PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

“We, at the Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, are a diverse community of the poor, the disadvantaged and hungry, the well-to-do, the youth, elderly, visitors and those seeking refuge.

As a community of many cultures and races, we stand for unity in our diversity by expressing our love of God the Father through prayer and worship, through service to one another, through the ministry of welcoming, through evangelization and ecumenism. With the Bishop, we shall pursue this mission faithfully through the example of Jesus Christ, the power of the Holy Spirit and the gifts and talents of our members.” All are welcome today, especially visitors, guests and those who might be new to the community.

A note from the Rector...

Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Lord!

Greetings on this Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ!

What a wonderful Solemnity we celebrate as we begin the second year of our Eucharistic Revival, with this year focused on the Parish Year. We will begin this second year with a Eucharistic procession after our 10:30am Mass. We concluded the Diocesan Year last weekend with a beautiful Eucharistic Congress. We had over three hundred people attend the two-day event. I am grateful for all those who worked very hard in making it a grand celebration. Special thanks to Mark Haas and Greg Grey and the choir who lead us in praise and worship. Please check out our Facebook page to view the Friday Taizé prayer service and the closing Mass with Bishop Brennan.

Anne Davis has announced this past Monday that she will not be returning as principal of our Sacred Heart Grade School. We will miss her and are very grateful for her leadership for the past two years. Please read her letter to the school parents along with mine in this bulletin. I ask for your prayers as we begin the process of hiring a new principal to continue the vital mission of our grade school.

This Friday, we will celebrate our Feast Day-the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus with daylong events. I encourage you to take part as we celebrate our Feast Day and the 125th Anniversary of our Church building. We will conclude the day with Mass at 5:30pm and a dinner. Please let us know you are coming to the dinner by June 13th. Please read the bulletin announcement for more information.

I tested positive for Covid this past Wednesday, so I will not be present for the weekend Masses. I am doing well and will resume my responsibilities this week. I am very grateful for Fr. Roy who is covering for me.

Let us pray for those who are on vacation, may they have a blessed time with safe travels.

I remain,

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Don

Feast of the Sacred Heart-June 16

Mark your calendars! The Feast of the Sacred Heart is on Friday, June 16, and as part of our 125th Anniversary, we are planning a special day to commemorate our parish feast day.

Our devotions will include Eucharistic Adoration from 9:00 am until 5:30 pm, followed by a special Mass at 6:00 pm, concluding with a dinner after Mass. We will pray the rosary at 1:00 pm, the Chaplet of Divine Mercy at 3:00 pm, and the Litany of the Sacred Heart at 5:45 pm.

There are sign-up sheets for adoration in the entry area and the Gathering Space. We are also asking the various ministerial committees and organizations associated with our parish to sponsor an hour of adoration during the day. If your group would like to be involved, please contact John Willson at johnhwillson@me.com.

In order to prepare for the dinner following the Mass, please sign-up using the sheet in the Gathering Space by Sunday, June the 11th or by calling the parish office with a head count by Tuesday, June 13th, 304-342-8175.

RCIA Alumni Reunion

Calling all Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart RCIA Alumni!

Join us for our first RCIA Alumni Reunion to be held on July 8, 2023 immediately following the 5:30 PM Mass.

If you or someone you know has ever gone through the RCIA process here at Sacred Heart, we welcome you to join us for food and fellowship.

Please RSVP by June 30th: Amber Rutherford via text or phone call at (304)941-4423 or via email at amberwall91@gmail.com

Please note-

Bishop Mark has written to the priests of the Diocese asking them to remind the faithful of some practical advice concerning the understanding of and the reception of the Eucharist. I pass on our Bishop's letter for your reflection.

DIocese OF WHEELING-CHARLESTON

1311 STROM STREET
POST OFFICE BOX 230
WHEELING, WEST VIRGINIA 26003

June 5, 2023

Dear Monsignors, Fathers, Deacons,

With the beautiful feast of Corpus et Sanguinis Christi, the Body and Blood of Christ approaching this coming Sunday, we have an opportunity to speak to our people of the great gift the Lord makes of himself to us in the Eucharist. In that light, I would like to briefly address a few matters:

1. Convey to your people as simply and effectively as you can that the Lord Jesus gives us his very Body and Blood in the Eucharist. It is nothing less than his fulfillment of his promise to be with us always and never to leave us orphans. We cannot explain adequately the mystery of his presence, which remains hidden, but we experience its reality when we receive the Eucharist with faith in the one whom we are receiving.
2. Help your people to see that receiving Holy Communion is not only an act of personal piety – it is that, of course – but also a sign of our unity in faith and love as members of the Church and a means of building up those virtues. The Lord gives himself to us to strengthen our living of the faith and to enable us to come nearer to our neighbor in prayer and in service to those in need through works of justice, charity, and peace.
3. In the Liturgy as renewed under Pope St. Paul VI, the faithful may receive Holy Communion either on the tongue or in the hand. Both means are of ancient origin, and both can be received reverently. The means of receiving the Sacrament is the communicant's choice, not the choice of the minister of Holy Communion, and that choice must be respected.
4. Please remind your people that, if they receive the Eucharist in the hand, their hand should be clean, and they should make a throne – an open palm – for the Lord. They should receive the Host, not snatch it from the minister. If they receive on the tongue, their mouth should be clean, with no remnants of lunch or breakfast remaining nor chewing gum or candy vying for their attention. The one receiving on the tongue should open his or her mouth widely and stick out the tongue. The minister of Holy Communion should not have to enter a cave with sharp teeth.
5. The proper posture for receiving Holy Communion in the United States for over fifty years has been to stand. It is a bodily sign of our unity in faith and love. No one is to be denied Holy Communion who chooses to kneel. On the other hand, it is not permissible to put out kneelers for the faithful, for that encourages them to act contrary to the liturgical norm.

I would also urge you, if it is not too difficult to arrange, to have a public procession with the Eucharist after one of your Masses on Corpus Christi Sunday – best done in the streets of your town or village. Jesus Christ is the Savior of the whole world, not just of us who have come to faith in him. We should not be shy about proclaiming his True Presence in the world.

May God bless you and give you zeal and joy as you serve His people.

Fraternally in Christ,

+Mark E. Brennan
Bishop of Wheeling-Charleston

Dear Parents of Sacred Heart,

I write to let you know that I will not return as principal of Sacred Heart Grade School for the 2023-2024 school year. It has been my pleasure to work with the Fr. Higgs and all the staff in the school. Most of all, I have loved being able to work with you and the students to continue to make SHGS the best Catholic school in the state.

I will be in the office for the month of June, shutting down the school year and preparing as much as can be prepared for the upcoming school year. You and your family are in my prayers. Please let me know if I can help you with anything.

Have a good summer,

Anne Davis

Dear Parents of Sacred Heart Catholic Grade School,

Greetings in the Lord!

As you have just been made aware, Mrs. Anne Davis has decided not to return as our principal this coming school year. I am very grateful for her dedicated work with our parish, teachers, students, and parents in making our school a wonderful place to receive a Catholic education. Mrs. Davis has led us well through the difficult time of the pandemic, keeping everyone safe.

I remember a question posed to Mrs. Davis asking her, "What do you want your students to learn from you?" She responded quickly, "I pray that they know that I love them". I firmly believe through her leadership and faith-filled service, she has taught our students that truth. Mrs. Davis has shown joy, patience, and love for our students and teachers. Our prayers and blessings go with her.

This week, I will be posting this position and form a search committee. I ask for your prayers and support as we hire a new principal to continue the vital mission of our Sacred Heart Catholic Grade School. If you have any questions, please email me. I remain,

Yours in Christ

Orthodox Coptic Christian Martyrs added to Catholic Martyrology

Pope Francis added 21 Coptic Christians murdered in 2015 to the Catholic Church's martyrology during last week's visit to Rome by the head of the Orthodox Coptic Church, Pope Tawadros II of Alexandria.

The visit marked the fiftieth anniversary of May 9-13, 1973 meetings between St. Paul VI and Pope Shenouda III of Alexandria, the first encounter between leaders of the two Churches, Tawadros joined Francis for the general audience and addressed the crowd in St. Peter's Square. "Despite the differences in our roots and affiliation," he said, "we are united by the love of Christ." He presented a reliquary containing the blood of the 21 martyrs to Francis, who had "no words" to express his gratitude.

"May the prayer of the Coptic martyrs, united with that of the Theotokos (Our Lady), continue to grow the friendship between our Churches," Francis said.

This visit marked 10 years since his meeting with Pope Francis. On Sunday, the leader of more than 10 million faithful in Egypt celebrated a Coptic Mass in the Basilica of St. John Lateran. Fr. Hyacinthe Destivelle OP, a member of the Dicastery for Promoting Christian Unity, said: "It will be the first time that a non-Catholic will celebrate in the Pope's cathedral."

Knights of Columbus-Congratulations Fr. Don Council 12630 Congratulates Father Don Higgs on being named by the West Virginia State Council Knights of Columbus as Priest of the Year for the Fraternal Year 2022-23. It was our honor to nominate him for this award.

Father Don Higgs joins Father Thomas Gallagher who was the Priest of the Year for the Fraternal Year 2021-22 as recent winners of this award who have a connection to Sacred Heart. Father Thomas Gallagher attended our parish until he began his studies to become a priest.

We look forward to seeing everyone at future events such as Hot Dog and Ice Cream Socials with Dates to be announced.

Instituted Acolyte

The word “acolyte” comes from the Greek word “akolouthos”. The definition is “he who comes, a follower, an attendant”.

According to the Church’s law and practice, the instituted acolyte is called to serve at the altar, including assisting the Priest and Deacon with the care of the sacred vessels and distributing Communion as an extraordinary minister if needed (GIRM #98). As distinct from the typical parish server or extraordinary minister of Holy Communion, you will now exercise this ministry in a permanent way.

- Appointed to aid the Deacon and minister to the Priest. It is therefore his duty to attend to the service of the altar and assist the Deacon and the Priest in liturgical celebrations; especially in the celebration of Mass
- He is also to distribute Holy Communion as an extraordinary minister when the ordinary minister is not available or when it is necessary to do so
- He may be entrusted with publicly exposing the Blessed Sacrament for adoration by the faithful and afterward replace it, but not with blessing the people
- He may also instruct the faithful who also assist the priest and deacon in liturgical celebrations (altar server trainings)
- Destined as he is in a special way for the service of the altar, he should learn all matters concerning public divine worship and strive to grasp their inner spiritual meaning: in that way he will be able each day to offer himself entirely to God
- He should be an example to all by his seriousness and reverence in the sacred building and have a sincere love for the Mystical Body of Christ, the People of God, especially the weak and the sick.
- He must possess a firm will to give faithful service of God and the Christian people.
