A note from the Rector...

Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Lord!

Greetings on the Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time. Happy Father's Day!

This Sunday, as we honor our Fathers, may God give them strength and wisdom as they care and love their families, may St. Joseph intercede for them. Please make use of the prayer in this bulletin.

As we remember Juneteenth on Monday, you are invited to join Bishop Brennan at 6:30pm on the WV State Capitol Grounds for "Dismantling Racism-a Service of Remembrance and Repentance for Those Lynched in West Virginia" This prayer service is sponsored by the West Virginia Council of Churches. Let us continue to pray for an end to all forms of racism.

May you have a blessed week. I remain,

Yours in Christ,

A Father's Day Prayer

God Our Father, you govern and protect your people and shepherd them with a father's love.

You place a father in a family as a sign of your love, care, and constant protection.

May fathers everywhere be faithful to the example shown in the Scriptures: steadfast in love, forgiving transgressions, sustaining the family, caring for those in need.

Give your wisdom to fathers that they may encourage and guide their children.

Keep them healthy so they may support a family.

Guide every father with the Spirit of your love, that they may grow in holiness and draw their family ever closer to you.

Amen.

Dear Monsignors, Fathers, Deacons,

With the beautiful feast of Corpus et Sanguinis Christi, the Body and Blood of Christ approaching this coming Sunday, we have an opportunity to speak to our people of the great gift the Lord makes of himself to us in the Eucharist. In that light, I would like to briefly address a few matters:

1. Convey to your people as simply and effectively as you can that the Lord Jesus gives us his very Body and Blood in the Eucharist. It is nothing less than his fulfillment of his promise to be with us always and never to leave us orphans. We cannot explain adequately the mystery of his presence, which remains hidden, but we experience its reality when we receive the Eucharist with faith in the one whom we are receiving.
2. Help your people to see that receiving Holy Communion is not only an act of personal piety – it is that, of course – but also a sign of our unity in faith and love as members of the Church and a means of building up those virtues. The Lord gives himself to us to strengthen our living of the faith and to enable us to come nearer to our neighbor in prayer and in service to those in need through works of justice, charity, and peace.
3. In the Liturgy as renewed under Pope St. Paul VI, the faithful may receive Holy Communion either on the tongue or in the hand. Both means are of ancient origin, and both can be received reverently. The means of receiving the Sacrament is the communicant's choice, not the choice of the minister of Holy Communion, and that choice must be respected.
4. Please remind your people that, if they receive the Eucharist in the hand, their hand should be clean, and they should make a throne – an open palm – for the Lord. They should receive the Host, not snatch it from the minister. If they receive on the tongue, their mouth should be clean, with no remnants of lunch or breakfast remaining nor chewing gum or candy vying for their attention. The one receiving on the tongue should open his or her mouth widely and stick out the tongue. The minister of Holy Communion should not have to enter a cave with sharp teeth.
5. The proper posture for receiving Holy Communion in the United States for over fifty years has been to stand. It is a bodily sign of our unity in faith and love. No one is to be denied Holy Communion who chooses to kneel. On the other hand, it is not permissible to put out kneelers for the faithful, for that encourages them to act contrary to the liturgical norm.

I would also urge you, if it is not too difficult to arrange, to have a public procession with the Eucharist after one of your Masses on Corpus Christi Sunday – best done in the streets of your town or village. Jesus Christ is the Savior of the whole world, not just of us who have come to faith in him. We should not be shy about proclaiming his True Presence in the world.

May God bless you and give you zeal and joy as you serve His people.

Faternally in Christ,

+Mark E. Brennan
Bishop of Wheeling-Charleston

Dear Parents of Sacred Heart,

I write to let you know that I will not return as principal of Sacred Heart Grade School for the 2023-2024 school year. It has been my pleasure to work with the Fr. Higgs and all the staff in the school. Most of all, I have loved being able to work with you and the students to continue to make SHGS the best Catholic school in the state.

I will be in the office for the month of June, shutting down the school year and preparing as much as can be prepared for the upcoming school year. You and your family are in my prayers. Please let me know if I can help you with anything.

Have a good summer,

Anne Davis

Dear Parents of Sacred Heart Catholic Grade School,

Greetings in the Lord!

As you have just been made aware, Mrs. Anne Davis has decided not to return as our principal this coming school year. I am very grateful for her dedicated work with our parish, teachers, students, and parents in making our school a wonderful place to receive a Catholic education. Mrs. Davis has led us well through the difficult time of the pandemic, keeping everyone safe.

I remember a question posed to Mrs. Davis asking her, "What do you want your students to learn from you?" She responded quickly, "I pray that they know that I love them". I firmly believe through her leadership and faith-filled service, she has taught our students that truth. Mrs. Davis has shown joy, patience, and love for our students and teachers. Our prayers and blessings go with her.

This week, I will be posting this position and form a search committee. I ask for your prayers and support as we hire a new principal to continue the vital mission of our Sacred Heart Catholic Grade School. If you have any questions, please email me. I remain,

Yours in Christ

From our music director...

A Joyful Psalm #91: Psalm 100

Sometimes I get strange looks when I tell people that we use the Baltimore Catechism (St. Joseph Edition) to instruct our children in the faith. "Isn't that an old book?" Well, yes, it is, but I believe it is the best resource for catechesis ever to be printed within the United States. It is clear, easy to understand, and has engaging pictures that our children love! The other night, we came to a question from the catechism: "Why do we belong to God?" The answer, "Because God made us."

The readings for this weekend are clear: we belong to God. He made us, and we are His. In the First Reading: "You shall be my special possession, dearer to me than all other people" (Ex.19:5) Similarly, the Psalm Response says to "know that the LORD is God; he made us, we are his." (Ps.100:3) It is an awesome thought to know that God is holding us into existence at every moment of our lives. He sends His Son to shepherd us. We are truly His people, the sheep of His flock.

Mark Haas, Director of Music

Fr. Sadie's "Cogitationes" 304-546-4330

I Found these narratives in the "New Oxford Review" most interesting.

In August 1996, after Holy Communion was distributed at St. Mary Church in Buenos Aires, Argentina, a discarded consecrated Host was discovered and placed in a plate of water in the tabernacle. A week later, the Host had turned into a bloody substance. In 1999 Frederick Zugibe, a well-known New York cardiologist, and forensic pathologist, analyzed a fragment of the host, without knowledge of its origin. Dr. Zugibe verified that the fragment contained human DNA. "The analyzed material is a fragment of the (Human) heart muscle..., he wrote. The heart muscle is in an inflammatory condition and contains a large number of white blood cells. That indicates that the heart was alive at the time the sample was taken, since white blood cells die outside of a living organism." Astoundingly, Dr. Zugibe reported that the sample was pulsating like a living, beating heart!

Another Eucharistic miracle that occurred in the eighth century in Lanciano, Italy, was analyzed by Dr. Edward Linoli in 1970 and then by the World Health Organization in 1973, both times with results identical to the Buenos Aires miracle. These lab reports were examined by other experts in the field, without any of them knowing the origin of the fragments. The experts concluded that the lab reports must have originated from test samples obtained from the same person.
