PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

“We, at the Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, are a diverse community of the poor, the disadvantaged and hungry, the well-to-do, the youth, elderly, visitors and those seeking refuge.

As a community of many cultures and races, we stand for unity in our diversity by expressing our love of God the Father through prayer and worship, through service to one another, through the ministry of welcoming, through evangelization and ecumenism. With the Bishop, we shall pursue this mission faithfully through the example of Jesus Christ, the power of the Holy Spirit and the gifts and talents of our members.” All are welcome today, especially visitors, guests and those who might be new to the community.

We pray that Church movements and groups may rediscover their mission of evangelization each day, placing their own charisms at the service of needs in the world.

Sharing Our Treasure - 4/30/2023

Regular Collection: $7,946 Candles: $34
SMILE (Sisters): $375 Partners in Hope: $25

Thank you for your faithful generosity.

FYI... Fr. Roy is making his homilies available in print for those interested in following along at Mass. Copies are located in the vestibule on the table.

A note from the Rector...

Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Risen Lord,

Happy Fifth Sunday of Easter!

This Sunday we celebrate with great joy the First Eucharist of twenty-two of our young children. It is wonderful that it will be our first time since Covid, we have returned celebrating as a group. Please pray for them as they receive the Body and Blood of Jesus. May this first encounter with Jesus in this wonderful sacrament, remind us of our first time and allow us all to grow deeper in our love and understanding of the beautiful gift of the Eucharist.

Next week, on Saturday, May 13th at our 5:30pm Mass, Bishop Mark will be here to celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation for twenty-four of our young adults. Please pray for them as they prepare to receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

I also ask for your prayers for the soul of Fr. Robert Park, who died this week. Fr. Park was an ordination classmate and close friend of Msgr. Sadie. Fr. Park was my Rector at St. Joseph Preparatory Seminary and served for many years as a caring and compassionate priest and counselor to many throughout our Diocese. Eternal rest grant to him O Lord!

May you have a blessed week, I remain,

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Don

FYI-Bishop Brennan will be here for the Confirmation Mass on Saturday, May 13th at 5:30. As it is a large class this year with 24 Confirmandi, their sponsors and family members in attendance, you may want to choose a different Mass to attend that weekend.

Sacred Heart Gift Shop is opened after each mass and is generally opened prior to the 10:30 mass. We have gifts for Baptism, First Holy Communion, Confirmation and Graduation. In addition to gifts, we also now have hand-made greeting cards and prints for these occasions. We keep in stock a variety of rosaries, medals, automobile visor medals as well as bike medals and holy cards. Children's books and coloring books are also available. If you can't find what you are looking for, we can order it for you.

Employment Opportunity

The Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart is looking to hire a part-time housekeeper, approximately 20 hours a week. Duties include cleaning the Cordis Center and light cleaning at the church. All interested parties, please contact the Cordis Center at 304-342-8175.

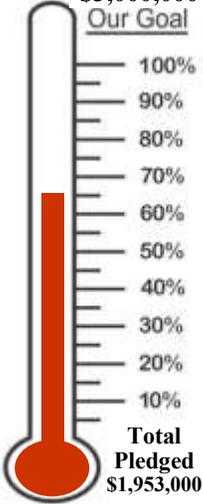

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY-Sacred Heart Basilica is looking for a full-time semi skilled maintenance person. Starting pay is $14 an hour, must have a valid driver's license and pass a background check. If interested, please send your resume to John Blake at: jblake@shccwv.us.

Sacred Heart Grade School News...

Spring has sprung outside and inside! The flowers outside are blooming. But inside several of our classrooms, students are watching caterpillars go through their life stages to become butterflies. Right now, most of the caterpillars are in their chrysalises and the students are anxiously awaiting the emergence of the new butterflies. Many of our second graders will be receiving their First Holy Communion this weekend. Please pray for them this weekend. Sacred Heart participated in One Mission, One Day- the diocesan day of giving. All $71,010 that was donated by SHGS families will go to the Renewing Our Present, Securing Our Future Endowment for the grade school. Thank you to all who donated!

Please pray for our children who are to receive their First Eucharist this Sunday at 12:30: Gianna Ballard, Alice Bowles, Taylor Carr, Sam Ellis, Gianna Galbraith, Charlotte Harris, Elena Hitt, Caleb Humphrey, Graham Knechtly, Mac Lohri, Patrick Mallah, Vincent Marshall, Christian Mork, Rocco Paternostro, Avery Pinney, Jose Ravelo, Thomas Rushworth, Anthony Scalise, Sophia Tallarico, William Wade, Mark Wallis, and Benjamin Wright.

Rosary to be Prayed before Weekend Masses in May In Catholic tradition, the month of May is dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary. In keeping with this tradition, we will pray the Rosary before each of the weekend masses in May, starting 30 minutes before each mass. Please come and join us as we honor our Blessed Mother.

Fr. Sadie's "Cogitationes" 304-546-4330

Sacrosanctum Concilium continued: The rite and formulas for Penance have been revised, with parts largely ignored. Communal Penance services are popular but take so long that people leave early or use their cellular phone while waiting their turn. General absolution was not envisioned in SC and Vatican has successfully pared its usage.

SC (73) the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is just that, the anointing of the sick, and not a sacrament for those only at the point of death. SC has been partially successful. Priests now anoint people who are sick or aged; many Catholics understand that the anointing is for healing and not the family's silent way of saying the end is near. But too many Catholics delay calling a priest during a long illness of loved ones and then panic because they cannot find a priest to administer the "Last Rites" at an inconvenient time, e.g., during the night on the priest's holiday or vacation. The term "Last Rites" does not appear in The Rite of Anointing or The Pastoral care of the Sick. Many presume that good Catholics call a priest at the final hours of a loved one. But priests are fewer and fewer; the Sacrament for the dying is not necessarily the Anointing but Communion (viaticum) and can be given by a deacon, nun, lay minister, or even family members.

From our music director...

A Joyful Psalm #86: Psalm 33

It is a popular notion that Christianity is simply one of many options within a vast array of spiritual opportunities. Our readings this weekend are clear: Jesus Christ is the only way.

In the Gospel Reading, Jesus says to the apostles: "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me." (Jn. 14:6) Jesus Christ provides the graces for those who love Him. How do we attain these graces? Through the sacraments made manifest through His Church. The Second Vatican Council affirms the importance of our Catholic identity: "This pilgrim church is necessary for salvation." (Lumen Gentium, 14) The Catholic Church is the fullness of Truth, as established by Our Lord. This necessity of course would not apply to anyone who, through no fault of their own, had never been revealed this Truth (see Lumen Gentium art. 16).

Psalm 33 is a prayer of complete and total trust in God: "See, the eyes of the LORD are upon those who fear him, upon those who hope for his kindness, to deliver them from death and preserve them in spite of famine." (Ps.33: 18-19)

We give thanks to you, O God, for sending Your only begotten Son. And we give thanks for the graces available to us through His Holy Church. Let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in You. (Ps. 33)

Music Ministries Wanted! Please consider contributing your time and talent to our parish in one of the following capacities:

- 1.) The Sacred Heart Choir: The Choir serves each 10:30am Mass as well as Diocesan events. We need voices! Highschool through adult ages.
- 2.) Cantors: The role of the cantor is to lead the assembly in song, especially in the absence of a choir. Our parish is in need of enthusiastic voices to take on the role of cantor.
- 3.) The Hand Bell Choir: The handbell choir rings for various Masses throughout the year. The schedule is easy on you, and your addition would be much appreciated! All ages welcome.
- 4.) The Children's Choir: The Children's Choir will sing about once/month. Encourage your children and grandchildren to share their own musical talents with the parish.
- 5.) Livestreaming: We are need of people to run our livestream for the 10:30am Mass. All ages welcome.

Knights of Columbus News

We are pleased to announce that our 40 Cans for Lent Food Drive has raised $4890 for the Risen Lord Food Pantry of Clay County, WV. Our Knights were also able to sell 84 Seminarian Support Raffle Tickets. This is the best sale in recent years. Drawings in mid-May at the Knights Convention. Thank you all for supporting everything we do.

Upcoming events:

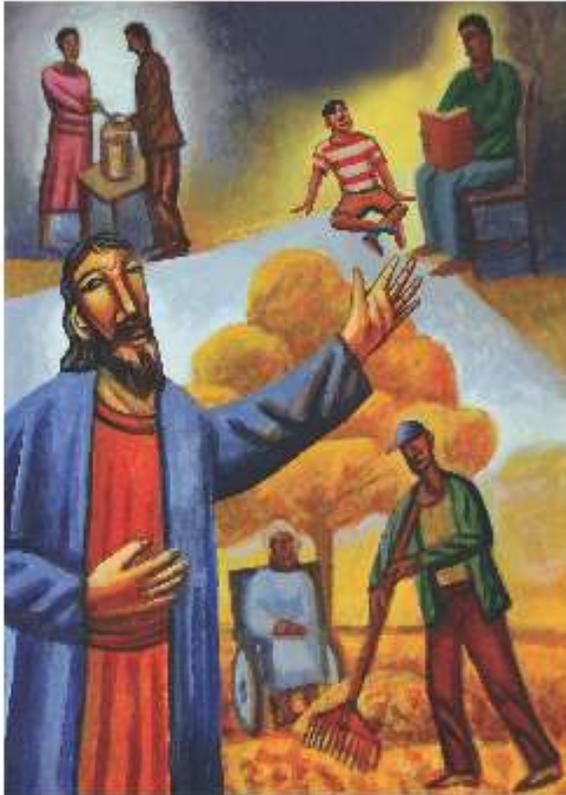

St. Baldricks Childhood Cancer Fundraising Drive is coming this May.

EACH DAY 46 CHILDREN ARE DIAGNOSED WITH CHILDHOOD CANCER AND EACH DAY 7 CHILDREN DIE. Many people we know have been touched and affected by childhood cancer, among them Father Don and parishioner and fellow Knight Bill Coyle.

For the past several years Bill Coyle has chaired the knights participation in this drive. On Thursday May 18, our K of C Council will sponsor a shaving event at Tops Off Barber Shop to raise money. Support may be given several ways: become a shavee to show empathy with childhood cancer victims, or contribute money, recruit friends/family to help. The easiest way to donate is to make checks out to St. Baldricks and send to Bill Coyle at 211 Loma Road; Charleston, WV 25314. Bill's cell number is 304 546-1657. Email is billcoyle58@gmail.com St. Baldricks is a 501c3 for tax purposes. You can also contribute on line: <https://www.stbaldricks.org/participants/Bill2021>

Our Knights Corn Roast and Italian Sausage Sale will be a part of the Vandalia Gathering Memorial Day Weekend on the State Capitol Grounds. Visit and enjoy traditional West Virginia Music and enjoy roasted corn and Italian Sausage with the Knights. This is our main fund raising event.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

The Way

Eternal God,
you sent your Son to become one of us
and teach us how to be in relationship with you.

Thank you for showing us the way
to you through Jesus.

He is the great gift of our lives.

Help us remain close to one another in Christian friendship.

Strengthen the bonds of love in our family.

Unite us as one in our faith community
and assist us as we seek to show others the way, the truth,

and the life.

Through Christ the risen Lord. Amen.

The Way, The Truth, The Life

Today's readings: Acts 6:1-7; Psalm 33:1-2, 4-5, 18-19; 1 Peter 2:4-9; John 14:1-12. When we read the words of Jesus with two thousand years of salvation history in our rearview mirror, it all seems clear. Jesus repeatedly tells the disciples exactly who he is, who sent him, and where he is going. He promises his disciples, whom he loved with human and divine power, that they will remain close for all eternity. Human death will not destroy the bonds of love and relationship.

This promise, first spoken to the disciples shortly after Jesus washed their feet, extends to believers across the generations as well. He offers a compass so that we can always stay close. "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me" (John 14:6). There it is: we remain close to God by remaining close to Jesus. Last Sunday, Jesus told us that he is the gate. Today he tells us he is the "way" and the "truth" and the "life." Follow his way. Believe his truth. And you will have life eternal.

At that moment of revelation, the disciples responded with questions and confusion. But with the advantage of knowing the full story, we can proceed with confidence, faith, and trust. In the opening prayer for Mass today, we ask God to "constantly accomplish the Paschal Mystery within us" that we baptized Christians may "bear much fruit" in our lives and eventually "come to the joys of life eternal." Persevere in following the footsteps of Jesus, confident they lead to eternal joy with him.

THIS WEEK AT HOME

Monday, May 8 God First

Our message for today is captured in the response to Psalm 115, “Not to us, LORD, not to us / but to your name give the glory” (115:1). Across all time people fall into the trap of worshiping false gods and the temptation has only grown with the emergence of social media and celebrity. The first commandment that God gave so long ago spells it out clearly. The first disciples and all those who follow are called to point the way to the Triune God. Attend to how you spend your time today and where you place your energy: Who or what do you place first in your life? If not God, is it time for realignment? Today’s readings: Acts 14:5–18; Psalm 115:1–2, 3–4, 15–16; John 14:21–26.

Tuesday, May 9 Be Persistent

Paul and Barnabas demonstrate unstoppable persistence in their single-focused mission to bring the good news to all who will listen. They tenaciously give witness to all the ways God has accompanied and supported them through trials and tests. Our primary call as baptized Christians is to live in such a way that we are constantly giving glory to God. Small gestures count as much as large gestures. How do you give glory to God in the small details of your day? Today’s readings: Acts 14:19–28; Psalm 145:10–11, 12–13ab 21; John 14:27–31a.

Wednesday, May 10 Remain

God deeply desires to be close to us. Jesus reveals this desire when he proclaims that he is the vine and we are the branches. Read John 15:1–8 carefully and count how many times Jesus uses the word remain. Jesus ardently implores his disciples and all of us to remain close to him. We can see the closeness of God in the new spring growth of branches, leaves, and flower buds. Jesus uses the familiar image of the vine and the branches to help us visually comprehend the closeness he desires. He is the vine, we are the branches. Look for the signs of God in creation. Can you see them? Today’s readings: Acts 15:1–6; Psalm 122:1–2, 3–4ab, 4cd–5; John 15:1–8.

Thursday, May 11 Love and Joy

Jesus’ words to his disciples read like a Christmas card. He encourages them to know and feel the love of God that he knows with his Father. Place yourself in the room with the disciples. Jesus wishes this knowledge of love for each of us. Receive it as a gift and allow it to unwrap great joy in your heart. Follow his example and tell someone you love them today. Today’s readings: Acts 15:7–21; Psalm 96:1–2a, 2b–3, 10; John 15:9–11.

Friday, May 12 Love One Another

Jesus’ words move from invitatory to commanding. In this next passage from John’s Gospel he tells the disciples straight out, “This is my commandment: love one another” (John 15:12). Parents say it to their children. Marriage counselors say it to husbands and wives. Pastors say it to parishioners. We are called to stick together as a family with love as the binding agent. Tack the commandment on a note card where you will see it over and over again. Today’s readings: Acts 15:22–31; Psalm 57:8–9, 10 and 12; John 15:12–17.

Saturday, May 13 Called and Chosen

When walking as a disciple feels hard, remember the assurances Jesus offered to his followers in John 15:19, “I have chosen you.” God calls and chooses us to be joyful and courageous witnesses in the communities where we are planted. We are not alone; God walks with us. Look for an opportunity to share your faith with someone new today. Today’s readings: Acts 16:1–10; Psalm 100:1b–2, 3, 5; John 15:18–21.
