A note from the Rector...

Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Lord,

Greetings on the Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time!

As a kid, upon entering another school year, my teachers often would ask us to give a report on, "What we did during our summer vacation?" I remember my report would basically be summed up with, "I played, hiked, went swimming, and slept in. Not a bad summer. Along those same lines, I have asked our parish pilgrims returning from the National Eucharistic Congress to do the same. Sr. Placida, Sr. Placexedece, and Fr. Roy have written reflections on their experiences at this spiritual and historic event. Please check out the pictures and their reflections in this bulletin. May our parish and our nation receive many graces from this Eucharistic Revival.

This weekend, we welcome the Very Rev. John Agyekum from the Diocese of Obuasi in Ghana. Fr. John serves as the Vicar General of his Diocese and is with us on a Mission Appeal for the benefit of his Diocese. I would ask that you be as generous as possible with our second collection for the Diocese of Obuasi. Thank you.

Have a blessed week and enjoy the summer by finding time to play, hike, swim, and sleep in.

In Christ,
Fr. Don

Do you know someone who wants to become Catholic?

The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults OCIA, (formerly known as RCIA) is the process established for the universal Church for individuals to become Catholic and receive the sacraments of initiation — Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist. This initiation process also involves a parish community experiencing a renewal in faith as it prepares and welcomes new members into the Church. The OCIA speaks of conversion as a "spiritual journey." Centered on fostering a deep relationship with Jesus and the Church he founded, this journey takes place through distinct stages over a period of time (early September to Easter) suitable to bring about a thorough catechesis, significant experience of the parish community, and commitment to the liturgical and moral life of the Catholic faithful. The OCIA process is a restoration of the ancient catechumenate, arising within the first three centuries following the era of the apostles. It was the early Church's way of Christianizing the pagan Roman Empire. The Second Vatican Council called for the restoration and use of this venerable and powerful method of initiation for the worldwide Church.

Are you or do you know someone who would like to take this journey? If so, please contact Father Don Higgs, Rector (dhiggs@dwc.com), Deacon Michael Kawash, OCIA Director (mak@ramlaw.com or 304-549-6453), or the parish office 304-342-8175. An inquiry session will be held in early September.

So Who's the Guy with the Crooked Stole and What is He Doing on the Altar?

by Deacon Mike

I would like to again express my heartfelt gratitude to Father Don, Father Roy and the parishioners of Sacred Heart for your encouragement and support on my journey to the diaconate which culminated in ordination on June 7. Now that the fast-paced busy days following ordination are behind me, Father Don thought it might be a good idea to provide an explanation on the role of a deacon in the life of a parish. I agree. After all, it's been a while since Sacred Heart Parish has had a permanent deacon assigned to it.

You may wonder why I am referred to as a "permanent" deacon. All men who receive holy orders to the priesthood are first ordained deacons. We commonly refer to these men as "transitional" deacons up until the time they receive the fuller degree of holy orders as priests, usually a year or two later. Men who are not on a path to the priesthood are "permanent" deacons. Like me, permanent deacons are usually married, have children and even continue to work in their secular careers.

Deacons, while members of the clergy, have traditionally served as a bridge between bishops and priests and the laity. Their ministry is deeply rooted in the earliest traditions of the Church. The beginning of the diaconate is actually documented in scripture, in Acts 6, where St. Stephen and six others are chosen by the Apostles (the first bishops) to help serve the early Church community distribute its goods to the needy. The Church stopped ordaining permanent deacons around the time of the Council of Trent in the 1500s, but the permanent diaconate was restored in the late 1960s as a result of the Second Vatican Council. Father Don's father, Deacon Henry Higgs, was among the first groups of deacons to serve our diocese following the restoration of the permanent diaconate.

There is a catchy mnemonic that says "a deacon can hatch, match and dispatch." This refers to liturgical and sacramental duties a deacon may perform. He can baptize children (hatch), join couples in the sacrament of holy matrimony (match) and perform rites of Christian burial (dispatch). Of course he cannot say the Mass, so a wedding or funeral presided over by a deacon would be outside of the Mass.

Deacons assist at Mass and sometimes even preach the homily. As part of his duties at Mass, a deacon carries the Book of the Gospels as part of the procession, he proclaims the Gospel and he reads the Universal Prayer (the petitions or prayers of the faithful). These functions reach back to the earliest days of the Church, particularly the reading of the prayers of the faithful, since it is the deacon who comes from the congregation and is therefore familiar with the needs of the community as that bridge referred to earlier. A deacon is also an "ordinary" minister of holy communion.

So if you're a regular lector or extraordinary minister of holy communion, if a deacon is assisting at Mass, then you're "off the hook" for some duties, so to speak. When a deacon is present at Mass, lectors need not process in or read the prayers of the faithful and one less extraordinary minister of holy communion is needed.

While these are the more visible things a deacon does, he also does other things to contribute to parish life. Deacons assist in teaching the faith, especially through faith formation programs and the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (formerly known as RCIA). I have been involved with OCIA here at Sacred Heart for several years and look forward to continuing in this role.

Deacons also provide pastoral care to individuals and families, offering spiritual guidance, counseling, and prayerful support, including visiting the sick, comforting the grieving, and supporting those in need within our community. They also work alongside priests and lay leaders to ensure the smooth operation of parish activities.

In all of these ministries, deacons are to embody the servant-leadership modeled by Jesus Christ, striving to follow His example of humility and compassion. The word "deacon" comes from the Greek word diakonos, which essentially means "servant." I am grateful and excited about serving our parish in this way.

--Deacon Michael A. Kawash

National Eucharistic Congress (My Journey to Eucharistic Lord)

I am so glad to share with you my experience at the National Eucharistic Congress. It is something beyond words. I should be grateful to God and thankful to all the people who supported me to attend this great event. I feel it is a great opportunity for me because this is the first time for me to attend a national wide congress. Each day beginning with Holy Mass and closing the day with Benediction is something special to me. It is an experience, the gift of God the Bread of life. I am so much enriched by this great event. All the talks, breakout sessions, revival talks are outstanding to lift up my faith in the Eucharistic Lord. I feel very blessed to walk with the Eucharistic Lord in the precession in the streets of Indianapolis, its like a journey with the Lord and His people, not the matter of distance that we walk but the faith of the people over there with singing, praising, thanking God. Especially I am so grateful to God for the gift of His Royal Priesthood. It is true that Church is universal, yes it is truly universal. It is also first time for me to attend the Holy Mass with great number of Religious (Cardinals, Bishops, Priests, and Deacons). It is also first time for me to attend Mass in Eastern Rite.

When I looked around the people in the stadium, it is incredible to see such a great number of people with families, upcoming Christians (infants, babies), youth. "God greatly exalted Him (Jesus), and bestowed on Him the name, that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father." (Phil 2: 9-11). When it is a time to pray, everyone started calling out Jesus to hear them, when it is time to welcome Him to the altar for Benediction every knee started bending down, When it is time to adore Him every head was bowed down, when the Eucharistic Lord is on the Altar the whole stadium was silent to hear Him saying love you, forgiven you, calling you by name, chosen you to be sent out being a gift to oneself and to others. As Cardinal Luis Tagle said "when Priest or deacon says go in peace of Christ, Mass is ended... please go, please go, please go, go in peace of Christ" to share the word of God you have heard, to share the gifts given by God to others, to share the love, forgiveness, mercy of God to others.....a life giving gift" Being Sent and Being a Gift..... I am also looking forward for Corpus Christi in 2025, Indianapolis to Los Angeles and 11th National Eucharistic Congress in 2033.

Once again I thank you all who gave me a great opportunity to be part of this historical event. Let us Go on mission to share gifts to oneself and to others.

Thank you,
God's Blessings
Fr. Roy

The National Eucharistic Congress 2024 was a remarkable event that brought together over 60,000 faithful Catholics from across the United States and around the world. As SJI Sisters, we were blessed to be part of this historic gathering inside Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis.

The congress featured inspiring speakers who emphasized the Centrality of the Eucharist in the life of the Church. Mother Adela Galido powerfully proclaimed that "No darkness is greater than the light of the Eucharist," and no sin is greater than the merciful heart of the Eucharist.

One of the most moving moments for us was the Eucharistic procession through the streets of downtown Indianapolis. Walking alongside thousands of fellow believers, proclaiming the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist, We felt like a glimpse of heaven on earth. We are deeply grateful to Father Don for his support and for making it possible for us to participate in this extraordinary event.

The National Eucharistic Congress was a profound experience of the unity and vitality of the Catholic Church in the United States. It left most people with a renewed sense of the power of the Eucharist to transform lives and heal the world.
