The Pope's Monthly Intention November-For the Pope

We pray for the Holy Father; as he fulfills his mission, may he continue to accompany the flock entrusted to him, with the help of the Holy Spirit.

A note from the Rector...

Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Lord!

Greetings on this Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time!

I have returned from the Eternal City of Rome. I had a very nice vacation with my brother Jim and his wife, Marta. We walked and prayed (of course-ate well) our way through the streets and churches of Rome and the Vatican. The highlight of our trip was our meeting with Pope Francis during his Audience on the 18th of October. Through the kindness of Bishop Brennan, who wrote a letter on our behalf requesting a meeting. I believed we would not meet the Pope, since I did not hear back from the Visitors Office before we left for Rome. After our arrival on October 17th, I received an email from the Office of the Papal Household, informing me to pick up our tickets at the Bronze Doors in the Vatican.

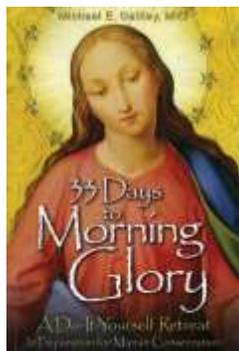

During the Wednesday Audience, we were seated on the front row. After the Audience, Pope Francis began to greet those gathered, when he came to me, I said, "Thank you, Pope Francis!, My school students (Charleston Catholic High School and Sacred Heart Grade School) send their love and prayers" on hearing my words, Pope Francis smiled and gave me a thumbs up, I said, Thank you Holy Father" In that brief encounter, his hand was warm and gentle, and his eyes lit up with a very joyful smile. It was a truly a grace filled moment.

As promised, I prayed for all of you as I celebrated Mass and visited the many Altars of Rome. I am very grateful for Fr. Roy who took on more responsibilities during my absence. May you have a blessed week. I remain,

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Don

Interested in making the Total Consecration to Jesus through Mary? The Marian Consecration group will be meeting for discussion starting this Sunday, November 5th and continuing each Sunday through Sunday, December 3rd. The discussion will begin at 12 noon for around one hour at the conference table in the Sacristy. The Consecration will be Friday, December 8th on the Feast of the Immaculate Conception. The Consecration includes a 33-day preparation period (around 10 minutes a day) which is mostly do-it-yourself but the weekly discussions will enhance the preparation. The group will use and discuss Fr. Michael Gaitley's book "33 Days to Morning Glory," following "True Devotion" by St. Louis de Montfort. Please contact Sam Willson at samwillson2@gmail.com to RSVP or for more information. All are welcome to attend.

"A Joyful Psalm" #109: Psalm 131

Confession time: I might be a "Momma's boy." When I was a young kid, my parents would sometimes call in a babysitter for their date night. I was never fond of a babysitter, and I didn't like it when my parents were away. As the evening would progress, I would become home sick for my mom. I would sneak into her room and take the bath robe out from her closet to snuggle with. Instant comfort!

Similarly, the Catholic Church serves as our Mother. In 1215, The Fourth Lateran Council called the Church "the mother of all the faithful." In his 1891 encyclical Rerum Novarum, Pope Leo XIII spoke of the Church as "the common Mother of us all." This is because the Church is the Bride of Christ: She is constantly seeking out her children.

In the Second Reading today, St. Paul says, "We were gentle among you, as a nursing mother cares for her children." (1 Thes. 2:7) Similarly, Psalm 131 states, "I have stilled and quieted my soul like a weaned child. Like a weaned child on its mother's lap, so is my soul within me." (Ps. 131:2) Going to Mass and singing the hymns, smelling the incense, and saying the prayers is like wrapping ourselves in Mother Church's warm bath robe. And should we drift away, we can always return to Mom for instant comfort. The Catholic Church is for everyone. Even Momma's boys.

Mark Haas, Director of Music

The Annual CCHS Baseball Spaghetti Dinner

Knights of Columbus

The Knights of Columbus can still accept Boxes of Joy this weekend after all Masses.

Father Thien will speak and show pictures and video about his work at the Risen Lord Food Pantry in Clay County, Monday November 13 at 7:00 p.m. This talk will follow our first fish fry at 6:00 p.m. You do not have to attend the trial fish fry to hear Father Thien. The Knights will be partnering with the Serra Club to host this talk. The location is the Sacred Heart Grade School Cafeteria.

The Knights are working toward holding Fish Fries for Lent this coming year. We need to see if there is interest and will be selling $5.00 donation tickets to our first fish fry in the gathering space after masses the next two weeks. Menu will be Fried or Baked Fish, Baked Potatoes, Green Beans, Hush Puppies, beverage and dessert.

Finally, it is time to start the Thanksgiving Food Drive to benefit the Risen Lord Food Pantry. Father Thien passes along that most months he helps around 230 families with food, now that Clay County is again without a commercial grocery store. Most of you already know that Father's most requested food items are 1. Peanut Butter, 2. Canned Tuna Fish, 3. Canned Soup, 4. Any Canned Vegetable, 5. Canned Fruit. Crackers would also be appreciated. We are again suggesting a donation in the form of a check made out to K of C 12630 for $30.00 to cover a basic Thanksgiving meal. Again, the Knights of Council 12630 thank the parishioners of Sacred Heart for their generosity.

SOCKTOBER

The Fr. Boniface Fourth Degree Assembly #1188 would like to thank the Sacred Heart parishioners for their kindest donation of 683 pairs of socks during our most recent SOCKTOBER Event for the needy in our area.

Fr. Sadie's "Cogitationes"

If you wish to contact Msgr. Sadie with questions concerning any of his "cogitationes" call 304-546-4330.

Bulletin Readers have asked me to share some highlights of my years as a priest.

In early 1957, the five of us deacons from the Diocese of Wheeling were told that we would be ordained, not at St. Joseph's Cathedral in Wheeling but at St. Francis Xavier's parish in Parkersburg. This was due, I'm sure, to the fact that (Fr.) Robert Park and I were both from St. Francis Xavier. I was delighted because after eleven years in the Seminary, people were beginning to wonder whether I would ever be ordained.

We had all speculated to what five parishes we would be assigned, we were not even close.

We had not considered Southern West Virginia, Beckley, to which Fr. Mascioli was assigned. We never imagined convert Fr. Park for his home parish, St. Francis Xavier in Parkersburg. Blacksburg, in Southwestern Virginia, was completely outside our radar for me.

The five of us were comfortable giving our first blessing in English and Latin. As a surprise to my father and grandfather, I had made the effort to learn the priestly blessing in Arabic. After a short time, all the young Syrians, who like me did not know Arabic, got back in line requesting the blessing in Arabic.

My mother's family, my grandfather, 3 uncles, and 1 aunt owned a trucking company. Giddee (affectionate name for grandfather) told me, "We're buying you a new car for your ordination, a Cadillac. "No, Giddee, I can't go to my first parish in a Cadillac." "Ok, then," he said, "we'll get you a Buick." "No, Giddee, I don't know my pastor. I don't know what he drives." I ended up with a red and white, 8 cylinder, fully equipped Fairlane Ford.

My wonderful new pastor drove a Buick.

Prayer for Vocations

Before the Blessed Sacrament

O Jesus, truly present in the Blessed Sacrament, draw all people to yourself, especially those you are calling to the priesthood and consecrated life.

Give your Church, we pray, fervent priests to serve at your altar, and holy men and women who will devote their lives to prayer and service as consecrated brothers and sisters.

May the Heart of Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament be praised, adored, and loved with grateful affection at every moment in all the tabernacles of the world, even until the end of time. Amen

A PRAYER FOR PEACE BY POPE FRANCIS

Lord God of peace, hear our prayer!

We have tried so many times and over so many years to resolve our conflicts by our own powers and by the force of our arms.

How many moments of hostility and darkness have we experienced; how much blood has been shed; how many lives have been shattered; how many hopes have been buried... But our efforts have been in vain.

Now, Lord, come to our aid!

Grant us peace, teach us peace; guide our steps in the way of peace.

Open our eyes and our hearts, and give us the courage to say:

"Never again war!"; "With war everything is lost".

Instill in our hearts the courage to take concrete steps to achieve peace.

Lord, God of Abraham, God of the Prophets, God of Love, you created us and you call us to live as brothers and sisters. Give us the strength daily to be instruments of peace; enable us to see everyone who crosses our path as our brother or sister. Make us sensitive to the plea of our citizens who entreat us to turn our weapons of war into implements of peace, our trepidation into confident trust, and our quarreling into forgiveness.

Keep alive within us the flame of hope, so that with patience and perseverance we may opt for dialogue and reconciliation. In this way may peace triumph at last, and may the words "division", "hatred" and "war" be banished from the heart of every man and woman. Lord, defuse the violence of our tongues and our hands. Renew our hearts and minds, so that the word which always brings us together will be "brother", and our way of life will always be that of: Shalom, Peace, Salaam!

Amen.

Catholic Just War Theory applied to Israeli-Hamas Conflict

The Catholic Church has a long history of reflecting on the justification, conditions and conduct of war. Let's look at the conflict between Hamas and Israel in the light of traditional Catholic just war theory (cf. Catechism of the Catholic Church, # 2309).

When a country is attacked, a defensive war is justified. War should only be undertaken because of lasting and grave harm. It should be the last resort, other means of ending conflict being impractical or ineffective. There must be serious prospects of success and the use of arms should not produce harm and disorder worse than the evil to be eliminated.

Considering Hamas, it is conducting an aggressive war, despite its claims to the contrary. The attacks launched earlier this month were not the last resort to address legitimate Palestinian grievances. While the Middle East is a cauldron of resentments and hatreds, gains such as the Israeli-Egyptian peace treaty and the Oslo Agreements show that, with good will and international support, progress can be made.

The main obstacle to peace is Hamas' hatred of Jews and its desire to destroy Israel. Instead of seeking to negotiate with Israeli authorities, Hamas has launched attacks that have caused irreparable harm by killing many hundreds of Israelis with no real possibility of succeeding in destroying Israel. Hamas' practice of hiding its fighters among non-combatants, including women and children, is cowardly and reprehensible. By attacking Israel and stirring it to a vigorous counterattack, Hamas has brought on worse evils that it seeks to eliminate.

On the Israeli side, it has a right to defend its people and to neutralize Hamas' ability to strike again. The harm caused to its people is grave; families cannot replace those murdered by the terrorists. One can argue that recent Israeli governments should have been more open to dealing constructively with the Palestinian people in Gaza and the West Bank, but Hamas has shown that it is an unwilling partner for dialogue.

Israel will successfully defend its own territory from Hamas and will rebuild its defenses against future attacks. It is less clear that it can completely eliminate Hamas from Gaza. The danger for Israel is that a blockade on food, water, medicine and electricity and a full-scale ground war in Gaza will cause such loss of life that Israel will lose the international sympathy it now enjoys, even from its usual critics, and future prospects for peace will be severely undermined. Israel's strategy should focus on swift action towards its stated goals followed by cooperation with the international community and humanitarian organizations who seek to help innocent Palestinians, particularly those injured and displaced.

Those of us who cherish Israel and want Jews to flourish in their historic homeland can and must pray to the God who is over us all, that peace based on justice may someday and somehow be achieved in the Holy Land.

Sincerely in Christ,

+Mark E. Brennan
