PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

“We, at the Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, are a diverse community of the poor, the disadvantaged and hungry, the well-to-do, the youth, elderly, visitors and those seeking refuge.

As a community of many cultures and races, we stand for unity in our diversity by expressing our love of God the Father through prayer and worship, through service to one another, through the ministry of welcoming, through evangelization and ecumenism. With the Bishop, we shall pursue this mission faithfully through the example of Jesus Christ, the power of the Holy Spirit and the gifts and talents of our members.” All are welcome today, especially visitors, guests and those who might be new to the community.

PRAYER FOR A NEW BISHOP

FOR THE DIOCESE OF WHEELING-CHARLESTON
 God of the Centuries, you have always guided your people by raising up leaders among us and anointing them for mission, ministry and service. Your Son called his Apostles to heal the brokenhearted and to become the first stewards and preachers of the Gospel. Hear our prayers today and through your Holy Spirit send us a Bishop, to nourish us with word and sacrament, to set a paschal banquet of charity among these West Virginia hills, to call us to mercy and justice and to kindly serve all who seek your face. We pray through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph

A Call to Prayer

God our Father, you sent your beloved Son into the world to share in our humanity. From all time, you chose the Virgin Mary to give birth to him, and placed him in a human family. With Mary, his mother, and Joseph, her husband, to nurture and care for him. Still, you called him away from them to be with you in your house to study the Scriptures and commune with his true Father. We ask you to call us too, so that, as much as we love our parents, our siblings, and our children, and desire to spend time with them, we never forget that we need to spend time with you each day, to praise you, to thank you, to pour out our hearts to you, and to ask for your guidance. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sunday, December 30, 2018-Honor Your Father and Mother

Today's Readings: Sirach 3:2–6, 12–14; Psalm 128:1–2, 3, 4–5; Colossians 3:12–21; Luke 2:41–52. When we are young and first learning the Ten Commandments, one that hits home is the Fourth Commandment: “honor your father and mother.” As we grow older, we realize that this commandment is not just about children obeying parents, but that it applies to our lives as much or more when we are adults.

The Book of Sirach, a Wisdom book from the Hebrew Scriptures, describes the goodness that comes from following this command at all stages of one's life. Sirach also defines what it means to honor: to care for, to be considerate, to be kind; and what it means not to honor: to revile or to be a cause of grief.

When Jesus' parents find him in the temple, they have great anxiety, but Jesus explains that he needs to be in his Father's house. He has not stayed at the temple to dishonor Mary and Joseph, but rather to give honor to his Father.

Why is this commandment important? What would family life be like if children, including grown children, truly honored their parents at all times? Would we become less self-centered? Would elderly people experience less loneliness? What example would our children see?

This Week at Home

Monday, December 31-A New Beginning

On this last day of the year, our thoughts turn to resolutions for the new year. We can always think of areas of our life where we need to start over, and can look for ways to walk more closely with the Lord. Perhaps you could occasionally serve a meal at a homeless shelter, since this is a need every day of the year. How is the Lord asking you to serve his people this year? Today's Readings: 1 John 2:18–21; Psalm 96:1–2, 11–12, 13; John 1:1–18.

Tuesday, January 1, 2019-Mary, the Holy Mother of God

Today we honor the Mother of God—and our mother—and recall her essential role in salvation history. The Gospel finds her after the visit of the shepherds, keeping “all these things, reflecting on them in her heart.” Her prayer and reflection give her strength for the joyful and sorrowful days ahead. We can follow her example so that when sad times come, we have trust that God will bring good from them. Today's Readings: Numbers 6:22–27; Psalm 67:2–3, 5, 6, 8; Galatians 4:4–7; Luke 2:16–21.

Wednesday, January 2-Sts. Basil the Great and Gregory Nazianzen

John's letter warns early Christians not to be deceived by false teachings. Fourth-century friends Sts. Basil and Gregory Nazianzen had a deep life of prayer lived out in a monastery and also served as bishops. Eloquent speakers, they discredited a heresy common in their day. Years of prayer deepened their relationship with the Lord and kept them from being deceived. Prayer and study of the Scriptures help us come to know God and his truth. Today's Readings: 1 John 2:22–28; Psalm 98:1, 2–3ab, 3cd–4; John 1:19–28.

Thursday, January 3-The Most Holy Name of Jesus

John the Baptist calls Jesus “Lamb of God” and “Son of God.” Gabriel tells Mary his name will be Jesus (meaning “Yahweh saves,” Luke 1:31), Son of the Most High, Ruler forever. An angel tells Joseph in a dream that Jesus will be Emmanuel (which means “God is with us,” Matthew 1:18–23). We are grateful to know these names, which help us to know the One they signify. The name of Jesus is itself a powerful prayer, always to be uttered with reverence and awe. Today's Readings: 1 John 2:29—3:6; Psalm 98:1, 3cd–4, 5–6; John 1:29–34.

Friday, January 4-St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, Religious

Soon after Jesus invites Andrew to stay with him, Andrew calls his brother Simon, saying he has found the Messiah. New Yorker Elizabeth Ann Seton embraced the Catholic Church, much to the chagrin of her family, after attending Mass while visiting Italy. A young widow with five children, she shared Jesus by opening the first American Catholic parish school and establishing a religious community. How are you being invited to “stay” with Jesus? Have you found the Messiah? How do you share him with others? Today's Readings: 1 John 3:7–10; Psalm 98:1, 7–8, 9; John 1:35–42.

Saturday, January 5-St. John Neumann, Bishop

Jesus continues to call Apostles in the Gospel, and still calls today. John Neumann heard that call and came to America as a missionary. Ordained a priest in New York, he ministered to immigrants in New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Maryland. As the first American member of the Redemptorist order, he longed for a life of prayer in community. Instead, he was named bishop of Philadelphia, where he opened one hundred Catholic schools. He once took a vow never to waste a moment of time—quite an examination of conscience for us! Today's Readings: 1 John 3:11–21; Psalm 100:1b–2, 3, 4, 5; John 1:43–51.

The Gospel of Luke

If asked to name their favorite story from the Bible, most Christians would probably choose something from the Gospel of Luke. These stories are indeed unforgettable, and the Christian tradition is graced by this gospel from Luke's hand. It is the only one of the four gospels to describe the angel's annunciation of the coming birth of Jesus to Mary, and the visit of the shepherds at his birth; it is the only one to tell the parables of the Good Samaritan, of the prodigal son, and of the rich man and Lazarus; it is the only gospel to relate the story of Jesus and the disciples on the road to Emmaus after the resurrection. In addition to that, Luke's Christmas story is proclaimed by Linus on the Charlie Brown Christmas special!

Archeologists and textual experts usually date the writing of the Gospel of Luke to around 80 CE. One piece of evidence that helps with the dating is that the gospel contains nearly all of Mark, and from this we know that it was composed after 70 CE (about when Mark was written). In addition to having Mark as a source, the Gospel of Luke shares a large chunk of material with Matthew, material that appears neither in Mark nor in John. From this we assume that there was another source for Luke, one that he and the writer of Matthew used together. Luke also had a source of information that only he used.

The evangelist Luke is also the author of the Acts of the Apostles, which is, in a sense, the second part to the gospel. This is evident from the very polished Greek of these two books, but more specifically, from the fact that both books are addressed to Theophilus, a fellow believer. (See Luke 1:3 and Acts 1:1.) Luke's contribution, therefore, makes up more than one-quarter of the second testament.

The portrait of Jesus in the Gospel of Luke is of an itinerant prophet who is attracted to the poor and the outcast. He explains that his ministry is to them, and he envisions the heavenly banquet as filled with the poor and disenfranchised. The evangelist draws powerful portraits of despised members of the society, and much of the wonder of this compelling gospel is in its address to sinners.

The Gospel of Luke is proclaimed in Year C, the years 1998, 2001, 2004, 2007 and so on. In art, the evangelist Luke is portrayed with a bull by his side. The feast of Saint Luke is October 18.

You Can Make a Difference Today

We know that Sacred Heart Parish means a lot to you and that is why you support us so generously. If you are considering a gift to the parish at the end of this year, here are two popular options that may appeal to you. These suggestions come from the West Virginia Catholic Foundation.

Give cash. In exchange for a gift of cash, you receive an income tax charitable deduction for the full value of the gift up to 50 percent of your adjusted gross income (AGI).

Donate stocks, mutual funds or real estate. Even if these types of assets have lost value, for tax purposes they are still appreciated if their current value is more than what you originally paid for them. If you've owned them for more than one year, you may deduct the full fair market value of the property up to 30 percent of your AGI. You also eliminate paying capital gains tax on the appreciation, thus reducing the out-of-pocket cost of your gift.

How to Get Your Deduction

Did you give cash? You must have a receipt from us prior to filing your return that states the date of the gift, the amount, and whether you received any goods or services in exchange for your donation. You don't need to send this to the IRS, but you do need to have it on hand when you send in your income tax return. If you write a check for less than $250, a copy of the check will suffice as a record of the gift. You should always obtain a receipt for a gift by check of $250 or more.

Did you give property? A gift of property requires a receipt, and if it is worth $250 or more, additional items are required on the receipt. For gifts of property valued at more than $500, you'll also need to include IRS Form 8283 with your tax return. And if you want to deduct more than $5,000, you'll need to obtain a qualified appraisal unless you have donated marketable securities.

If you have any questions about supporting the parish in these ways, consult with the West Virginia Catholic Foundation's Executive Director, Bryan Minor, at 304-233-0880 x263 or bminor@dwc.org. We look forward to helping you.

Mount Olivet Mausoleum

Mount Olivet Catholic Cemetery, Charleston, WV

Due to the lack of space in our current mausoleum, we are planning the construction of an additional mausoleum adjacent to the present site. Our future mausoleum will provide the prestige and serenity of above-ground burial with the relaxing and comfortable environment for loved ones to visit year-round. This mausoleum will hold 180 casket spaces, which includes single and tandem crypts, and 90 niche spaces and will be nestled against an earthly rock backdrop.

To purchase or learn more about arrangements for above ground entombment or inurnment, please contact the parish office 304-342-8175, Monday - Friday, 8:30am - 4:30pm and ask to speak to Sheila Kerekes or John Blake or via email at Skerekes@shccwv.us or Jblake@shccwv.us.
