A note from the Rector...

Dear Sisters and Brothers in our Risen Lord!

Greetings on this Fifth Sunday of Easter!

Next Sunday, sixteen of our children will celebrate their First Eucharist at a special 12:30pm Mass. Please keep them in your prayers as they prepare to receive the Lord sacramentally for the first time. Do you remember your First Eucharist? Was it many years ago or just recently? I pray that you can recall that most beautiful day. We are in our second year of our Eucharist Revival, I pray that you have made yourself available to renew or deepen your knowledge and love of Jesus in the Eucharist. May our young people be a powerful witness and reminder to all of us.

Bishop Mark has written a statement titled, "Antisemitism on College Campuses". I encourage you to read and reflect on our Bishop's statement. May we pray for peaceful dialogues and an end to the war in Palestine and Israel. Let us also pray for peace in Ukraine.

Have a Blessed week. I remain,

In Christ,
Fr. Don

Statement on Antisemitism on College Campuses

As a graduate of a major American university where pro-Palestinian protests and anti-Semitic rhetoric have taken place, I feel compelled to make known how repugnant I find the expressions of antisemitism on many college campuses. I abhor just as much expressions of anti-Moslem sentiment and violence, such as the injuries suffered by a Palestinian student, a student at my alma mater.

The Hamas-Israeli war has elicited strong feelings from many people but strong feelings are not an excuse for using hateful and stereotypical language about Jews and Moslems. While some students and faculty are trying to understand the conflict and make sober judgments, others, including non-students, indulge in intemperate chants and threatening behavior toward those who hold other views. I speak out because, with historical perspective, I know where antisemitism can lead if it goes unchecked; the same is true for Islamophobia.

College campuses are supposed to be places where young people can learn to make mature judgments about the world in which they live and which they will soon be directing. It is the role of administrators and professors to help students engage in that process. Recent events have shown that some of these university-employed adults are unwilling or unable to fulfill this role. They need to examine their consciences. If they are incapable of guiding young people toward maturity, they should resign. It is also unfair that non-students, whose occupation seems to be that of fomenting of trouble, should cause the majority of students to lose the right to go to class because of the disruption on their campus.

The current conflict between Hamas and Israel has complicated historical, political, cultural and religious aspects. I do not have answers to all of its dimensions. As a man of faith in the God who spoke to Abraham, the father in faith of Judaism, Christianity and Islam, however, I will continue to pray for a just and lasting peace between Palestinians and Israelis.

But, given the present situation on the campuses of many universities in our nation, I urge you to raise your voice to say that shouting hateful slogans and intimidating those of other views contribute nothing to the resolution of the present conflict in the Middle East and only exacerbate mutual disdain and distrust in communities of higher education. Treat others the way you would want them to treat you. That saying, known to people 2000 years ago and repeated by Jesus, is one that students, faculty, administrators and professional agitators should take to heart.

Sincerely in Christ,

+Mark E. Brennan

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The “Family Life Center Food and Personal Care Pantry” at 1024 Quarriers Street in Charleston has been set up to benefit all parishioners in need within the greater Charleston area. This pantry is for you ...and...yours. Access to the pantry is through the “double doors” on Dunbar Street.

We all know that the aftermath of the pandemic as well as other economic challenges have exacerbated the need to reach out to meet the emergency needs of members of our parishes. This pantry can have a profound impact on the lives of many in our area.

The pantry will consist of the following:

- Emergency food
- Emergency Home Care Items
- Personal Care Items

The pantry will be open as follows:

- Tuesdays from 10:00 am until 12:00 noon
- Wednesdays from 2:00 pm until 4:00 pm
- Thursdays from 5:00 pm until 7:00 pm

Catholic Charities West Virginia has been instrumental in caring for the basic necessities of those served and will continue to do so.

This pantry, however, is geared at those considered “low income” in our parish communities, who, from time to time simply need assistance to get through month by month. It is not affiliated with any other pantry in the area and solely sustained by a collective effort of the local parishes.

Parishioners can be referred to the pantry through local priests or parish administrative offices... or...members of any parish. They need only to come during the designated times and our volunteers will assist. If anonymity is an issue, arrangements will be made to provide such.

We ask that you help us to sustain the pantry by weekly/monthly collection of items that we provide. If you prefer, a gift card or monetary donation is acceptable (no checks, please); all proceeds will help us restock and keep our shelves full. One of our volunteers, all representative of local parishes, can assist with parish solicitations.

Together, we can make a positive impact and ensure that no one in our parish community goes to bed hungry or is unable to meet basic needs of life. Collectively, we can be a beacon of hope for those who need us most.

In Christ, we are volunteers from:

The Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart, Blessed Sacrament Parish, St. Anthony’s Parish, St Francis of Assisi Parish, Christ the King Parish, St. Agnes Parish, St. John’s Episcopal Church.

Fifth Sunday of Easter

Vine of Life

Lord Jesus, you are the vine of life, we are but branches yearning to give fruit. Grant that the Holy Spirit may nurture your people to remain in you so that we may give the life that you have shared with us to those we meet, allowing them to be transformed. You live and reign with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Sunday, April 28, 2024-Bearing Fruit

Today's readings: Acts 9:26–31; Psalm 22:26–27, 28, 30, 31–31; 1 John 3:18–24; John 15:1–8. "Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing," Jesus tells his followers in today's Gospel. Jesus is the vine of life. The father is the one caring for the vine. As branches, we are capable of bearing fruit. In the first readings, we hear of Paul, who had once persecuted Christians, seeking a place with the disciples. Paul changed his ways and became a participant in the vine of life. When Paul turned from his former way of life, he "spoke out boldly in the name of Jesus." After Paul's conversion experience, he sought to keep the commandments and remain in Jesus' love. Only by remaining in Jesus was Paul able to preach and bear fruit, for as the Gospel reading states, without Jesus, nothing can be done. How do you envision your connection to God the vine grower and to Jesus the vine? Is there anything in your life that you need God to prune so that you can bear more fruit? Ask Jesus to cut away that which impedes your growth in relationship to him. Reflect this week on what it means to remain in God. Do you consider that the good that you do is dependent on your relationship with God? When you stray from your connection with God, does the good that you do seem to falter?

This Week at Home

Monday, April 29-Surrender

"Whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him," Jesus told the disciples at the Last Supper. From her youth, St. Catherine of Siena, whose memorial the Church celebrates today, portrayed her love for God through service. Not only did she minister to the poor, the sick, and the imprisoned, but she also confronted bishops and the pope and called for reforms in the Church. Today we ask St. Catherine of Siena to be our companion as we show our love for God through our work in the world. Today's readings: Acts 14:5–18; Psalm 115:1–2, 3–4, 15–16; John 14:21–26.

Tuesday, April 30-True Peace

Not long before inviting the faithful at Mass to offer one another a sign of peace, the priest says, "Lord Jesus Christ, who said to your Apostles: Peace I leave you, my peace I give you, look not on our sins, but on the faith of your Church." When the faithful offer one another a sign of peace, it is Christ's peace, not their individual peace. In today's Gospel, Jesus highlights the difference in the offerings of peace, saying, "Not as the world gives do I give it to you." Discussing your spiritual struggles during the sacrament of penance can bring one Christ's peace. Check your parish's schedule for the celebration of the sacrament of penance. Today's readings: Acts 14:19–28; Psalm 145:10–11, 12–13ab, 21; John 14:27–31a.

Wednesday, May 1-Faithful

Today we celebrate the optional Memorial of St. Joseph the Worker. Little is known about St. Joseph, but the few verses of Scripture that mention him show his obedience to God and the care he gave to Mary and Jesus. Pray that, like St. Joseph, you "bear much fruit" so that God is glorified. Today's readings: Acts 15:1–6; Psalm 122:1–2, 3–4ab, 4cd–5; John 15:1–8.

Thursday, May 2, 2024-A Universal Message

After telling the disciples to keep his commandments, Jesus explains, "I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy may be complete." For many, obeying the commandments may seem burdensome, but Jesus reveals that doing so is the way to remain in Jesus' love and so is the path to joy. What does it mean for the Lord's joy to be in you? Have you ever considered that God finds joy in you? Today's readings: Acts 15:7–21; Psalm 96:1–2a, 2b–3, 10; John 15:9–11.

Friday, May 3-Feast of Sts. Philip and James

Today, on the Feast of Sts. Philip and James, Apostles, the Church honors two of the earliest followers of Jesus. At the beginning of John's Gospel, Jesus finds Philip and instructs him, "Follow me" (1:45). Philip wastes no time spreading the news of the messiah and encourages Nathanael to "come and see." May we take to heart the example of these apostles and invite others to come to know Christ. Today's readings: Acts 1 Corinthians 15: 1–8; Psalm 19:2–3, 4–5; John 14:6–14.

Saturday, May 4-Do You Accept?

The words "serve the Lord with gladness," in today's psalm shows the disposition one should have even when rejected and persecuted for living as Christians. As Jesus sets before the disciples the work of spreading the Gospel, he tells them that they will be treated as he has been: "If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they kept my word, they will also keep yours." Are you able to live in gratitude to God even when others revile you? Pray to the Holy Spirit for such courage. Today's readings: Acts 16:1–10; Psalm 100:1b–2, 3, 5; John 15:18–21.
