PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

“We, at the Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, are a diverse community of the poor, the disadvantaged and hungry, the well-to-do, the youth, elderly, visitors and those seeking refuge.

As a community of many cultures and races, we stand for unity in our diversity by expressing our love of God the Father through prayer and worship, through service to one another, through the ministry of welcoming, through evangelization and ecumenism. With the Bishop, we shall pursue this mission faithfully through the example of Jesus Christ, the power of the Holy Spirit and the gifts and talents of our members.” All are welcome today, especially visitors, guests and those who might be new to the community.

A note from the Rector...

Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Lord,

Greetings on this First Sunday of Advent!

As we begin a new Church Year, I pray that you had a wonderful Thanksgiving. On Thanksgiving Day, Fr. Roy moved to his new parish of St. Matthew in Ravenswood and Sacred Heart Mission in Point Pleasant. Fr. Roy's new address is in this week's bulletin. On Friday, we welcomed our new Associate Rector, Fr. Prakash Kerketta. Fr. Kerketta will introduce himself at each of the Masses this weekend. Please pray for them as they begin their new assignments.

James Sparks, our new Music Director has written a bio in our bulletin, please check it out and welcome him to our parish.

Please make use of the Advent reflection Keeping the Seasons in our bulletin.

Have a blessed Advent as we prepare to celebrate the Incarnation of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

I remain,

In Christ,
Fr. Don

I'm thrilled to introduce myself as the new Director of Music for the Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart. My name is James Sparks, and I was born and raised near Ashland, Kentucky, a place that deeply shaped my love for music and community. I hold a Bachelor of Music degree from Morehead State University and a Master of Music from Westminster

Choir College in Princeton, New Jersey, where I had the privilege of immersing myself in the rich traditions of sacred and choral music.

As a passionate convert to the Catholic faith, my journey into the Church has been one of profound joy and discovery. I am eager to bring that same enthusiasm and reverence into our shared ministry here. I look forward to collaborating with all of you, fostering meaningful worship through music, and growing together as a parish family.

Thank you for the warm welcome I have already experienced!

God Bless,
James Sparks

If you wish to send Fr. Roy a note his new address is:

Fr. Rayappa "Roy" Kurakula
St. Matthew Catholic Church
600 Crooks Avenue
Ravenswood, WV 26164

Please keep in your prayers Wendy M. Bryant, who died November 14th. Our prayers and condolences for her family and friends. Eternal rest grant to her, O Lord.

Please keep in your prayers Reggie Smith, who died November 22nd. Our prayers and condolences for his wife Sally, sons Paul & Matthew and friends. Eternal rest grant to him, O Lord.

Shining Stars Christmas Tree

We are sponsoring the shining stars Tree again this year! There are still stars left, so be sure to pick up a shining star from the Christmas tree in the Gathering Space after any mass until 12/8. Your generosity will enable area children and seniors in need to receive gifts for Christmas.

All gift donations must be returned to the Gathering Space, unwrapped and with the Shining Star attached, by Sunday, 12/15.

A Celebration of Life for Sr. Carol A. Riley C.D.P., will be held December 7, 2024, at 11:00 a.m. in the Gathering Space of the Basilica. Everyone is welcome to attend.

The Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary

December 9th-A Holy Day of Obligation

The Sunday, December 8th 5:00 PM Mass will be for the 1st Sunday of Advent, not a Vigil Mass for the Holy Day.

"No sin would touch her, so that she would be a fitting and worthy vessel of the Son of God. The Immaculate Conception does not refer to the virginal conception and the birth of Christ, but rather to Mary's being conceived without inheriting Original Sin." USCCB

As we approach the season of gratitude and generosity, I invite you to join us in celebrating Giving Tuesday on December 3, 2024. This global day of giving is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the blessings in our lives and to give back to those who nurture our hearts and spirits.

Your parish plays an essential role in your community—providing support to families, offering outreach to those in need, and sharing the message of faith, hope, and Christ's love. Your support allows them to continue this important mission and make a lasting impact on the lives of so many.

Every gift, no matter the size, makes a difference. Your generosity can help:

- Strengthen ministries that guide our youth, families, and elderly.
- Expand outreach efforts to serve those struggling in our community.

Maintain your parish as a welcoming place for worship and spiritual growth.

This Giving Tuesday, please consider making a gift to your parish through the Catholic Sharing Appeal. Together, we can ensure our parishes and missions continue to thrive as a beacon of God's love.

To make your gift, visit dwc.org/CSA or you can send a check (payable to CSA) to Catholic Sharing Appeal, PO Box 230, Wheeling, WV 26003. Be sure to include your parish name in the memo line!

Thank you for your continued prayers and generosity.

Blessings,
Heidi Sforza
Director of Annual Giving
Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston

Retirement Fund for Religious-December 7/8

The Need

Across the United States, hundreds of religious communities lack financial resources sufficient to meet the retirement and health-care needs of aging members.

Lack of funds

Of 476 communities providing data to the National Religious Retirement Office (NRRO), only 27 are adequately funded for retirement. (See chart.) Historically, Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests—known collectively as women and men religious—received very little pay. Any surplus funds were reinvested in ministry and the education of younger members. As a result, hundreds of US religious communities lack adequate retirement savings.

Rising costs

Like many Americans, religious communities face the monumental challenge of funding eldercare. Currently, the average annual cost of care for women and men religious past age 70 is nearly $60,000 per person. Skilled care averages $90,700. The total cost of care for senior women and men religious in the United States has exceeded $1 billion annually for each of the last 16 years.

Changing demographics

During the early and mid-twentieth centuries, the Catholic Church in the United States experienced a surge in vocations to religious life, with numbers peaking in the mid-1960s. Care for elderly members was provided largely by younger ones. Over time, however, the number of vocations decreased while lifespans increased. The result is far fewer younger members available to support the retirement and eldercare needs of senior members. Currently, 71 percent of the religious communities providing data to the NRRO have a median age of 70 or older.

Congratulations to our students and teachers on this outstanding accomplishment.

Keeping the Seasons First Sunday of Advent

Patient Anticipation

God our Father, fulfiller of promises, you illuminate our way to justice. Guide us to humbly and kindly increase and abound in love for one other. May our hearts be strengthened as we look past the distractions of this season. In this patient anticipation, help us to be vigilant, so that we may be ready to respond to the call you have placed in our hearts. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sunday, December 1, 2024-Vigilance Requires Intentional Action

Today's readings: Jeremiah 33:14–16; Psalm 25:4–5, 8–9, 10, 14 (1b); 1 Thessalonians 3:12–4:2; Luke 21:25–28, 34–36. In the first reading, Jeremiah recalls the promise the Lord made to the Israelites regarding safety and security. Through his prophecy of restoration, Jeremiah calls the Israelites back to the Lord. Hearing this prophecy reminds us that comfort in the Lord is near!

At the beginning of the liturgical year, Advent encourages Christians to focus on keeping the Lord's "covenant and his decrees," as the psalm states. Much like the Israelites, we need to pray for prudence to recognize distractions in our daily lives. During this hectic season, we may feel pulled in many directions, often away from God, as it is a time filled with much busyness and movement—or "the anxieties of daily life." Amid these distractions, we are to remember that vigilance requires intentional action. In the Gospel of Luke, Jesus tells his disciples, "Beware that your hearts do not become drowsy." If attention is not paid, a person could be caught by surprise on the day of redemption. Keeping the Lord's covenant and his decrees requires spiritual discipline.

As this season of anticipation begins, the Advent wreath is blessed and lighted. Let us dedicate ourselves to lifting our souls to the Lord as we light a new candle each week.

This Week at Home

Monday, December 2-Healing Words

The centurion who approaches Jesus as he enters Capernaum expresses faith in the restorative power of Jesus' word: "Only say the word and my servant will be healed." Recognizing our unworthiness, we pray similar words during the Liturgy of the Eucharist. This week, consider how you might be like the centurion and faithfully ask for healing. Allow the Lord's words to provide comfort and flow over you so that you can go rejoicing. Today's readings: Isaiah 2:1–5; Psalm 122:1–2, 3–4b, 4cd–5, 6–7, 8–9; Matthew 8:5–11.

Tuesday, December 3-St. Francis Xavier

St. Francis Xavier was a cofounder of the Society of Jesus, also known as the Jesuit order. As the first Jesuit missionary, he spent much time traveling and living in foreign places to evangelize. His ministry required his learning new languages, being flexible with movement, and living in different cultures. Ask for St. Francis Xavier's intercession as you consider how you might challenge yourself to leave your comfort zone to preach the Good News. Today's readings: Isaiah 11:1–10; Psalm 72:1–2, 7–8, 12–13, 17; Luke 10:21–24.

Wednesday, December 4-Abundance

Today's Scriptures portray God's bountiful love for his people. First, the reading from Isaiah proclaims that the Lord "will provide for all peoples." Then Matthew's Gospel recounts how Jesus fed the crowd who had been with him for days with "nothing to eat." After Jesus gave thanks and broke the bread, thousands were offered food—and still there were leftovers! Reflect on the blessings in your life. Say a prayer in gratitude for the abundance—whatever that may be—with which the Lord has blessed you. Today's readings: Isaiah 25:6–10a; Psalm 23:1–3a, 3b–4, 5, 6; Matthew 15:29–37.

Thursday, December 5-Sturdy Ground

The Gospel reading portrays the importance of both listening intently and intentionally responding to the Lord. Consider ways to listen and respond to God throughout the rest of this season. How can you "be like a wise man who built his house on rock"? What are some tangible ways in which you are being encouraged to act so that your faith stands on sturdy ground? Today's readings: Isaiah 26:1–6; Psalm 118:1 and 8–9, 19–21, 25–27a; Matthew 7:21, 24–27.

Friday, December 6-St. Nicholas

It is easy to become consumed with shopping for gifts and preparing for many holiday parties as Christmas approaches, ultimately pushing aside our dedication to God. When losing focus on what matters, allow to echo within you today's psalm refrain: "The Lord is my light and my salvation." Recognizing this transformational prayer, celebrate the optional Memorial of St. Nicholas today with the gift of an act of service for someone. Today's readings: Isaiah 29:17–24; Psalm 27:1, 4, 13–14; Matthew 9:27–31.

Saturday, December 7-An Abundant Harvest

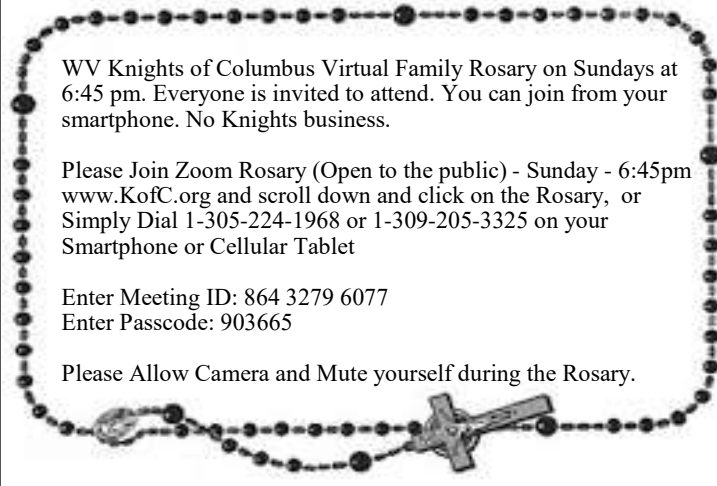

That Jesus' heart was moved with pity for the troubled and abandoned can comfort us today. Matthew's Gospel portrays Jesus' ministering to those who seemed like "sheep without a shepherd" and delegating his disciples to do the same. The reading from Isaiah shows that the Lord gives what is needed, answering his people "as soon as he hears" their cries. Let us find peace knowing that God is with us as we receive and, in turn, as we give. Today's readings: Isaiah 30:19–21, 23–26; Psalm 147:1–2, 3–4, 5–6; Matthew 9:35—10:1, 5a, 6–8.
