PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

“We, at the Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, are a diverse community of the poor, the disadvantaged and hungry, the well-to-do, the youth, elderly, visitors and those seeking refuge.

As a community of many cultures and races, we stand for unity in our diversity by expressing our love of God the Father through prayer and worship, through service to one another, through the ministry of welcoming, through evangelization and ecumenism. With the Bishop, we shall pursue this mission faithfully through the example of Jesus Christ, the power of the Holy Spirit and the gifts and talents of our members.” All are welcome today, especially visitors, guests and those who might be new to the community.

The Pope's Monthly Intention

July-For a Eucharistic life

We pray that Catholics may place the celebration of the Eucharist at the heart of their lives, transforming human relationships in a very deep way and opening to the encounter with God and all their brothers and sisters.

Liturgical Ministers are needed.

We need volunteers for all Masses. Please consider becoming a Reader, Eucharistic Minister, Usher or Altar Server. To volunteer email: ahodges@shccwv.us or call the parish office at 304-342-8175.

A note from the Rector...

Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Lord!

Greetings on this Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary!

In the Gospel this Sunday, Jesus invites us to come to Him when we labor and are burdened. I pray we take Jesus up on his offer. May we learn from Jesus, come to Him, and find rest. One beautiful way to come to Jesus is to make a visit to His Blessed Sacrament for prayer and adoration. Come early for Mass or stop by during the day to our Cordis Center Chapel. For a visit to our chapel in the evening, please contact me at dhiggs@dwc.org, or 304-685-2367 or Fr. Roy, rayappak@dwc.org or 304-905-2367.

Blessings on your week. I remain,
In Christ,
Fr. Don

Do you know someone who wants to become Catholic?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process established for the universal Church for individuals to become Catholic and receive the sacraments of initiation — Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist. This initiation process also involves a parish community experiencing a renewal in faith as it prepares and welcomes new members into the Church. The Rite speaks of conversion as a “spiritual journey.” Centered on fostering a deep relationship with Jesus and the Church he founded, this journey takes place through distinct stages over a period of time (late August to Easter) suitable to bring about a thorough catechesis, significant experience of the parish community, and commitment to the liturgical and moral life of the Catholic faithful. The RCIA process is a restoration of the ancient catechumenate, arising within the first three centuries following the era of the apostles. It was the early Church’s way of Christianizing the pagan Roman Empire. The Second Vatican Council called for the restoration and use of this venerable and powerful method of initiation for the worldwide Church.

Are you or do you know someone who would like to take this journey? If so, please contact Father Don (dhiggs@dwc.com) or RCIA Director Michael Kawash (mak@ramlaw.com or 304-549-6453). An inquiry session will be held in August.

From our music director...

A Joyful Psalm #94: Psalm 145

Last weekend, Jesus told us that we must “take up our cross and follow Him” to be worthy of His discipleship (see Mt.10:38). The crosses in our lives can be heavy. Jesus reminds us that the Christian life is not easy.

This weekend, Jesus tells us that we need not carry our heavy cross alone. Rather, He is there to carry it with us: “Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden light.” (Mt.11:29) A yoke is a tool that is used to harness weight between two beasts-of-burden. The yoke allows the animals to carry heavy objects together. Jesus is always ready to help carry our heavy crosses. Psalm 145 echoes this sentiment: “The LORD lifts up all who are falling and raises up all who are bowed down.” (Ps.145:14)

May we ever place our burdens on the yoke of our Lord, our King, and our God!

Mark Haas, Director of Music

Please consider joining our wonderful choir!

Here is an excerpt from a recent article from the Washington Post concerning the physical and mental health benefits of singing with others: "Choirs are large families. Singing in them promotes social bonding & joy. Choir members are more optimistic, less lonely, more likely to contribute positively to community. A sense of achievement comes from creating notes with the body & working together to master a work. The text is often inspiring & beautiful, so despite the day's travails, choir members leave rehearsals feeling as though this is a very positive thing that I can be a part of." The Bible knew that all along. Choirs are a biblical part of God's scheme of worship! Don't miss it in your church!

Why Do We Need the Church? - This 3-week seminar will run from August 14 – September 4, 2023. Many people today believe in God and Jesus but do not feel the need to belong to a church or attend religious services. They may consider themselves to be “believers but not belongers.” This likely includes some of your own family and friends. Therefore, the need to equip Catholics to credibly, convincingly, and compellingly explain and share why we need the Church, the sacraments, and the Mass has never been greater. This apologetics seminar will help us respond to this alarming and growing trend by exploring key reasons why active involvement in the life of the Church, especially the Mass, is Christ’s will for his followers. We are confident that you will find this unique seminar to be an opportunity to strengthen the practice of your faith and learn valuable information for sharing with family and friends who do not regularly attend Mass. As such, this seminar will help you better perform the Spiritual Works of Mercy to “counsel the doubtful” and “instruct the uninformed.” Sign up for this course at: <https://www.pathlms.com/cdu/courses/38066#>

Catholic Charities West Virginia and the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) has been working for social change across the United States for over 53 years. Created by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, CCHD works with a two-pronged approach. One arm educates Americans about the realities of poverty. The other arm confronts the unique challenges of those living in poverty by funding community and economic development projects. These organizations work in innovative ways to build self-reliance and power for those in poverty.

In West Virginia for 2022, CCHD funded: HOH Share and Grow Ohio Valley

HOH Share empowers those who are most vulnerable, the homeless and poor, with a proactive approach to community organizing. Grow Ohio Valley sees sustainable agriculture as an economic driver for West Virginia.

In the past five years, organizations in the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston have been granted more than $455,000 to do the good work of CCHD.

The annual collection for CCHD is July 15 and 16, 2023. Your support for this collection makes a difference for West Virginians living in poverty and those across the United States.

CCHD is providing funding to HOH Share, Inc. to empower our most vulnerable with a proactive approach to community organizing.

Sacred Heart Gift Shop is opened after each mass and is generally opened prior to the 10:30 mass. We have gifts for Baptism, First Holy Communion, Confirmation and Graduation. In addition to gifts, we also now have hand-made greeting cards and prints for these occasions. We keep in stock a variety of rosaries, medals, automobile visor medals as well as bike medals and holy cards. Children's books and coloring books are also available. If you can't find what you are looking for, we can order it for you.

Fr. Sadie's "Cogitationes" 304-546-4330

I believe that our cross of physical pain and mental anguish is part of our human condition as a result of original sin. Our retreat master reminded us of the words of St. John Vianney, patron Saint of priests: "If you carry your cross well, it will carry you all the way to Heaven."

Penitential Celebrations

Penitential celebrations are gatherings of God's people in which they hear Scripture readings inviting them to a conversion and renewal of life. These celebrations are not the same as the Sacrament of Penance. That is, they do not include a confession of sins to a priest nor the words of absolution. These celebrations may be very useful in places where no priest is available to give sacramental absolution, but they may take place in any parish (Rite of Penance, 36–37).

A penitential celebration may be held at church, where it begins with a song and greeting by the minister, who explains the celebration and offers a prayer. Readings from Scripture are proclaimed as they are at any Mass. The homily leads to an examination of conscience.

The minister invites the people to repent. They may listen to a text or recite one together. They may be sprinkled with holy water or perform a devotional act such as veneration of the cross or the Stations of the Cross. They may even be encouraged to follow up this celebration by performing some action on behalf of the sick, the poor, or those suffering some injustice. The service concludes with a prayer, song, and dismissal of the people.

Although a penitential celebration is not the Sacrament of Penance, it may foster a spirit of penance among Christians, help them prepare for confession at a later time, help children form their consciences about sin, or help catechumens on their way to conversion.

Very few parishes use these celebrations because repentant Catholics usually prefer to set time aside to go to confession. But penitential celebrations can be useful for deepening one's awareness of sin and forming a good conscience.

Pious Exercises

Pious exercises are ways that many Christians express their faith either in public or in private. They are not part of the official liturgy of the Church, but they harmonize with it. When prayed well, popular devotions stimulate people's faith and help them worship God even better in the liturgy.

These devotions cover a broad range of interests— the Sacred Heart, the Immaculate Conception, Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, and the Rosary, to name but a few. They become "popular" as they spread among people who find them helpful to develop their piety as individuals or in groups. Many pious exercises are shared by a large number of people, and their practice has been passed on from one generation to the next. These developments show the value of such devotions.

Prior to the Second Vatican Council, pious exercises profoundly formed the spiritual lives of Catholics partly because they could be prayed in vernacular languages. Although Catholics prayed at Mass when it was always in Latin, they have participated more fully, consciously, and actively ever since the Mass has become available to them in their own tongue.

The liturgical renewal appropriately drew Catholics more deeply into the liturgy, which is the most important form of common prayer. Some pious exercises have become less available and less practiced because devotion to the Mass has increased.

However, Catholics are still encouraged to develop pious exercises to balance a healthy spiritual life. The Vatican has dealt with this matter in its Directory on Popular Piety and the Liturgy: Principles and Guidelines. It indicates that these devotions are at their best when they lead people back to the Mass and other forms of liturgical prayer.
