PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

“We, at the Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, are a diverse community of the poor, the disadvantaged and hungry, the well-to-do, the youth, elderly, visitors and those seeking refuge.

As a community of many cultures and races, we stand for unity in our diversity by expressing our love of God the Father through prayer and worship, through service to one another, through the ministry of welcoming, through evangelization and ecumenism. With the Bishop, we shall pursue this mission faithfully through the example of Jesus Christ, the power of the Holy Spirit and the gifts and talents of our members.” All are welcome today, especially visitors, guests and those who might be new to the community.

A note from the Rector...

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Greetings on this Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord! May this beautiful feast remind us to listen to the Beloved Son of God.

I pray this note finds you well and enjoying the warm days of summer. On August 16th, we will begin a new school year at our Catholic schools. I pray that the staff, teachers, and students are enjoying their last days of summer vacation.

As I announced a few weeks ago, our parish is incredibly blessed and grateful to have three members to be studying for the priesthood: Michael Aiello, Timothy Kawash, and Michael J. Tupta. Our seminarians have written a note for this weekend's bulletin. I do ask you to keep them in your daily prayers. I also encourage you to write to them notes of encouragement and offer them your prayers and support.

May you have a wonderful week. I remain,

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Don

My name is Niki Kurten and it is my pleasure to introduce myself as the new principal of Sacred Heart Grade School. I have been a part of SHGS since the age of three, when I began my school career. After graduating from Charleston Catholic and furthering my education at the University of Charleston, I returned to Sacred Heart as a teacher. It was then that I found my true calling, educating children while sharing my Catholic Faith. I would later send my own children to Sacred Heart where I knew they too, would receive the best education possible. As a student, teacher, and parent at Sacred Heart, I know what makes our school great; it's our wonderful teachers, parents, and community. I look forward to building upon the foundations set by my predecessors and continuing in our tradition of a strong Catholic Faith and academic merit. With your prayers and support, I know we can continue to grow and pave the path of excellence for all students.

Do you know someone who wants to become Catholic?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process established for the universal Church for individuals to become Catholic and receive the sacraments of Initiation, Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist. This initiation process also involves a parish community experiencing a renewal in faith as it prepares and welcomes new members into the Church. The Rite speaks of conversion as a "spiritual journey." Centered on fostering a deep relationship with Jesus and the Church he founded, this journey takes place through distinct stages over a period of time (late August to Easter) suitable to bring about a thorough catechesis, significant experience of the parish community, and commitment to the liturgical and moral life of the Catholic faithful. The RCIA process is a restoration of the ancient catechumenate, arising within the first three centuries following the era of the apostles. It was the early Church's way of Christianizing the pagan Roman Empire. The Second Vatican Council called for the restoration and use of this venerable and powerful method of initiation for the worldwide Church.

Are you or do you know someone who would like to take this journey? If so, please contact Father Don (dhiggs@dwc.com) or RCIA Director Michael Kawash (mak@ramlaw.com or 304-549-6453). An inquiry session will be held in August.

The last few years I have been discerning monastic life with a religious order in England. I discerned to return to West Virginia earlier this year. It was a fruitful time and a place where I was able to grow, primarily in discovering who I am as a child of God. And my desire to serve the people of Wheeling-Charleston grew.

Recently I have been accepted to return to Mount St. Mary's Seminary to continue formation for our diocese. I am excited to be starting first theology this fall. I am looking forward to being among the people of our diocese and the other seminarians again. Please continue to pray for me, and be assured of my prayers as well. Michael Aiello

I had a very active summer at St. James the Greater Catholic Church in Charles Town. I worked several camps for the youth at the parish. This included helping promote vocations during Quo Vadis, kayaking, serving as a cooking judge, and most importantly, praying with the children of the parish. This summer, I also went on a mission trip to Webster County, as we worked on home improvements and spreading the Gospel. I also had the opportunity to accompany Fr. Grassi on Communion calls to sick parishioners. "I am returning to The Pontifical College Josephinum for second philosophy. Please continue to pray for me and my fellow diocesan brothers. Thank you and God Bless" Michael Kawash

Hello, Sacred Heart parishioners!

I wanted to briefly update you all on the end of completing my first year of seminary formation. I completed my first of two years of philosophical studies at Mount St. Mary's in May and then spent two months this summer in my pastoral assignment at the parishes in Princeton and Bluefield. While I am just in my first year, I really was able to involve myself in the lives of so many at both parishes and learn a lot from their pastor, Fr. Sebastian Devasya. Now after a brief amount of time off, I will head back to the seminary and continue formation. I additionally will be taking Greek classes this year, which I am looking forward to in order to learn scripture more adequately. As always, when I am home at the Co-Cathedral, I would love to speak with you all! The people of West Virginia are the reason I want to be a priest here! Praised be Jesus Christ!

To Jesus through Mary, Michael J Tupta

If you would like to send Timothy Kawash a note his address is: Pontifical College Josephinum, 7625 N. High St, Columbus, OH 43235. Micheal Aiello & Michael Tupta's address is Mount St. Mary's University, 16300 Old Emmitsburg Rd, Emmitsburg, MD 21727.

The Transfiguration of the Lord

After six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John and led them up a high mountain apart by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no fuller on earth could bleach them. Then Elijah appeared to them along with Moses, and they were conversing with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Rabbi, it is good that we are here! Let us make three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." He hardly knew what to say, they were so terrified. Then a cloud came, casting a shadow over them; then from the cloud came a voice, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." Suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone but Jesus alone with them. - Mark 9:2-8

Jesus Fulfills the Old Testament

The presence of Moses and Elijah shows how Jesus fulfills the Law and the Prophets. In the Old Testament, the Levitical law was given to God's people as a temporary administration, demonstrating their need for a Savior. Later, the prophets told of a coming Messiah, who would mend the rift between God and man that had been caused by sin. Jesus was the only man able to satisfy the Law, the perfect, sinless sacrifice.

Jesus Is the Glorious Son

In this passage God affirms Jesus as his Son, confirming his deity, and telling the disciples to listen to him. Peter, James, and John now see a glimpse of Jesus' true glory: God the Son, who reigns eternal, and against whom the gates of hell shall not prevail. God the Father shows himself as he appeared to the Israelites of the Old Testament: in a cloud, because his glory is too great to be witnessed. That same glory is reflected on Jesus, whose clothes become dazzling white. This event emphasizes both the mystery and necessity of the Incarnation—in order for man to be made right with God, God had to become a man, because we in our finite and sinful state are unable to behold his full glory.

Jesus Tells of His Coming Triumph over Death

This is also one of multiple instances in which Jesus points his disciples to his future resurrection:

As they were coming down from the mountain, he charged them not to relate what they had seen to anyone, except when the Son of Man had risen from the dead. So they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what rising from the dead meant. - Mark 9:9-10

Though the disciples do not understand his meaning, the Transfiguration and Jesus' charge to the disciples present a promise of what is to come. There is hope, because he will soon triumph over sin and death, and be raised in the fullness of glory – the glory of which they have just been given a glimpse.

Please consider joining our wonderful choir!

Here is an excerpt from a recent article from the Washington Post concerning the physical and mental health benefits of singing with others: "Choirs are large families. Singing in them promotes social bonding & joy. Choir members are more optimistic, less lonely, more likely to contribute positively to community. A sense of achievement comes from creating notes with the body & working together to master a work. The text is often inspiring & beautiful, so despite the day's travails, choir members leave rehearsals feeling as though this is a very positive thing that I can be a part of." The Bible knew that all along. Choirs are a biblical part of God's scheme of worship! Don't miss it in your church! Contact Mark Haas for more information: mhaas@shccwv.us

From our music director...

"A Joyful Psalm" #98: Psalm 97

I was born and raised in West Virginia ("Mountain Momma")! The very topography of our state is a mini-revelation from God. We know God as All-Mighty; One who reigns over all the earth (Ps.97). It's no surprise that God uses mountains to perform His wondrous deeds throughout the history of time: Noah begins the world anew on a mountain; Moses receives God's law on a mountain; Abraham takes Isaac up a mountain; Jesus appoints the Twelve; the Beatitudes and Sermon on the Mount; the Farewell Discourse; the Commissioning of the Twelve; the Crucifixion...

This weekend, we read about the Transfiguration of Jesus on a mountain. Jesus acknowledges His Kingship over the entire world, both past and present. Peter, James, and John represent the present (and future) Church. Moses and Elijah represent the Old Covenant. They are all united by the Transfigured Lord and King of the Universe.

The Lord uses mountains to point our minds to heaven. Perhaps a quick look at "Almost Heaven" West Virginia can be a small reminder of His roads that will "take us home."

Fr. Sadie's "Cogitationes" 304-546-4330

As we begin a new school year, let me share 2 reflections.

1. Parents hope their child will grow up to be healthy, a success in life, have a happy marriage, have wonderful children, a nice home, financial success.

Good, natural hopes. But the greatest hope they can have is their child will come to eternal life with God.

We encourage young people to strive, to achieve, to make a living. We also have a duty to encourage them to grow in faith so that they will make a life that begins now and will last for all eternity.

Our culture educates our youth in a "value neutral" education, which actually teaches that the value they need to embrace is that there are no values.

Parents, please attend to your children's faith formation whether your children attend Catholic or public schools.

2. Thank you teachers. Your dedication, efforts, talents, and love make a substantial difference in the lives of your students, our children. I do not remember what, when or whom a teacher taught me but I know they taught me a lot. But I remember how they made me feel worthwhile, how they made me feel I could succeed, how they encouraged me when I messed up, corrected me for unacceptable behavior, how they cared enough to care. I realized only later how much they cared and how much I cared.

Teaching is a difficult, challenging, exhausting job and sometimes we make it more so. Know we are grateful for the difference you make in the lives of our children. Thank you and God bless you.
