PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

“We, at the Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, are a diverse community of the poor, the disadvantaged and hungry, the well-to-do, the youth, elderly, visitors and those seeking refuge.

As a community of many cultures and races, we stand for unity in our diversity by expressing our love of God the Father through prayer and worship, through service to one another, through the ministry of welcoming, through evangelization and ecumenism. With the Bishop, we shall pursue this mission faithfully through the example of Jesus Christ, the power of the Holy Spirit and the gifts and talents of our members.” All are welcome today, especially visitors, guests and those who might be new to the community.

We pray for the Holy Father; as he fulfills his mission, may he continue to accompany the flock entrusted to him, with the help of the Holy Spirit.

A note from the Rector...

Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Lord,

Greetings on this Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time.

In this bulletin is a statement from Rt. Rev. Matthew Cowden, the Bishop of West Virginia Episcopal Diocese and Rev. Christopher Thompson concerning the operation of Manna Meal. Please keep all involved in your prayers as they decide the best way to care for those in need while maintaining the safety of our parishes and schools.

I remain,

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Don

Dear Parents, Grandparents, Caregivers, Teachers, and Staff of Sacred Heart parish and school,

On behalf of St. John's and the Episcopal Diocese West Virginia, we want to express our shared distress and equally shared concerns over this last Wednesday's disturbing event while children were lining up to begin their school day. The protection and safety of the children at Sacred Heart, and of all our children, comes first.

We are grateful that the board of Manna Meal has chosen to put a "pause" on in-house service at St. John's. This should provide immediate relief for many of our fears and concerns. As the interim priest and as the new bishop, we have been in active conversation with Manna Meal for over a year to address the increasing reports of violence, drug use, and unmanaged mental illness on the properties and in the neighborhood of both of our congregations. Manna Meal began as a ministry of the church over 45 years ago but has since become an independent ministry, though still operating at St. John's. Even as late as this last week, we were actively renegotiating our relationship and the Memorandum of Understanding between St. John's and Manna Meal, knowing a transition was most necessary. Now we are called to completely reimagine what this ministry will look like for those who need this service in Charleston.

Jesus in Matthew's Gospel said, "I was hungry and you fed me," calling on us to ever care for the least and the lost among us. When the Manna Meal ministry began over a generation ago, the population it served was quite different. Today a largely different approach needs to be taken to feed and to properly care for those unhoused, addicted, and hungry in our midst. As faithful followers of Jesus Christ we are committed to fulfilling our Lord's command to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, visit those who are bound, and to respect the dignity of every human being. It will, however, look different than it has in the previous generation.

On Wednesday afternoon we met with Fr. Higgs and Principal Kurtan. We offered our equally shared concerns and any support that we may provide to the Sacred Heart community. We are grateful for our common life together as members of the Charleston community and as people of faith. St. John's and the diocesan office are open for any dialogue or conversations that you may wish to have as we move forward.

Prayerfully yours in Christ,

The Rev. Chris Thompson
Interim Rector, St John's

The Right Reverend Matthew Cowden
VIII Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of West Virginia

Sacred Heart Grade School had a wonderful visit with Bishop Brennan and superintendent Jennifer Hornyak last month. The students had many wonderful questions for the Bishop and a great day was had by all.

From our music director...

"A Joyful Psalm" #110: Psalm 63

We are nearing the end of the liturgical year, and the Church presents to us readings that unveil the end times. During the upcoming weeks, the readings are almost always apocalyptic in nature. The Greek word, apokálypsis, means to "unveil." Through Sacred Scripture, the Church unveils for us the wedding feast that will occur at the end of time, so that we can be prepared.

In the First Reading, we are asked to always be ready: "Whoever keeps vigil shall quickly be free." (Wis. 6:12) Similarly, Saint Paul asks us to be prepared in the Second Reading: "We do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters." (1 Thess 4:13) Psalm 63 describes a psalmist who longs for God with anticipatory preparation: "Through the night-watches I will meditate on you, for you are my help." (Ps. 63:6) Finally, Jesus warns that we should not be caught off guard in death, and we should not be without knowledge of Him: "Lord, Lord, open the door for us!" But he said in reply, 'Amen, I say to you, I do not know you.' Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." (Mt. 25:11)

Whether at the end of time, or at the end of our earthly lives, the Lord is coming. O, that we may always thirst for him during our time on earth. "You are the God whom I seek; for you my flesh pines and my soul thirsts like the earth, parched, lifeless and without water." (Ps. 63:1)

Mark Haas, Director of Music

Memorials in Privileged Seasons

Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter are privileged seasons of the Church year. They shape the calendar by displacing Ordinary Time like ships in water.

Memorials are days set aside to honor certain saints. When one of them falls during a privileged season, the season affects them as well.

If a memorial coincides with Ash Wednesday or any weekday in Holy Week, it is not observed at all. If it falls on the weekdays of Advent from December 17 to 24, on weekdays between Christmas and New Year's, or on any weekday of Lent, the memorial may be ignored. Or the Collect (opening prayer of the Mass) may be taken from the prayers of the memorial, but everything else at Mass still comes from the privileged season. If a memorial falls on any other weekday of Advent, Christmas, or Easter, it may be celebrated fully—with all the Mass prayers pertaining to the saint of the day.

If you or your parish has a devotion to St. Lucy, for example, you may celebrate her day fully at Mass, even though it shows up in Advent every year (December 13). Cyril and Methodius (February 14), however, are remembered on a day that may fall during Lent. Parishes with a devotion to these Slavic missionaries subdue the references to them during celebrations of the Mass when their observance occurs during Lent.

When the calendar was revised after the Second Vatican Council, some saints' days were moved away from the privileged seasons so that they could be observed by the community every year. For example, Thomas Aquinas, formerly observed on December 21, is now celebrated on January 28. Gregory the Great, formerly on March 12, moved to September 3.

Fr. Sadie's "Cogitationes"

If you wish to contact Msgr. Sadie with questions concerning any of his "cogitationes" call 304-546-4330.

Bulletin Readers have asked me to share some highlights of my years as a priest.

I was extremely happy with my first priestly assignment. My pastor was Fr. Raymond Fohl, a native of Butler, PA, my mother's hometown. He was a retired Lt. Colonel military chaplain. He had worked closely with chaplains of other denominations, and he encouraged me to work closely with the other VPI chaplains. I was close to the campus Baptist, Methodist, Episcopal, and Presbyterian ministers when Vatican II opened in October 1962.

New undergraduate students were required to join the school's ROTC Program, the VPI Corps. The head of the corps, Catholic General Devine, was very supportive of my ministry. The school provided me with a list of Catholic students, and their dormitory addresses.

I remember the best time to meet the cadets was late at night. I knew to scratch, not knock on their door. Knock meant come to attention for superior officer.

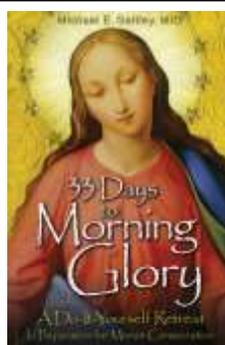

Knights of Columbus

Father Thien will speak and show pictures and video about his work at the Risen Lord Food Pantry in Clay County, Monday November 13th at 7:00 p.m. This talk will follow our first fish fry at 6:00 p.m. You do not have to attend the first fish fry to hear Father Thien. The Knights will be partnering with the Serra Club to host this talk. The location is the Sacred Heart Grade School Cafeteria.

The Knights are working toward holding Fish Fries for Lent this coming year. We need to see if there is interest and will be selling $5.00 donation tickets to our first fish fry at a table in the gathering space after masses this week. The menu will be Fried or Baked Fish, Baked Potatoes, Green Beans, Hush Puppies, a beverage and dessert.

The Thanksgiving Food Drive to benefit the Risen Lord Food Pantry is underway. Father Thien passes along that most months he helps around 230 families with food, now that Clay County is again without a commercial grocery store. Most of you already know that Father's most requested food items are 1. Peanut Butter, 2. Canned Tuna Fish, 3. Canned Soup, 4. Any Canned Vegetable, 5. Canned Fruit. Crackers would also be appreciated. We are again suggesting a donation in the form of a check made out to K of C 12630 for $30.00 to cover a basic Thanksgiving meal. Again, the Knights of Council 12630 thank the parishioners of Sacred Heart for their generosity.

Interested in making the Total Consecration to Jesus through Mary?

The Marian Consecration group will be meeting for discussion starting this Sunday, November 5th and continuing each Sunday through Sunday, December 3rd. The discussion will begin at 12 noon for around one hour at the conference table in the Sacristy. The Consecration will be Friday, December 8th on the Feast of the Immaculate Conception. The Consecration includes a 33-day preparation period (around 10 minutes a day) which is mostly do-it-yourself but the weekly discussions will enhance the preparation. The group will use and discuss Fr. Michael Gaitley's book "33 Days to Morning Glory," following "True Devotion" by St. Louis de Montfort.

Please contact Sam Willson at samwillson2@gmail.com to RSVP or for more information. All are welcome to attend.

SCAM ALERT

Recently we have become aware of several scam emails and text messages sent to parishes and parishioners, allegedly from our priests and Bishop, in which they solicit cash, gift cards or other information in order to assist with a personal matter. Please know that our Bishop, priests or employees of the Diocese will never solicit gifts in this manner and any solicitation you receive of this type is a scam.

If you have questions regarding any solicitation you receive on behalf of the Bishop, a priest or the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, please call 304-233-0880 and ask to speak with Krissie Benson, Director of Stewardship and Development, at ext. 259, or Rich Harrold, Director of Computer Services at ext. 213.

A Prayer for All Veterans

O God, Great and Almighty creator, we thank and praise You for the freedom we enjoy in our country and pray that our liberties will continue to be protected.

Thank You for America's heroes, that have fought for our freedoms and who have faithfully served our country. We honor all of our veterans, for their sacrifices and for their courage and integrity.

As we celebrate these freedoms, we ask Your blessing on those veterans who made the ultimate sacrifice while defending our country. Bless their families and comfort them with the thankful prayers of a grateful nation.

We thank You for our veterans, past and present. Through the efforts of these individuals, help us continue to promote justice in all nations.

Amen.
