PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

“We, at the Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, are a diverse community of the poor, the disadvantaged and hungry, the well-to-do, the youth, elderly, visitors and those seeking refuge.

As a community of many cultures and races, we stand for unity in our diversity by expressing our love of God the Father through prayer and worship, through service to one another, through the ministry of welcoming, through evangelization and ecumenism. With the Bishop, we shall pursue this mission faithfully through the example of Jesus Christ, the power of the Holy Spirit and the gifts and talents of our members.” All are welcome today, especially visitors, guests and those who might be new to the community.

The Pope's Monthly Intention

March-For Families in Crisis

Let us pray that broken families might discover the cure for their wounds through forgiveness, rediscovering each other's gifts, even in their differences.

Sacred Heart Gift Shop is open after each Mass and is generally opened prior to the 10:30 Mass. We have gifts for every occasion. In addition to gifts, we keep in stock a variety of rosaries, medals, automobile visor medals as well as bike medals and holy cards. Children's books and coloring books are also available. If you can't find what you are looking for, we can order it for you.

A note from the Rector...

Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Lord,

Greetings on this 1st Sunday of Lent!

This Sunday, Bishop Mark will be at the Basilica to celebrate the Rite of Election for the Catechumens who are preparing to be received into our Church through the Sacrament of Baptism at the Easter Vigil. Our Bishop will also celebrate the Rite of Continuing Conversion for those who are already Baptized and wishing to enter our Church. With Joy, our Bishop will call them to the Easter Sacraments. Please keep them in your prayers.

To help in your journey of Lent, I call to mind a number of events to help us journey as individuals, as a family and parish community. Please make use of the Daily Lenten Reflections in our weekly bulletin along with information about our Adult Formation Program, "No Greater Love", and join us in praying the Rosary for the Intention of Pope Francis' healing and for the Stations of the Cross on Fridays of Lent beginning at 5pm.

Next weekend Tim White from Barlow Bonsall will be at all the Masses to discuss the new Mausoleum being built at Mt. Olivet Catholic Cemetery, see the information in this bulletin.

Please keep Pope Francis in your daily prayers. Our Holy Father continues to show signs of slight improvement, may the Lord's healing power be with him. I remain,

In Christ,
Fr. Don

Prayer for Pope Francis for Healing

Heavenly Father, we thank You for the loving service of Pope Francis and the hope he has inspired in so many through Your great mercy. We pray for Your mercy on him during his illness and ask that You guide the medical staff caring for him. Please grant him peace and healing.

Through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

LENTEN GUIDELINES FOR ALL CATHOLICS

Fasting is to be observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday by everyone 18 years and older, who has not yet celebrated their 59th birthday. On a fast day, one full meal is allowed. Two other meals, enough to maintain strength, may be taken, according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but consuming liquids, including milk and juices, is allowed. Abstinence is observed by everyone 14 years of age or older. On days of abstinence, no meat is allowed. Note that when health or the ability to work is affected, the law does not apply. Ash Wednesday, all the Fridays during Lent, and Good Friday are days of abstinence. If a person is unable to observe the above regulations due to ill health or other serious reasons, other suitable forms of self-denial are encouraged.

Lent at the Basilica

- Regular Sunday and Weekday Schedule
- Friday's during Lent: Starting March 7th Members of the Christian Service Committee will Pray the Rosary at 5:00 pm, followed by Stations of the Cross at 5:30.

Please keep in your prayers Keith Calhoun Smith, who died March 2nd, 2025. Our prayers and condolences for his wife Mary Jo, his family and friends. Eternal rest grant to him, O Lord.

Please keep in your prayers Kathleen McA ndrews, who died February 25th. Our prayers and condolences for her Mother Suzette Gallagher and brother Fr. Thomas Gallagher, family and friends. Eternal rest grant to her, O Lord.

Priests Health & Retirement Association (PHRA) Collection March 23, 2025

A special second collection is scheduled for March 23, 2025, to support the Priests' Health and Retirement Association (PHRA), a fund that provides health insurance and retirement benefits to retired priests of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston. Please take a moment to reflect on the many years of service by our priests and how we can take this opportunity to thank them in a very particular way with a gift to the PHRA collection.

Forgiveness and Hope After Abortion

Did fear and shame lead you or someone you know to have an abortion? Or you felt as if you had no other choice? Are you seeking comfort from welcoming, non-judgmental people to help you through your sadness and guilt? We invite you to make a confidential call to Project Rachel Ministry where you can connect with others who understand and can help. You're not alone anymore. Peace starts here at Project Rachel Ministry: <https://www.usccb.org/topics/project-rachel-ministry>.

WE NEED YOU!

Please consider joining a ministry to assist at Mass as a Reader, Eucharist Minister, Usher, or Altar Server. We are also in need of adult Altar Servers for funerals.

Your involvement is important to the life of the parish and enriches your life as well.

Training takes just a few minutes of your time. Contact Fr. Don at dhiggs@dwc.org or 304-685-2367 or call the parish office at 304-342-8175

A Lenten Reflection from Bishop Brennan

Dear fellow pilgrims in faith,

In just a few days it will be Ash Wednesday, the beginning of the season of Lent which our Church has observed since the early centuries to prepare for the annual commemoration of our Lord's death and resurrection by which we have been saved. This year Lent takes place in what Pope Francis has designated as a Jubilee Year of Hope.

The virtue of hope fits perfectly in the Lenten framework, because this season calls us to turn from our sinful habits and to be renewed in our faith, goals which move us to pray and hope for God's help. With hopeful and trusting hearts, we open our ears in Lent to hear once again Jesus' call: Repent and believe the Good News.

Sin is the great barrier between us and God, for He made us to be good, not bad. But, like parents who love the children who sometimes disobey them, our heavenly Father loves us so much that He sent His Son to be the propitiation or satisfaction for our sins so that we might no longer be burdened by them. The forgiveness of our sins which Jesus Christ obtained by his sacrifice on the cross makes us eligible for the grace of a true renewal of our lives on earth and for the ultimate gift of eternal life.

There are people who think that their sins are unforgivable. They give up asking for God's forgiveness because they think He will never forgive them. Some women who have had abortions think this and men, too, who have pushed women to abort or have assisted or acquiesced in an abortion. But abortion is not an unforgivable sin, though a truly evil act it is. My years of counseling post-abortive women and men have convinced me that they can move from remorse and repentance to healing and peace. If you or a loved one is in that situation, trust that the Lord's words are true: Father, forgive them and I have come that they may have life and have it more abundantly.

There are other people who are content to live a morally and spiritually mediocre life, instead of wanting to have the image of God in which they are made glow brightly. What a waste! Don't let Ash Wednesday be a ritual with no meaning. Resolve to look at yourself honestly and ask God's assistance to overcome your sins. A sincere confession of sins is a great help. Then, form a plan to overcome the sins that trouble you the most. The Holy Spirit will enlighten you and a priest or any wise friend might offer good advice. Aided by God's grace, you can become the good and loving person God made you to be. Let the ashes on your forehead symbolize your desire to burn away sin so that new life, like the phoenix of ancient lore, may rise from the ashes.

This is my hope for you. I pray that it is your hope for yourself. Let us journey together toward Easter, hopeful and every day stronger in faith and love.

Sincerely in Christ,
+Mark E. Brennan
Bishop of Wheeling-Charleston

1st Sunday of Lent

Our Refuge, Our Fortress

God our Refuge, you liberate us. As you delivered the Israelites, you deliver us. God our Fortress, be with us in times of trouble: bring us peace to know the Word is near us, strengthen us to profess that Jesus is Lord; and grant us courage to know in our hearts the resurrection of the Lord. We call upon you, God our Liberator: enrich us! Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sunday, March 9, 2025-Be with Me, Lord

Today's readings: Deuteronomy 26:4-10; Psalm 91:1-2, 10-11, 12-13, 14-15; Romans 10:8-13; Luke 4:1-13. Today, we hear Moses and the Israelites pray as they offer the first fruits of their harvest. They recount their oppression at the hands of the Egyptians and express that, in their struggle, they turned to the Lord. God brought them out of Egypt to a "land flowing with milk and honey" and, in gratitude and awe, the Israelites bow down before the Lord.

On this First Sunday of Lent, there is much we can learn from the Israelites and apply to our Lenten journey. Let us turn to the Lord when we struggle, knowing that he hears our cry and sees our affliction, toil, and oppression. What are some ways you can turn to God, our refuge and fortress, when you are troubled? Consider writing a prayer for when you find yourself struggling this Lenten season. For inspiration for the prayer, look to today's psalm: "Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble. / My refuge and fortress, my God in whom I trust."

After their deliverance, the Israelites set the first fruits of their harvest down before the Lord and "bow down in his presence." In this season of dying to ourselves to grow closer to God, let us detach ourselves from the gifts we have been given and return them to God in praise. What are some ways you can recognize God's presence daily? Consider ending your days with a prayer in gratitude, for we know that God raised Jesus from the dead, and we "will be saved."

This Week at Home

Monday, March 10-Lord, When Did I Serve You?

Almsgiving during Lent is often solely thought of as donating money to those who are impoverished. This is a partial understanding of almsgiving; during Lent, we are also called to give of our time, performing acts of charity and serving others. Today, set aside time to pray with the Gospel. Contemplate how you might feed the hungry, clothe the naked, care for the ill, or visit the imprisoned. Commit to an act of service, and schedule a time to serve this week. Today's readings: Leviticus 19:1-2, 11-18; Psalm 19:8, 9, 10, 15; Matthew 25:31-46.

Tuesday, March 11-Do Not Babble

Jesus warns the disciples not to babble when they pray. Today, spend time in silence, just you and God. Begin by praying the Our Father. It may be easy to breeze past this prayer we hear often, so spend time sitting with the words. What stands out to you? Share this in conversation with God. End your prayer with a phrase of gratitude. Today's readings: Isaiah 55:10-11; Psalm 34:4-5, 6-7, 16-17, 18-19; Matthew 6:7-15.

Wednesday, March 12-A Clean Heart

Though we are part of a different generation than the crowd gathered around Jesus in today's Gospel, much evil is still in our generation. Consider how you might repent and condemn the evil you encounter. If you are able, make plans to go to confession sometime this week. Pray with today's psalm, focusing on the request to God: "Have mercy on me, O God, in your goodness; / in the greatness of your compassion, wipe out my offense. / Thoroughly wash me from my guilt and of my sin cleanse me. / A clean heart create for me, O God, / and a steadfast spirit renew within me." Today's readings: Jonah 3:1-10; Psalm 51:3-4, 12-13, 18-19; Luke 11:29-32.

Thursday, March 13-Come to Help

In today's first reading, we hear Esther cry out to the Lord for help. The psalmist praised the Lord, for he answers our prayers. Today, instead of lifting up your petitions to God, shift your attention to the needs of others. Who is crying out in anguish in your community? How can you work with the Lord to answer their call for help? Today's readings: Esther C:12, 14-16, 23-25; Psalm 138:1-2ab, 2cde-3, 7c-8; Matthew 7:7-12.

Friday, March 14-Be Reconciled

Jesus reminds his disciples that reconciliation is crucial to living out our faith. In today's first reading, the prophet Ezekiel calls us to reflect: "Is it my [the Lord's] way that is unfair, or rather, are not your ways unfair?" Today, reflect on a relationship you have with someone you may have hurt. Write an apology down. Bring your reflection to confession, the person to whom you are apologizing, or both. Today's readings: Ezekiel 18:21-28; Psalm 130:1-2, 3-4, 5-7a, 7bc-8; Matthew 5:20-26.

Saturday, March 15-Love Your Enemy

It is easy to love those who love us. Today, we hear Jesus challenge his disciples to turn to those who persecute them and love them. As Christians, we are called to do the same—even when it is difficult to do so, we are called to love others. If you are able, go to daily Mass today. Spend time praying for someone who has hurt you. Ask God for the strength to let go of your hurt and for the grace to love even those who have hurt us. Today's readings: Deuteronomy 26:16-19; Psalm 119:1-2, 4-5, 7-8; Matthew 5:43-48.
