A note from the Rector...

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Greetings on the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Last week as the Church gathered for the Funeral Mass of Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI, I joined them by way of TV at 3:30am.

It was a beautiful and simple funeral as requested by the late Pope. I offer you today a few of my favorite quotes from this wonderful servant of the Lord.

"If we let Christ into our lives, we lose nothing, nothing, absolutely nothing of what makes life free, beautiful and great. No, only in this friendship are doors of life opened wide. Only in this friendship is the great potential of human existence truly revealed."

"Each of us is the result of a thought of God. Each of us is willed. Each of us is loved. Each of us is necessary"

"Many people perceive Christianity as something institutional rather than as an encounter with Christ-which explains why they don't see it as source of joy"

and Lastly for this Sunday,

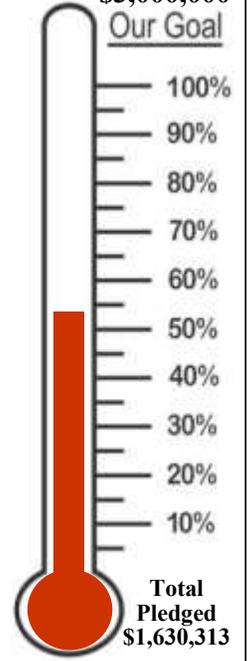

"What does Sunday, the Day of the Lord, mean for us? It is a day for rest and for family, but first, all day for Him"

Let us pray for his soul and the soul of all the departed. May they rest in peace. May your Sunday, the Day of the Lord, be one of rest and time with your family and all day for the Lord. I remain,

In Christ,
Fr. Don

A note from Msgr. Sadie...

Sacred Heart Parish's friend and my colleague in ministry, Rabbi Victor Urecki, is at Cleveland Clinic to resolve an ongoing heart issue. Surgery was scheduled for last Friday and was successful, so we give thanks, and keep him in our prayers for a speedy recovery.

I might add, we Christians need to remember that the Our Father is a Semetic Prayer, composed by Jesus, a Jewish Rabbi, taught to His followers in Luke's Gospel 11:2-4 and to the Jewish crowd in Matthew's Gospel 6:9-13

Sacred Heart Grade School News...

It's been a busy week. The first graders are learning at Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and his dream of equality for everyone. Fourth graders are watching mealworms go through all the stages of their life cycle. Fifth graders learned how to draw atoms with the correct number of protons, neutrons, and electrons. There is a great deal of learning happening in our school! Spread the word that our Open House for prospective families is Tuesday, January 31, 2023, from 6:00pm-7:00 pm. Thank you and have a great week! Anne Davis, Principal

Catholic Schools in West Virginia are finalizing plans to celebrate National Catholic Schools Week.

Principals, staff, and volunteers in the 24 Catholic schools - 18 grade schools and six high schools – are working together to showcase our exceptional schools, said Mary Ann Deschaine, Ed.S., Superintendent of WV Catholic Schools.

“Our schools provide an environment that is an extension of our family,” she said. “We are committed to providing a quality education that is unapologetically Catholic in nature. Lessons in Catholic faith are integrated into all subject areas and activities. With a steadfast focus on our faith, we trust God, through his son Jesus Christ, will continue to guide us to help our children reach their full potential.”

While academic excellence is a priority proven with proficiency assessments remaining above national and state averages (according to the US Department of Education National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) and the National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP), nurturing the whole child for college and career readiness in a Christ-centered environment is the mission of the Catholic Schools of West Virginia. “Our priority is our students, our privilege is supporting our families, and our commitment is to continually improve our schools as we look to the future,” Deschaine said. “Through individual and critical thinking; strong self-esteem; empathy; citizenship; and a sound moral foundation all in a Christ-centered environment, each of our 24 schools prepare our students to be the best version of themselves, so they can confidently share their God-given gifts and talents.”

All 24 schools across the state will host a variety of activities for their students and the community. Catholic Schools Week is a great time to schedule a tour or shadow day at the school if you are considering enrolling your child, grandchild, or loved one. Contact your local school to schedule, and ask them about their celebrations you can attend, such as athletic events, academic fairs, choral concerts, community service projects, school Mass, and more.

For more information contact your local Catholic school. For a complete listing go to: <https://wvcatholicschools.org>.

From our music director...

A Joyful Psalm #73: Psalm 40

With several young kids in the house, I constantly hear, "Daddy, come play with us!" And so, I go down to their level – often on the floor – and play with Legos and Barbies. Pope Francis has said that parents should get down on the floor and "waste time with their children, so that they know that love is always free." It's not that I enjoy playing with Legos and Barbies. Rather, I love my children, so I go down to their level. This is very much like our relationship with God. He comes down to our level.

All religion is man's search for God. Christianity is unique, as it is God's search for man. He is constantly seeking us. In the psalm response this weekend, we hear, "I have waited, waited for the LORD, and he stooped toward me and heard my cry." (Ps.40:2) The New Testament presents for us a literal demonstration of God coming down to us: Jesus Christ becoming the Incarnate Son of God. The Gospel Acclamation verse states, "The Word of God became flesh and dwelt among us." (Jn 1:14)

Go home and get on the floor with your kids and grandkids. Or, as Saint Mother Teresa says, "You want to change the world? Go home and love your family."

ORDINARY TIME (Winter)

Ordinary Time

Ordinary Time, the longest season of the Church year, fills the weeks that do not celebrate a specific aspect of the mystery of Christ (Universal Norms on the Liturgical Year and the General Roman Calendar, 43). It's the no-particular-reason season. Christmas Time honors the birth of Christ. Easter Time rejoices in the Resurrection. Ordinary Time is devoted to the mystery of Christ in all its aspects.

The number of the weeks of Ordinary Time replaces the old counting of weeks "after Epiphany" and "after Pentecost." The old calendar suggested that Pentecost ran for six months. The new calendar gives Pentecost a day. Then we return to Ordinary Time.

At first glance, the principles of Ordinary Time seem basic enough. Start counting the weeks after Christmas Time. Break for Lent and Easter. Resume after Pentecost and keep counting until Advent. Basically, that's how it works. But we have a few quirks. For example, there is no "First Sunday in Ordinary Time"; however, there is a first week. Usually Christmas Time ends on a Sunday with the Baptism of the Lord. The lectionary also calls it the First Sunday in Ordinary Time, but it is part of Christmas Time. (Some years the Baptism of the Lord falls on a Monday, but that's another story.) Ordinary Time gets underway on a weekday. When the next Sunday rolls around, we start week two.

On the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday, we see the last of Ordinary Time until after Pentecost. Even then, it emerges only on weekdays. Trinity Sunday always follows Pentecost Sunday, and the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of the Lord comes the next Sunday in the United States. (In countries where this solemnity is a holyday, it falls on a Thursday.) Therefore, when the numbered Sundays in Ordinary Time return in summer, we start out a little higher than where we left off.

Sometimes we skip one or two entire weeks of Ordinary Time during the Easter break. We want to close the Sundays of the year with Christ the King, one week before Advent. Christ the King always falls on the Thirty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time. So, we determine the week number after Pentecost not based on where we left off before Lent, but by counting backwards from Christ the King. One or two weeks may disappear, but Ordinary Time still serves the complete mystery of Christ.
