon all who gather around this tree, all who keep the Christmas festival by its lights.

We wait for the coming of the Christ, the days of everlasting justice and of peace.

You are our God, living and reigning, for ever and ever.

Amen.

Mount Olivet Mausoleum

Mount Olivet Catholic Cemetery, Charleston, WV

Due to the lack of space in our current mausoleum, we are planning the construction of an additional mausoleum adjacent to the present site. Our future mausoleum will provide the prestige and serenity of above-ground burial with the relaxing and comfortable environment for loved ones to visit year-round. This mausoleum will hold 180 casket spaces, which includes single and tandem crypts, and 90 niche spaces and will be nestled against an earthly rock backdrop.

To purchase or learn more about arrangements for above ground entombment or inurnment, please contact the parish office 304-342-8175, Monday - Friday, 8:30am - 4:30pm and ask to speak to Sheila Kerekes or John Blake or via email at Skerekes@shccwv.us or Jblake@shccwv.us.

USE OF CONTRIBUTION ENVELOPES

"Thank you" to parishioners who use their contribution envelopes and print clearly the amount of their contribution on the envelope.

Thanks also to those who print clearly their parish ID number on loose checks, i.e. checks not in contribution envelopes. This is helpful in identifying active parishioners requesting Sacraments and helpful to parish office staff in posting your contributions so you will have an accurate amount for tax purposes at the end of the year.

The Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston is committed to the protection of its children and young people. To report an incidence of suspected child sexual abuse, please contact your local law enforcement agency, or you may confidentially contact the West Virginia Bureau for Children and Families/Child Protective Services by calling the Child Abuse Hotline at 800.352.6513. To report suspected cases of sexual abuse by personnel of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston to the Diocese, please contact one of the Bishop's designees at 888.434.6237 (toll free) or 304.233.0880: Sister Ellen Dunn, ext. 264; Mr. Bryan Minor, ext. 263; Msgr. Frederick Annie, ext. 267, or Msgr. Anthony Cincinnati, 270. For more information on the Diocese's Office of Safe Environment, please go to www.dwc.org, then click the "Diocese" tab, then click "Office of Safe Environment"

Why Advertise in your Parish Bulletin?

1. Your message gets out weekly in about 500 bulletins x 52 weeks a year.
2. All Ads are in your choice of color.
3. You support your parish and the parish in turn supports your business.
4. Your ad can be changed as needed because all the work is done in-house.
5. All proceeds go to assist needy parish students in our schools.

We encourage parishioners to patronize our sponsors for helping to make this bulletin possible through their generosity.
