FAMILY FULLY ALIVE – APRIL -- MERCY and FORGIVENESS

The inner form of Christian familial love is mercy like God the Father who is “rich in mercy” (Eph 2:4). Breaking Open the Theme: Pope St. John Paul II has beautifully said mercy is “love’s second name.”⁵⁵ Sacred Scripture speaks frequently about Christ’s love in terms of mercy. For instance, there are the memorable parables of the prodigal son (Lk 15:11–32) and the lost sheep (Lk 15:1-7).

Meditation: From Pope Francis’ Amoris Laetitia: Once we allow ill will to take root in our hearts, it leads to deep resentment. ... The opposite of resentment is forgiveness, which is rooted in a positive attitude that seeks to understand other people’s weaknesses and to excuse them. As Jesus said, “Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do” (Lk 23:34).

When we have been offended or let down, forgiveness is possible and desirable, but no one can say that it is easy. ... All this assumes that we ourselves have had the experience of being forgiven by God, justified by his grace and not by our own merits.

1. Considering that Jesus forgave his persecutors from the cross, what does God’s mercy in the Scriptures teach us about how to forgive our family members?
 2. Why is it important to be forgiven by God? Why must we trust in his forgiveness to forgive others properly?
 3. Do any of us find it hard to forgive? What holds us back from forgiving? Is resentment based on ill will, unduly looking for faults, an excessive concern for our rights, the inability to forgive ourselves or to accept our own limitations? Or is it something else?
- Scripture Reading: Psalm 51:3-6, 11-15 A prayer of penance and longing for God’s abundant mercy.

Family Project: As a family, go to church for the sacrament of reconciliation. A week later, take a few moments to discuss how the sacrament has helped each of you to be more holy and to fight against temptation and sin.

The Holy Eucharist -- Our Story

Have you seen the episodes of "The Holy Eucharist -- Our Story" that are posted on the Basilica's Facebook page? (Search for Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart on Facebook) These are short testimonials that our fellow parishioners have made on what the eucharist means to them. They are very powerful -- take a look if you haven't seen them!

Easter Octave

Easter Day is eight days long. Easter reigns as the most important feast in the liturgical year. One single day cannot contain it. One entire week cannot contain it. We celebrate Easter for a week and a day. The period is called the Octave of Easter.

Weekday Masses are celebrated “as Solemnities of the Lord” (Universal Norms on the Liturgy Year and the General Roman Calendar, 24). The only difference is that the Creed is not recited and there is no Second Reading. We include the Glory to God in the Introductory Rites. The Easter Sequence may follow the Responsorial Psalm. Each Gospel tells one story of how the Risen Christ appeared to his disciples. Whenever the priest chooses the first Easter Preface or Eucharistic Prayer I, he includes words and phrases that call the weekday “Easter day.” The dismissal dialogue at the end of the Mass concludes with two alleluias. The liturgy treats each weekday of the octave as if it were Easter Sunday all over again.

In the early days of the Church, those who were baptized at Easter participated at the cathedral Eucharist every day for a week. Their joy was so full that they kept coming back for more. During this period, the bishop offered them daily catechesis on the sacraments of the church during his homily at the Masses of the Easter Octave.

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults does not explicitly encourage the newly baptized to participate in the Eucharist during the Easter Octave, but the prayers at Mass still presume that they are there. The Mass prayers assigned to the priest this week make frequent references to these neophytes. The Easter Octave is a sign of the Church’s joy. Christ is risen, and we repeat the good news again and again—eight days a week.

Second Sunday of Easter-Divine Mercy Sunday

Loving and Merciful

Eternal Father, in you we find mercy, compassion, and love. May your Spirit work within us, calming our fears and opening our hearts so that we might greet others with peace. Grant us wisdom to put aside our doubts and like Thomas profess our belief in you. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sunday, April 7, 2024-Ever Merciful

Today's readings: Acts 4:32-35; Psalm 118:2-4, 13-15, 22-24; 1 John 5:1-6; John 20:19-31. On this Second Sunday of Easter, the Church also celebrates the Sunday of Divine Mercy. The readings today reveal some of the many facets of God's mercy. The psalm proclaims that "his mercy endures forever," and in the Gospel, Jesus enacts that mercy as he greets the disciples in peace. In a loving manner, Jesus helps the group of disciples overcome doubt about the resurrection. Though his followers do not recognize him, he is gentle, beginning both visits with the greeting, "Peace be with you."

During the homily on the canonization of St. Faustina, Pope John Paul II declared that the Second Sunday of Easter would be called Divine Mercy Sunday. St. Faustina had shared her visions of Jesus appearing to her dressed in a white garment and with rays of light emanating from his heart. Jesus asked her to share the word of his mercy for a day to celebrate his mercy. St. Faustina trusted her vision.

The disciples to whom Jesus first appeared and whom he showed his wounds also trusted the man standing before them. At the sight of Jesus, these followers surrendered themselves completely to God. Think about your first encounter with Jesus. What was that moment like for you? How has your relationship changed over the stages of your life? Have others come to know Christ through your belief?

This Week at Home

Monday, April 8-Say Yes!

God loved the world so much that he sent his only Son and chose Mary as his mother. Though Mary was a young girl, she did not waver in her response to God, replying to the angel, "May it be done to me according to your word." How hard is it for you to say yes to God? Do you need to practice an affirmative response to God? As we continue to celebrate Easter, pause for a moment to acknowledge the opportunities in your life to say yes to God's will. Today's readings: Isaiah 7:10-14, 8-10; Psalm 40:7-8a, 8b-9, 10, 11; Hebrews 10:4-10; Luke 1:26-38.

Tuesday, April 9-Invitation to Give

Imagine being told you need to rid yourself of all your possessions and give them to those in need. Many saints eschewed lavish lives and gave their wealth to the poor. These men and women stood in solidarity with those in need. God invites us to be in relationship with both him and others. Just as Jesus emptied himself for us, we must empty ourselves in service to others. How can you empty yourself for members of your community? Today's readings: Acts 4:32-37; Psalm 93:1ab, 1cd-2, 5; John 3:7b-15.

Wednesday, April 10-Forgiving Yourself

Not only does God hear the cry of the poor, as the psalm proclaims, but he sent his Son so that all who believe might have eternal life. It is especially heartening to hear that "God did not send his Son into the world to condemn." Pray to God that he might help you forgive yourself for shortcomings. Should you not show yourself the same forgiveness that God shows you? Today's readings: Acts 5:7-26; Psalm 34:2-3, 4-5, 6-7, 8-9; John 3:16-21.

Thursday, April 11-Power to Speak

"We must obey God rather than men," Peter tells his persecutors in today's reading from Acts. On this Memorial of St. Stanislaus, the Church honors a bishop who was not afraid to speak out against the evil in the king's deeds. As a Christian, are you committed to the work of fighting injustice and asserting the dignity of all people? Are you ready to be pointed out because you speak the truth? Pray to God that, through the power of the Holy Spirit, you are bestowed with strength and courage to denounce injustice and suffering. Today's readings: Acts 5:27-33; Psalm 34:2, 9, 17-18, 19-20; John 3:31-36.

Friday, April 12-Trust in God

Have you ever discovered that you were "fighting against God," as today's first reading cautions? Why is it so hard for you to trust in God and let something be? After all, God will more than provide for our needs just as Jesus did when he multiplied the loaves and fish for the people who came to him. Humbly ask God to bestow upon you a gentle heart that listens to his Word and is open to his will. Today's readings: Acts 5:34-42; Psalm 27:1, 4, 13-14; John 6:1-15.

Saturday, April 13-Surrender

"It is I. Do not be afraid," Jesus says to his disciples. Over and over, Scripture instructs not to be afraid and yet fear keeps a hold on us. God requests his followers to put their complete trust in him. God is always with us. Pause to feel his presence. When feeling alone or afraid, pray that the Holy Spirit fills you with courage to surrender to God. Today's readings: Acts 6:1-7, Psalm 33:1-2, 4-5, 18-19; John 6:16-21.
