LENTEN GUIDELINES FOR ALL CATHOLICS-Fasting is to be observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday by everyone 18 years and older, who has not yet celebrated their 59th birthday. On a fast day, one full meal is allowed. Two other meals, enough to maintain strength, may be taken, according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but consuming liquids, including milk and juices, is allowed. Abstinence is observed by everyone 14 years of age or older. On days of abstinence, no meat is allowed. Note that when health or the ability to work is affected, the law does not apply. Ash Wednesday, all the Fridays during Lent, and Good Friday are days of abstinence. If a person is unable to observe the above regulations due to ill health or other serious reasons, other suitable forms of self-denial are encouraged.

A note from the Rector...

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Greetings on this Fifth Sunday of Lent!

Our Elect and Candidates were on retreat this past Saturday to prepare them for Holy Week and the Easter Sacraments. Please pray for them as they prepare to enter our Church at the Easter Vigil. Their names are: Elect-Crystal Flanigan, Elizabeth Southern and Matthew Thomas and our Candidates-Jordan Burgess, Tracy(T.J.) Cook, Sherri Graley, Shannon Holliday, Zachary Mason, Andrew Price, James Renner & Kellie Renner.

I am very grateful for Michael Kawash, who directs the RCIA program. Michael has done a great service in preparing and guiding these members. I am also grateful for those who prepared snacks for the weekly gatherings.

I wish to remind you that we will have our Lenten Reconciliation Service this Monday beginning at 7pm. I will have some priests joining me for this healing sacrament.

I would also like to remind you that we will begin offering the Blood of Christ on Holy Thursday and we will need additional Eucharistic Ministers. Bishop Mark has asked that we have a training session for this return. We have three scheduled training sessions for this week, please attend one. Please check this bulletin for detailed information.

May you have a Blessed Lent. I remain,
In Christ,
Fr. Don

Sacred Heart Grade School News...

Our last nine weeks have started and our learning continues to go strong! The Scholastic Book Fair made its return this week. What fun it was to shop for new books to read and some pencils, posters, and other goodies. Parents came in after school each day to shop with their students in addition to the students attending during their Reading Center class. Second grade is continuing to learn about forces at work and third grade is rounding out their learning of cursive writing. We are staying busy. This week we will attend Stations of the Cross in the church and go to Reconciliation with Fr. Higgs as we prepare our hearts for Easter. Anne Davis, Principal

Help send food to the Risen Lord Food Pantry in Clay County, West Virginia. Donate to the Knights of Columbus 40 Cans for Lent Food Drive.

Your donation makes a difference! When you give non-perishable food or money you become an important link in the chain of people who both give food and money to help Father Thien and his food pantry help the people of Clay County, West Virginia. Father Thien and his volunteers do good work keeping the pantry open, but your help makes the result of their work much more effective.

The Food Drive will continue through Easter Sunday, April 9, 2023. Knights will pass out slips of paper with donation information which may be returned to our Post Office Box P.O. Box 11578 Charleston, WV 25339-1578 or the Sunday Collection Basket. Although we will accept non-perishable food, we also encourage monetary donations by check. Suggestion $20-$35. Father Thien is skillful in knowing how to purchase food in quantity and will certainly put any money donated to good use. If you prefer to donate food rather than money, Father Thien's most requested items are 1. Peanut Butter, 2. Canned Tuna Fish, 3. Canned Soup, 4. Any Canned Vegetable, 5. Canned Fruit. Crackers are useful and appreciated.

Hunger knows no season. We continue to thank our parishioners for their generosity.

Dear Fellow Catholics,

It's an exciting time to be a young Catholic in West Virginia! The summer of 2023 is an incredible time to lead young people to Christ and His Church. The motto chosen by Pope St. Paul VI for his church life perfectly describes the goal of our camping ministry: to be "with Him on the mountain." Camp Carlo provides an exciting opportunity for young people to encounter Christ and His Church, adventure through God's creation, and grow in their Catholic faith alongside peers from all over the state of West Virginia. We're looking forward to meeting you and your families as we travel the state, work with your parishes, and, hopefully, welcome your children back to another faith filled summer at Blessed Carlo Acutis Youth Camp!

In Christ Our King,

Eucharistic Prayer Choice

The Eucharistic Prayers used at Mass are in four categories. The first group, simply numbered one through four, contains the principal prayers for Mass throughout the liturgical year.

A second group is used in Masses for Reconciliation. The two prayers of this group were originally composed for the Holy Year 1975, when Paul VI was pope, but they have been approved for general use, especially in penitential seasons and days when the Scriptures invite us to reconcile.

A third group is for use in Masses for Various Needs and Occasions. Masses may be offered for a variety of intentions, such as the church, society, weather, and family. There are four variations of the Eucharistic Prayer for Masses for Various Needs and Occasions, each with its own preface and intercessions.

The final group is for Masses with Children. These three prayers were originally composed with specific age groups in mind, but they are used interchangeably now for any group of preadolescents. These Eucharistic Prayers are still lengthy, but they aim to engage children through a simplified vocabulary and the singing of additional acclamations. These prayers were not included in the revision of the third edition of The Roman Missal, but they were updated to match the language of the Missal and printed in a separate volume.

Of the first group, Eucharistic Prayer I is recommended on Sundays, solemnities, and feasts of the saints mentioned in the prayer. It is also called the Roman Canon, and it was the only Eucharistic Prayer used in the Roman Rite for many centuries. Prayer II is based on a text from the third or fourth century. It is shorter and recommended for weekdays. Prayer III, newly composed after the Second Vatican Council, is especially fitting for Sundays and feasts. Prayer IV, which tells about salvation history, is especially suited for weekdays and Sundays in Ordinary Time. Its preface never varies.

Prayer to Saint Joseph

To you, O blessed Joseph, do we come in our tribulation, and having implored the help of your most holy Spouse, we confidently invoke your patronage also.

Through that charity which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God and through the paternal love with which you embraced the Child Jesus, we humbly beg you graciously to regard the inheritance which Jesus Christ has purchased by his Blood, and with your power and strength to aid us in our necessities. O most watchful guardian of the Holy Family, defend the chosen children of Jesus Christ; O most loving father, ward off from us every contagion of error and corrupting influence; O our most mighty protector, be kind to us and from heaven assist us in our struggle with the power of darkness.

As once you rescued the Child Jesus from deadly peril, so now protect God's Holy Church from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity; shield, too, each one of us by your constant protection, so that, supported by your example and your aid, we may be able to live piously, to die in holiness, and to obtain eternal happiness in heaven.

Amen.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Guide Us

God of life,
you raised Lazarus from death
and in doing so revealed your divine love.
Open our ears to your truth,
help us see your glory,
and empower us to trust and believe.
Guide our minds and hearts
in these final days of Lent,
purify us from anything
that blocks us from belief,
so that we will be ready
to sincerely profess our faith
with the Church community at Easter.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Do You Believe This?

Today's readings: Ezekiel 37:12-14; Psalm 130:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8; Romans 8:8-11; John 11:1-45. The readings from the Gospel of John proclaimed on the Third, Fourth, and Fifth Sundays of Lent are explicitly tied to the scrutiny rites celebrated with those preparing for baptism at Easter. Throughout Lent, the assembly participates in these rites that are part of the process of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. The assembly, too, benefits spiritually as all pray that the candidates be enlightened with a deeper knowledge of Christ and purified from anything that blocks their full assent of belief. Those seeking baptism are preparing to approach the font and make a profession of faith in front of the community. Simultaneously, the rest of us are preparing to renew our baptismal promises with full hearts.

These Gospel accounts guide us so that we may hear and believe (like the Samaritan woman), see and believe (like the man born blind), and finally believe without proof (like Martha, Mary, and Lazarus). In each of these Gospels, Jesus reveals his true identity. They culminate in the exchange between Jesus and Martha on the road to Bethany. Jesus proclaims to Martha, "I am the resurrection and the life" (John 11:25) and then asks Martha, "Do you believe this?"

This final week of Lent invites us to join those preparing for baptism in prayer and reflection. Are you ready to affirm with Martha: "Yes, Lord, I have come to believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world" (John 11:27)?

THIS WEEK AT HOME

True Justice

Daily news sources regularly report stories of innocent people wrongly imprisoned. Seeking exoneration for the wrongfully convicted is the life work of many people committed to truth and justice. Today's Scripture stories remind us that this sin has repeated itself across the centuries. One of the corporal works of mercy urges care for the imprisoned. How are you called to a deeper awareness of the need for an unbiased criminal justice system? Today's readings: Daniel 13:1-9, 15-17, 19-30, 33-62 or 13:41c-62; Psalm 23:1-3a, 3b-4, 5, 6; John 8:1-11.

Tuesday, March 28

Not Alone

Patience runs thin in today's Scripture readings. The Israelites complain with weariness on their sojourn to the Promised Land. The Pharisees of Jerusalem shudder in exasperation at the words of Jesus. Jesus offers a message of assurance in response, "The one who sent me is with me. He has not left me alone." No matter our frustration or lack of understanding, God remains steadfast and close to us. When impatience flares, try this antidote: take five deep breaths, recall God's nearness, and then respond. Today's readings: Numbers 21:4-9; Psalm 102:2-3, 16-18, 19-21; John 8:21-30.

Wednesday, March 29

Keep Holy the Lord's Name

There is a beloved VeggieTales episode recounting the story of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego's trust in God's faithfulness in the face of King Nebuchadnezzar and the fiery furnace. These trusting servants of God stand in the fire and sing with one voice to God, "Blessed is your holy and glorious name, praiseworthy and exalted above all for all ages" (Daniel 3:52). They provide a poignant model of trust in God and reverence for God's holy name. Pay attention to your use of the Lord's name today. Are there instances when you do not honor the name of the Lord in your speech? Today's readings: Daniel 3:14-20, 91-92, 95; Daniel 3:52, 53, 54, 55, 56; John 8:31-42.

Thursday, March 30

Remain Steadfast

As Holy Week draws near, the promises made to the faithful through the covenant with Abraham echo stronger in our daily Scriptures. Jesus faces threats from all sides and the psalmist assures us that the Lord "remembers forever his covenant" (Psalm 105:8). We are close to the end of our Lenten journey. God has constantly communicated his desire to be close to us. Have you responded with faithfulness to your Lenten intentions? Today's readings: Genesis 17:3-9; Psalm 105:4-5, 6-7, 8-9; John 8:51-59.

Friday, March 31

The Lord, Our Strength

The prophet Jeremiah, the psalmist, and Jesus all face threats and enemy attacks. Yet all three readings echo trust in God's mantle of protection and steadfast faithfulness. They provide a powerful reminder for us that God is near in times of great distress. Today's readings: Jeremiah 20:10-13; Psalm 18:2-3a, 3bc-4, 5-6, 7; John 10:31-42.

Saturday, April 1

Dwell in God

The promises of the prophet Ezekiel are a source of hope for the faithful across all generations. Ezekiel delivers the assurance of God, "My dwelling shall be with them; I will be their God, and they shall be my people" (Ezekiel 37:27). The enemies of Jesus circle in close and the Scriptures remind us that God is even closer, "like a shepherd guarding his flock" (Jeremiah 31:10). Holy Week begins tomorrow. Make plans to accompany Jesus through the solemn remembrances of his journey from suffering to resurrection. Today's readings: Ezekiel 37:21-28; Jeremiah 31:10, 11-12abcd, 13; John 11:45-56.
