“We, at the Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, are a diverse community of the poor, the disadvantaged and hungry, the well-to-do, the youth, elderly, visitors and those seeking refuge.

As a community of many cultures and races, we stand for unity in our diversity by expressing our love of God the Father through prayer and worship, through service to one another, through the ministry of welcoming, through evangelization and ecumenism. With the Bishop, we shall pursue this mission faithfully through the example of Jesus Christ, the power of the Holy Spirit and the gifts and talents of our members.” All are welcome today, especially visitors, guests and those who might be new to the community.

March-For Families in Crisis

Let us pray that broken families might discover the cure for their wounds through forgiveness, rediscovering each other's gifts, even in their differences.

In addition to gifts, we keep in stock a variety of rosaries, medals, automobile visor medals as well as bike medals and holy cards. Children's books and coloring books are also available. If you can't find what you are looking for, we can order it for you.

LENTEN GUIDELINES FOR ALL CATHOLICS

Fasting is to be observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday by everyone 18 years and older, who has not yet celebrated their 59th birthday. On a fast day, one full meal is allowed. Two other meals, enough to maintain strength, may be taken, according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but consuming liquids, including milk and juices, is allowed. Abstinence is observed by everyone 14 years of age or older. On days of abstinence, no meat is allowed. Note that when health or the ability to work is affected, the law does not apply. Ash Wednesday, all the Fridays during Lent, and Good Friday are days of abstinence. If a person is unable to observe the above regulations due to ill health or other serious reasons, other suitable forms of self-denial are encouraged.

A Lenten Reflection from Bishop Brennan

Dear fellow pilgrims in faith,

In just a few days it will be Ash Wednesday, the beginning of the season of Lent which our Church has observed since the early centuries to prepare for the annual commemoration of our Lord's death and resurrection by which we have been saved. This year Lent takes place in what Pope Francis has designated as a Jubilee Year of Hope.

The virtue of hope fits perfectly in the Lenten framework, because this season calls us to turn from our sinful habits and to be renewed in our faith, goals which move us to pray and hope for God's help. With hopeful and trusting hearts, we open our ears in Lent to hear once again Jesus' call: Repent and believe the Good News.

Sin is the great barrier between us and God, for He made us to be good, not bad. But, like parents who love the children who sometimes disobey them, our heavenly Father loves us so much that He sent His Son to be the propitiation or satisfaction for our sins so that we might no longer be burdened by them. The forgiveness of our sins which Jesus Christ obtained by his sacrifice on the cross makes us eligible for the grace of a true renewal of our lives on earth and for the ultimate gift of eternal life.

There are people who think that their sins are unforgivable. They give up asking for God's forgiveness because they think He will never forgive them. Some women who have had abortions think this and men, too, who have pushed women to abort or have assisted or acquiesced in an abortion. But abortion is not an unforgivable sin, though a truly evil act it is. My years of counseling post-abortive women and men have convinced me that they can move from remorse and repentance to healing and peace. If you or a loved one is in that situation, trust that the Lord's words are true: Father, forgive them and I have come that they may have life and have it more abundantly.

There are other people who are content to live a morally and spiritually mediocre life, instead of wanting to have the image of God in which they are made glow brightly. What a waste! Don't let Ash Wednesday be a ritual with no meaning. Resolve to look at yourself honestly and ask God's assistance to overcome your sins. A sincere confession of sins is a great help. Then, form a plan to overcome the sins that trouble you the most. The Holy Spirit will enlighten you and a priest or any wise friend might offer good advice. Aided by God's grace, you can become the good and loving person God made you to be. Let the ashes on your forehead symbolize your desire to burn away sin so that new life, like the phoenix of ancient lore, may rise from the ashes.

This is my hope for you. I pray that it is your hope for yourself. Let us journey together toward Easter, hopeful and every day stronger in faith and love.

Sincerely in Christ,
+Mark E. Brennan
Bishop of Wheeling-Charleston

Second Sunday of Lent

Our Saving Light

Bountiful God, you are our light and our salvation. Our hearts speak of you, yearning to see your face! We ache as we seek your presence. Hear the sound of our call. Though we have strayed from you, guide us back to your bounty; help us to stand firm in your way. Grant us the wisdom and courage to wait for you, who saves. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sunday, March 16, 2025-Listen to Him

Today's readings: Genesis 15:5–12, 17–18; Psalm 27:1, 7–8, 8–9, 13–14; Philippians 3:17–4:1 or 3:20–4:1; Luke 9:28b–36. Some knowledge of ancient treaties is helpful to understand today's Scripture passages. In the reading from Genesis, we hear the Lord make two promises to Abram: an heir and land. To the promise of land, Abram requests a sign from God: "How am I to know that I will possess it [the land]?" God asks Abram to bring him a "three-year-old heifer, a three-year-old she-goat, a three-year old ram, a turtledove, and a young pigeon." Abram does so and proceeds to cut up the animals, which, at the time, was a way of making a treaty. After darkness falls, a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch, representing God, pass between the cut-up animal pieces: a sign that God and Abram have entered into a covenant.

As we begin the second week of Lent, reflect on your relationship with God. How can you imitate Abraham and put your faith in the Lord? How can you deepen your relationship with God or enter into an understanding of growing faith? Though your answers to these questions likely won't involve three-year-old heifers, goats, rams, turtledoves, or pigeons, try to commit to a tangible and realistic offering you can bring to God. Bring your reflection to your prayers as you spend time in silence, listening to the Lord.

This Week at Home

Monday, March 17-St. Patrick

As a teen, St. Patrick was kidnapped by Irish pirates and treated as a slave. At the time, Ireland was not a Christian land. Turning to God in his captivity, Patrick wrote about his love for God. Around the age of twenty, Patrick escaped and was eventually ordained a priest. He preached and converted many to Christianity in Ireland. St. Patrick is known to have used shamrocks to explain the Trinity. To celebrate St. Patrick, reach out to someone and share three things you love about your faith. Today's readings: Daniel 9:4b–10; Psalm 79:8, 9, 11 and 13; Luke 6:36–38.

Tuesday, March 18-Preach and Practice

Jesus warns those gathered not to be hypocritical. It is indeed important to practice what we preach and to do so in a non-performative way. We are called to serve others and praise God humbly. Pray about your motivations. Why do you serve others? Do you do so for praise or seats of honor? Ask God for the strength to preach and practice modesty, with your heart set on Christ. Today's readings: Isaiah 1:10, 16–20; Psalm 50:8–9, 16bc–17, 21 and 23; Matthew 23:1–12.

Wednesday, March 19-St. Joseph

Scripture portrays St. Joseph's kindness in his unwillingness to expose Mary to shame upon learning of her pregnancy. Instead of denouncing her, Joseph intends to divorce her quietly. Scripture does not reveal Joseph's response to the angel, but we know of his yes to God's call to be Jesus' earthly father. Consider a difficult situation in which you have found yourself. Despite the hurt you may have experienced, what could you have learned from St. Joseph's example? Today's readings: 2 Samuel 7:4–5a, 12–14a, 16; Psalm 89:2–3, 4–5, 27 and 29; Romans 4:13, 16–18, 22; Matthew 1:16, 18–21, 24a or Luke 2:41–51a.

Thursday, March 20-Walk in the Way of the Lord

Jesus tells the Pharisees about a rich man's neglect of Lazarus, a poor, sick man at the rich man's door. After the men die, their fates are a reversal of their earthly reality: the rich man finds himself in "the netherworld, where he was in torment" while Lazarus "was carried away by angels to the bosom of Abraham." This serves as a jarring reminder that what we do to our neighbors, we do to Christ. Whom have you neglected to serve? How can you reconcile that this week and walk in the way of the Lord? Today's readings: Jeremiah 17:5–10; Psalm 1:1–2, 3, 4 and 6; Luke 16:19–31.

Friday, March 21-The Cornerstone

Jesus quotes Psalm 118: "The stone that the builders rejected / has become the cornerstone; / by the Lord has this been done; / it is wonderful in our eyes." The early Church used this psalm as a prophecy of Jesus' resurrection. After reading today's Gospel, turn to Psalm 118. Familiarize yourself with the psalm by reading it once. Read it again, identifying a word or phrase that stands out. Read the psalm a final time, allowing the word or phrase to settle in your heart. Today's readings: Genesis 37:3–4, 12–13a, 17b–28a; Psalm 105:16–17, 18–19, 20–21; Matthew 21:33–43, 45–46.

Saturday, March 22-Love for Repentant Sinners

Enter today's Gospel through the practice of Ignatian contemplation. Begin by placing yourself in the presence of God. Ask the Lord for guidance. Read Luke 15:1–3, 11–32. Visualize what you read, paying attention to the details. Place yourself in the scene, and interact with the Gospel. Where do you find yourself? Reflect on what stood out to you from your prayer. Respond to God with a word of gratitude. Close with the sign of the cross. Today's readings: Micah 7:14–15, 18–20; Psalm 103:1–2, 3–4, 9–10, 11–12; Luke 15:1–3, 11–32.
