PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

“We, at the Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, are a diverse community of the poor, the disadvantaged and hungry, the well-to-do, the youth, elderly, visitors and those seeking refuge.

As a community of many cultures and races, we stand for unity in our diversity by expressing our love of God the Father through prayer and worship, through service to one another, through the ministry of welcoming, through evangelization and ecumenism. With the Bishop, we shall pursue this mission faithfully through the example of Jesus Christ, the power of the Holy Spirit and the gifts and talents of our members.” All are welcome today, especially visitors, guests and those who might be new to the community.

A note from the Rector...

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Greetings on this Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time!

Happy Catholic Schools Week!

Because of a very sudden pastoral need, Bishop Brennan has appointed Fr. Dominic Athishu administrator of the Churches in Preston County, St. Sebastian Parish, Kingwood, St. Zita Mission, Masontown, and St. Edward the Confessor, Terra Alta effective February 8th. Fr. Dominic will be leaving us next Sunday after the Noon Mass. We will have a reception for him after the first four Masses next weekend giving us an opportunity to thank Fr. Dominic for his priestly ministry with us. Please pray for him as he takes on the responsibilities of three faith communities.

At this time, I am not sure when we will be assigned a new Associate Rector. I have been informed not to expect an associate anytime soon, so in light of this delay, starting February 6th, the weekday Mass schedule will be as follows, Monday 8:15 am, Tuesday no Mass, Wednesday & Thursday 12:00 pm, Friday 8:15 am, 12:00 PM Mass canceled, and Saturday morning no 8:15 am Mass. I will dialogue with members of our parish pastoral council and you to explore adjustments to our weekend Mass Schedule. More information next weekend.

This week we celebrate Catholic Schools Week. According to a "brief history" from our parish directory of 2005, our parish began a school in 1866. Our parish school had a number of starts and stops until 1903 when the Franciscan Sisters of Penance and Christian Charity of Stella Niagara reopened our Catholic school. It was in 1920 that the grade school was built which is now called Seton Hall. In 1927, the property of J. E. Chilton at 1108 Virginia Street was used as the Sacred Heart High School until 1940. In 1941 our new high school building was built and renamed Charleston Catholic High School. Our current Sacred Heart Grade school was built in 1962. The Sacred Heart Early Learning Center was built in 2012. Due to the very gracious generosity of parishioners, past and present, millions of dollars have been spent on enlarging and improving the buildings over the years. These considerable investments have assured that we have been able to provide excellent educational programs. Our teachers and the parents of our students have also greatly invested through their sacrifice in the mission and life of our schools. A number of religious women's and men's orders have served our schools over the years with great apostolic zeal.

As we celebrate our Catholic Schools this week, let us pray that our schools will continue to be places where faith, excellence and service are taught and experienced.

May those who graduate from our schools leave with an appreciation and deep understanding of our Catholic Faith and know of their lifelong responsibility to serve the needs of the world.

May you have safe and blessed week. I remain,

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Don

From our music director...

A Joyful Psalm #75: Psalm 146

The readings this weekend are all about humility. But what does it mean to be humble? Humble is from the Latin, Humilis, which means, "on the ground/earth."

In the First Reading we read: "Seek the LORD, all you humble of the earth, who have observed his law; seek justice, seek humility." (Zeph 2:3) In the Second Reading, Saint Paul writes: "God chose the lowly and despised of the world, those who count for nothing." (1 Cor 1:28) Finally, in the Gospel Reading and Psalm Response, God describes those who will attain heaven: "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."

As Catholics, being humble means that we must admit our wrongdoings (sins) and bring them to the Lord (both privately and in Confession). We must lay our faces down on the ground before Him in true humility. Only then will the kingdom of heaven be ours!

Mark Haas, Director of Music

There will be a full day Rosary Pilgrimage at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, DC on Saturday, September 30, 2023. The Pilgrimage is hosted by the Dominican Friars of the Province of St. Joseph. Information on the Pilgrimage is beside the rosary baskets located at the back of the Church or in the Gathering Space. WV Catholic Schools Continue to be High Achieving

As West Virginia Catholic school students continue to outperform their public-school counterparts on the state and national levels, Catholic school administrators are aiming to do even better.

This fall the U.S. Department of Education National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) reported public schools' standardized assessments are "appalling and unacceptable." While education experts attribute increasing rates in decline as a snowball effect to the COVID-19 pandemic, Catholic school administrators are able to tout steady increases in student achievement. During and since the pandemic Catholic schools in West Virginia have been able to continue to move forward instead of catching up.

NCES and The National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP), a congressionally authorized project sponsored by the U.S. Department of Education, reported that math and reading results for the nation are down, and like many of the states, West Virginia's public school scores are lower than the national average. Meanwhile Catholic schools scores remain higher than the state and national averages according to the Nation's Report Card reported by NAEP.

"Private and Catholic schools are expected to outperform public schools, so that is not the grabbing headline, but what is important to highlight is that when we faced a crisis situation, we were ready from the top down to quickly work together to problem solve – turn a challenge into an opportunity, because we did that and continue to do so – our students have not fallen through the cracks," Superintendent of Catholic Schools in West Virginia Mary Ann Deschaine, Ed.S. said. "Our principals and teachers turned on a dime to provide lessons remotely, while reaching out to our students and families to monitor progress and their well-being. We responded without hesitation and then put our heads together on how to safely get back into the classroom as soon as possible."

It was that swift and decisive faith filled decision making to prioritize our students' academic progress, as well as mental and physical health that set them apart, she said.

"We are not perfect, nor do we pretend to be, but with a steadfast focus on our faith we trust God will continue to guide us to help our children reach their full potential," Deschaine said. To learn more about Catholic education in West Virginia go to: <https://wvcatholicschools.org>.

Sacred Heart Grade School News...

This week was "the calm before the crazy". Kindergarten celebrated the letter C on Friday with Crazy Hair & Cap day. It is all leading up to Catholic Schools Week which starts on Sunday, January 29! It will be a fun week.

The winner of the Aquinas Medal for SHGS was announced on Friday, January 27 at the school Mass. This year's winner is Brody Chapman. Congratulations, Brody!! We are so proud of you!

SHGS will be participating in the national celebration of Catholic Schools week this week. Each day will have various themes and celebrations. The students will be bringing in items for the Kanawha-Charleston Humane Society and will also be making blankets for The WV Kids Cancer Crusade that will be distributed to children in hospitals undergoing treatment for cancer. We will also be bringing in Pennies for People. That money will be donated to The Gabriel Project and the victims of the apartment fire.

Catholic Schools Week-CCHS

This week, January 29- February 4, marks Catholic Schools Week, a national celebration when we recognize the blessings that our Catholic schools are in our lives and in our communities. This year's theme of "Faith. Excellence. Service." highlights some of the hallmarks of Charleston Catholic High School. Our longstanding tradition of academic excellence provides our students with foundations to be successful when they move on to the next level. Our robust theology program enables students to be thoughtful, faith-filled people who support others on their faith journeys. The Charleston Catholic mission statement encourages us to make the world a better place which we strive to do through service to our neighbors.

We will celebrate this week by supporting six local agencies that make an impact in our community. Additionally, we will celebrate the students and teachers at Charleston Catholic during our school days. During this week, please keep the Charleston Catholic High School community in your prayers as we strive to grow deeper in faith while we serve others and pursue excellence in our endeavors.
