The Pope's Monthly Intention

September-For the cry of the Earth

We pray that each one of us will hear and take to heart the cry of the Earth and of victims of natural disasters and climactic change, and that all will undertake to personally care for the world in which we live.

For anyone from the 3rd grade up who would like to become an Altar Server or take a refresher course, Fr. Roy is offering training. To make arrangements contact Fr. Roy at rayappak@dwc.org or call the parish office at 304-342-8175.

A note from the Rector...

Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Lord,

Greetings on this Twenty-first in Ordinary Time!

Our Catholic schools have begun a new school year this past Wednesday. Please offer your prayers and support for the sacred mission and work of our schools. Remember in your prayers our principals, staff, teachers, parents, and students, may the Lord and guide them in the days ahead.

I encourage you to send cards of support and encouragement to our Diocesan Seminarians, especially three from our parish. We have 17 seminarians in formation this year. Please check out the ad in this bulletin to see how you may contact them.

Please have a blessed week. I remain,

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Don

Do you know someone who wants to become Catholic?

The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults OCIA, (formerly known as RCIA) is the process established for the universal Church for individuals to become Catholic and receive the sacraments of initiation — Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist. This initiation process also involves a parish community experiencing a renewal in faith as it prepares and welcomes new members into the Church. The OCIA speaks of conversion as a “spiritual journey.” Centered on fostering a deep relationship with Jesus and the Church he founded, this journey takes place through distinct stages over a period of time (early September to Easter) suitable to bring about a thorough catechesis, significant experience of the parish community, and commitment to the liturgical and moral life of the Catholic faithful. The OCIA process is a restoration of the ancient catechumenate, arising within the first three centuries following the era of the apostles. It was the early Church’s way of Christianizing the pagan Roman Empire. The Second Vatican Council called for the restoration and use of this venerable and powerful method of initiation for the worldwide Church.

Are you or do you know someone who would like to take this journey? If so, please contact Father Don Higgs, Rector (dhiggs@dwc.com), Deacon Michael Kawash, OCIA Director (mak@ramlaw.com or 304-549-6453), or the parish office 304-342-8175. An inquiry session will be held in early September.

The cost of the book is $13.00. Registration is required by contacting, Dr. Bob Harrison at DRBOBWV@AOLCOM or Cell/Text 304-932-8246

As the sun rises to bring in the new day:

We remember those who descend into the earth, their work begins in darkness, pulling from the earth, the resources we steward.

We remember those who work inside a building away from the light and brightness of the day.

We remember those who work outside in the harsh elements of our world, the bitter cold and sweltering heat of extremes.

We remember those who do not have a job to go to, who are struggling to meet the needs of their daily living expenses, for whom the day becomes long and arduous.

As the sun sets to bring in the evening of rest: We remember those who work in the night. We remember those who are trying to recover from their labor and toils of the day.

We remember those who participate in unsafe and dangerous work. We pray for a renewed sense of dignity in their lives and in their work.

God, in your goodness, you have made a home for the worker. Make a place in our hearts for compassion to the men and women who labor tirelessly for basic necessities.

Ensure a place for the men and women who are struggling to find work. Grant us your wisdom to greet and care for those who are unable to work due to illness or circumstances that prevent their participation.

Be with the children who are not able to run and play, but instead must put in a hard day’s work to help their family afford to eat, to live.

Be with us all, Christ Jesus, as we go about the busyness of our work. Hold us accountable not only for our actions, but most importantly to each of our neighbors. May we continue to work together to bring about your reign!

We ask this in your holy name, through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

THANK YOU!

Due to the generosity of those who contributed to our Capital Campaign, we were able to use the interest from the endowment on two projects for the parish. New carpet in the Basilica's Gathering Space and Sacristy, and the sealing and lining/numbering of the parking lot on the corner of Leon Sullivan and Virginia Streets.

For further information regarding the VLCFF certification program please contact Dr. Stoicoiu. There are 6 required courses for level one certification including the class below:

Sacraments

This is an introductory overview to the theology of the sacraments, the public, liturgical prayer of the Church. The Church is never so much the Church as when it is gathered together for liturgy. Jesus Himself is Sacrament, the visible sign of the invisible God. Eucharist is THE sacrament for it contains all that we are, all that the Church is, and all that Jesus says of God. Each of the sacraments will be discussed within the context of its role in the lives of the faithful: initiation into God's life, healing and reconciliation, and service to God's community. In this course we will gain a deeper understanding of the liturgy, the power of symbols, the history of the sacraments including baptism and the OCIA. We will study the Eucharist as source and Summit of ecclesial life and be able to explain the Sacraments of Initiation, Healing and Vocation. This course will include online materials and a two-hour weekly zoom meeting on Wednesday evenings 7-9 pm beginning September 4th. To register or for further information please contact Dr. Rodica Stoicoiu rodicastoicoiuphd@gmail.com

Faith Formation:

Study of The Joy of the Gospel: Evangelii Gaudium

Pope Francis has a dream of a Church walking without hesitation on a path of pastoral and missionary conversion with a joyful attitude that is personal and communal. This joy will transform habits, language, and facilities, directing them towards evangelization rather than self-preservation. (EG#27, 192) This dream is the focus of his Apostolic Exhortation, The Joy of the Gospel, which is the fruit of the October 2012 Synod of Bishops on The New Evangelization for the Transmission of the Faith. Though spurred by the recommendations of the Synod Fathers, the Pope's intentions go beyond it. There is a sense of newness in The Joy of the Gospel that radiates from the document's originality, style, and character. Pope Francis writes, "I invite all Christians, everywhere, at this very moment, to a renewed personal encounter with Jesus Christ, or at least an openness to letting him encounter them." (EG#3) The Pope encourages the Christian faithful to embark upon a new chapter of evangelization marked by a joy ever new, a joy which is shared.

As part of our studies, we will look at this Exhortation as it relates to other Church documents, look at the meaning of "New Evangelization" and what it means to be "mission oriented." Of special interest this Fall, in light of the next Synod session, we will discuss the role and responsibility of the laity in the Church under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit and look at what it means to be "Spirit-filled evangelizers" today. The course materials are online and there is a two-hour weekly class discussion on Monday evenings from 7-9 pm beginning Sept 2. To register or for further information please contact Dr. Rodica Stoicoiu rodicastoicoiuphd@gmail.com
